AFRICAN INFLUENCE
The African influence has moved from the jungle prints for ready-to-wear into the accessories markets. There are ankle bracelets of carved ivory, toe rings, snake-like ropes of seed beads to circle the throat again and again, huge hoop earrings of bamboo, and the African butternut copied and strung on a necklace of teeth.

Spanish Main
Spanish Main was the name English pirates gave to the northern coast of South America, the present countries of Colombia and Venezuela. Later, the name often was used for the whole Caribbean Sea.

MY GET UP AND GO

I know that all my youth has been spent
My get up and go has got up and went,
But in spite of it all, I'm able to grin
When I think of the places my get up has been.

Old age is golden, I've heard it said
But sometimes I wonder when I get in bed,
My ears in a drawer, my teeth in a cup,
My eyes on the table until I get up.

As sleep dims my eyes, I say to myself
Is there anything else I should lay on the shelf?
But I'm happy to say as I close the door
My friends are the same as in days of yore.

When I was young, my slippers were red,
I could kick my heels right over my head
When I grew older, my slippers were blue,
But still I could dance the whole night through.

But now that I'm old, my slippers are black,
I walk to the corner and puff my way back.
That's the reason I know my youth has been spent--

But I really don't mind, when I think with a grin
Of all of the places my get up has been.
Since I have retired from life's competition,
I busy myself with complete repetition.

I get up each morning, dust off my wits,
Pick up the paper and read the 'obits'
If my name is missing, I know I'm not dead--
So I eat a good breakfast, and go back to bed.
