"THE GOOD OLD DAYS" OH YEAH!

Depressed by the bumper blues, you might some day find yourself wishing for the good old days when cars were fewer and farther between. Don't do it. Like most good old days, the good old days of motoring just weren't very good at all.

Suppose you did find yourself back in the noisy nineties, clutching your money in your wet little palm, and eager to buy yourself one of those newfangled horseless carriages. About all you could buy then would be a steam carriage, which amounted to an old buckboard with the shafts cut off, four rubber-tired wheels, and a strange propensity for either soaking you with water vapor from time to time or blowing you higher than the proverbial kite.

And the car you got would be little more than a stripped down chassis. If you wanted a top, windshield, side curtains, battery, or tires, you'd have to go out and buy these on your own.

Then you were ready to go, almost. If your trip was going to be more than 20 miles, you had to get out your tools, your kit of spare parts, and your maps, and lay your plans like an attacking general. Then you put on your fur-lined overcoat, hauled on your heavy woolen gloves, tight-fitting rubber-lined cap, and oversized goggles.

Back to those bumper-to-bumper blues?

THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT

... WE NEED YOUR BLOOD. MAKE A DATE TODAY. RED CROSS BLOOD PROGRAM.

Two Times Nothing

ISLE, MINN., MESSENGER: "Our new linotype operator (my wife) is getting pretty good. In December she was just a novice--now she's setting a gally per hour--a good trick for any linotype operator. She's getting so good, I've decided to double her salary. I can afford it. Two times nothing--is nothing. In fact, if she keeps up the good work, I may double her salary again in a couple of weeks!"

PORTLAND, ME., PRESS HERALD: "... there ought to be some way to punish union defectors of the courts."

Invasion of Press

Grangeville, Ida., Press: "There was... an attempt for the federal government to infringe into the free press of the country recently. Some group, no doubt looking for a job for themselves, wanted to start a newspaper for circulation in a particular federal housing unit. This would have been the most seriously operated newspaper in the world on the basis of circulation. It would have had two objects: Continued jobs for those in charge and promoting more federal controls."
