COMMUNICATION

Dear Mr. Editor—

Say, Mr. editor I want ya to keep it up your hat, but Jim Kernutt wuldent shake hands with Mr. Isaacson Sunday a tall. I hear the teacher a tellin 'em shake an make up and they wuldnt do it!

A feller wuz a talkin to me 'tother day an he sez, sez he I wuz a visitin the school tother day and they wuz a class uv high school fellers a reciten an the teacher ast "What wuz Hansa-Bell?" an a feller sez, "He wuz a Red," sez he; Laff, I thot I'd die!

I wuz a talkin to some uv the little shavers in the grades an I kinder thot I'd see how much they wuz a larnin' an I ast one on 'm "What is Oregon noted for," sez I, "Well sir just as quick as a wink he sez, sez he "The Biggest Thing in the Rogue River Valley," sez he. I sez, sez I, Go on up boy, you belong at the head uv the class.

I went in at Weavers Store 'tother day an I sez to J. E., sez I, Well J. E., I sez "How goes it," an with a fur away look in his eye he sez, as if he didnt know whether the ole wurd wuld stay put or not; sez he "Two and two" sez he, just that a way; Laff, I thot I'd die!

Say I cum up to Earl Bell on the street tother day an I sez 'er, I Say Earl, What is a perfect number, sez I; Well sir, he cum rite back—108 sez he, an then looked like he'd been caught perposin' to his best girl, an sez, sez he, O, I thot ya wuz a talkin' about the class, he sez.

Say I hearn tother day that a plot has been discovered rite here in our little ole town! They as it wuz hatched up in the post office. I haint never whether its the govment or the state or jist public opinion but it seems that a band uv desper fellers under the leadership uv a certain public official here in town are out to "Paint the whole town "RED!" Well, I agree with Sandy, hit cant be done!

Sa Mr. Editor I betcha they haint another town int he hul U. S. A. whats got a bunch o men in a P. B. class 108 strong, all there.

Somebody sez they wuz afeard that after that feed Feb the secont some o the fellers wuldent be able to get out.

Well, they growd from 49 to 71 to 108, the last three weeks and the janitor thinks that calls fer about 150 chairs next Sunday and he sez hed have 'em there all in place next Sunday.

C. S. Sanderson has evinited part uv Salem to be at the big feed. Sandy sure does believe in advertisement.

Say, a feller went in the bank 'tother day an sed to Mr. Isaacson sez he Mr. Isaacson, I hearn that the contest in the Biggest Thing in the Rogue River Valley ended last Sunday, sez he. Mr. Isaacson sed, No sir, sez he; the contest has jist begun. We've played with them Reds an sudded 'em along gentle like, to klyds keep their speerits up till we got 'em thinkin they wuz some punkins sez he, an now were ready to start the ball, without no handy caps a tall. Why say feller, sez he, them Reds will think they wuz a runnin' with a syclone in two weeks.

A feller standin close by, kinda winked an sed soft like, to misself, Theys lots a wind in this here valley, sez he.

Well we long Mr. editor, I hope to see you spread out over one o them 150 chairs next Sunday.
