

COUNTY MEET OF P. T. A.

The county meeting of the P. T. A. was held in Ashland at the Lithia hotel on April 3rd, Mrs. Arnsperger acting as chairman because of the absence of both the president and vice-president.

The forenoon was mostly taken up with the giving of reports from various circles of the county.

The districts reporting were Bellview, Central Point, West Side, Oak Grove, Reese Creek, Ashland and Medford.

Superintendent Briscoe of Ashland, gave a talk on the advisability of establishing the free text-book system. This was at the close of the morning session.

About 40 delegates were served luncheon in the private dining room of the hotel.

At 1:30 the meeting was again called to order. Some left-over reports were read, after which Mrs. John Roger, chairman of the program committee, took charge.

A fine program was rendered, consisting of vocal and instrumental solos; a talk by Mrs. Louis Dodge, of Ashland; reading from a "Child Welfare Magazine" by Mrs. Powell, Ashland; a reading by Dr. Mattie Shaw, of Ashland. The reading was entitled, "Work."

During the morning session an invitation to hold the next meeting in Medford, was extended. This was accepted and a committee appointed to fix the date, which date will be the first Thursday in November.

The committee on officers for the coming year reported as follows: Mrs. C. E. Bolds, president; Mrs. Baughman, vice-president; Mrs. Loomis, secretary; Mrs. F. J. Frick, treasurer.

Central Point was entitled to five delegates. They attended and were as follows: Mrs. Lathrop, Mrs. J. H. Snyder, Mrs. Luther Stancliffe, Mrs. Florence Stephenson and Miss Mildred Beeson.

J. T. Fry and wife are today celebrating their 49th wedding anniversary. May they live to enjoy many more such occasions.

You can get a sack of hard wheat flour at Faber Grocery at $2.00.

Mrs. J. E. Boswell is spending this week with Mrs. Swartz.

Clean up prices on Messaline and Taffeta silks.—Fabers.

Mrs. F. A. Hall of Medford was calling on Mrs. Geo. Fox Wednesday.

A bargain in silk at Fabers.

Old Time Dance Friday nite, Jazz Dance Monday nite, United Artisans 7-piece orchestra.—Gateway Theatre

L. H. Root and family spent Sunday of last week near Roseburg at the home of their daughter.

L. N. Schwartz and Jack Southwell left this morning for the Bill Dunn place near the mills, where they will begin the erection of a 28x38 residence.

Mrs. Annie Wright, mother of Mrs. F. O. Cochran, is reported to be quite poorly this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George March and daughter Delva, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Daugherty on West Eleventh street Medford, where they attended the wedding of George Hartley and Florence Dillon.

Trade at home and save time as well as money.

Edward Minnie, first grade student, fell on a water pipe where the workmen have been excavating for the boiler room, breaking two permanent teeth this morning. Donald Wilson a high school student took him home in his car.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Morris and children have moved into the Whitlatch house west of the school grounds. Mr. Morris is foreman of the new high school building which is being erected.

All the ladies of the community who are interested in the final party for the P. T. A. to be held at the gymnasium on Friday evening April 30th, are asked to meet at the gymnasium on Monday afternoon, April 19th at 2 o'clock to make the necessary plans.

SARAH ELIZABETH McDONOUGH

Sarah Elizabeth McDonough passed away at her home in Ashland Sunday evening after a long illness. The deceased was born in Lafayette, Indiana, November 28, 1855 and was 70 years, 4 months and 13 days of age at the time of her death. Mrs. McDonough has made her home in Ashland for the past 16 years and ten years previous to that she made her home in Central Point, and has lived for short times in other parts of Jackson county. Five children are left to mourn the departure of this loved one, Mrs. C. R. Fifield of Grants Pass, Oregon; Mrs. O. O. Wingfield of Tennant, California; A. G. Beal of The Dalles, Oregon; R. H. Beal of St. Helens, Oregon, and H. E. Beal of Medford; also two step-daughters, Miss Margaret McDonough, of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Vivian Zanzow, of Gilroy, California. Also a host of friends and neighbors.

Mrs. McDonough was a member of the Rebekah lodge at Ashland, having transferred there from Central Point where she was a charter member of the Hope Rebekah Lodge number 14. She was also a member of W. H. Harrison post of the Woman's Relief Corps Number 27 of Central Point and a member of the Methodist church at Jacksonville, having united with the church when she was living in that city.

The funeral was held at the Pearl Funeral Home on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. J. M. Johnson officiating. The interment was in the Central Point cemetery.

FIRST FISH OF SEASON

As we go to press our neighbor, John Ross, presented our home with a large plate of trout, the first we have seen this season.

They look mighty good and we have promise of something "different" for our press day dinner.

John lost no time getting started up the Rogue this morning it being the opening day of the season.

NOTED MINISTER GONE

B. V. Hinson, pastor of the East Side Baptist church in Portland, recently passed away after a brief illness.

Mr. Hinson was known throughout the nation as an able speaker. He spoke in Medford last January, a number of our people hearing him at that time.

LILLIE JANE BRENNER

Lillie Jane Brenner passed away at her home one mile northwest of Central Point April 12, from a complication of diseases. Aged 51 years, 2 months, 14 days. She was born in Hancock county, Illinois, January 28, 1875, and at Warsaw, Illinois, on January 18, 1900 she was married to John Brenner and to this union were born four children, two sons and two daughters. Mrs. Homer Scholer, Butte Falls, Oregon; Mrs. Clifford Webber, Klamath Falls, Oregon, and two sons, Donald and Truman, living at the home and three grandchildren. She was a member of the Methodist church, and the family had been residents of the Central Point community for the past 14 years. Funeral services were held at the residence Wednesday at 2 p. m., Rev. J. M. Johnson, officiating. Interment in Jacksonville cemetery. The Perl Funeral Home had charge of funeral arrangements.

UNION CHURCH

Title of the Sunday school lesson: "The Parables of Jesus," Matt. 13. One of the most important lessons we will have.

The question: "What Would Jesus Do?" will be the subject of the sermon in the morning service. "Looking Ahead; or Watching the Highway," will be the subject for discussion in the evening.

The annual meeting of the congregation will be held in the church on Friday evening, April 23rd. The importance of this meeting should be stressed by all our people.

Rev. J. M. Johnson, Pastor.

FOR SALE

English Penciled Indian Runner Ducks, $4.50 per pair. Ducks now laying.—E. G. Henselman, 423 King St., Medford, Ore. Phone 532x. -8

Better repairing and reconditioning for less at the Independent Garage. adv

Brick Ice Cream at Damon Cafe.

A PLEASANT BIRTHDAY PARTY

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Lester and Elizabeth Scott Tuesday evening by a number of young people. The evening was spent in games, music and singing after which refreshments were served by Mrs. Scott and Miss Violet Scott.

Those present to help spend this pleasant evening were: Donna Morton, Ruth Webster, Elizabeth Southwell, Wyvette Boswell, Roberta Reams, Loomis Davidson, Elizabeth Scott, Rera Davidson, Hildegard Porter, Amy Johnson, Ardis Casad, Ethelyn Scott, George Elden, Gene Reams, Harry Elden, Philip Hamrick, Lester Scott, Edward Stanley, Harold Morton, Perry Johnson, Theron Brown, Joe Collier and Everette Scott.

The 12th annual Jackson county track and field meet, of which Central Point high school has been the winner for the past five successive years, will be held at the fair grounds Saturday, April 24. Beginning at 9 o'clock, with J. D. Beeson as manager. This meet is known as the small town and rural. Ten towns and thirty rural schools will take part. The two past years it has been the policy of the management to make a small charge at the gate. This year they wish to announce that you bring your lunch, hot coffee will be served at the grounds and no charge be made to the grandstand. There will be no lunch concession, as in the past. The confection concession will be the same.

M. M. Kindle and Ed Vincent connected with the Beebe & Kindle Service stations, will be among the guests of H. O. Frobach, dealers of General Gasoline products in Southern Oregon, at a dinner at the Cave-men's grotto at the Redwoods hotel at Grants Pass on Friday evening, April 16. These dinners are given several times each year, the last having been at the Lithia hotel in Ashland. Officials from the Portland office will be present at the affair, according to Mr. Frobach.

Under the direction of foreman C. A. Morris, the construction work for the new high school building has been progressing rapidly. The boiler room has been excavated, a shed for cement has been constructed and the forms for the pouring of the cement for the foundation will be completed soon.

Brick Ice Cream at Damon Cafe.

Included among the Hotel Central guests are Mr. and Mrs. Gus Palmer of Spokane, C. H. Rose of Portland, Elliot M. Johnson, E. D. Hoag and son, Leon C. Hughes and family of Medford, G. M. Gregory of Anaheim, California, J. Sears of Portland, Joseph Mikonsky and J. W. Sanders of Malin, Oregon, and J. W. Angells of Glendale.

Attorney W. G. Trill returned Thursday from Portland where he was attending to his business interests and visiting relatives. Mr. Trill made the trip by motor with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Debuque and reports weather conditions in the northern part of the state are very similar to those here.

Over 135 persons were present at the dance at the Gateway Theatre last night. The dance was given by and for the benefit of the Central Point Rebekah lodge. Jack Fletcher, a dusky youth enroute to Seattle, danced the Charleston as a feature dance, for which he received $2.48 from the crowd.

E. H. Pomroy, local orchardist, well known for his delicious peaches, was engaged Tuesday in hauling some freight from the local S. P. office to his home. Mr. Pomroy predicts a fine peach crop this year if the trees get plenty of water.

Mr. Broadrick of Chicago, foot comfort expert from the personal staff of Dr. W. M. Scholl, the recognized foot authority, was here Wednesday conducting a special foot comfort demonstration at Faber's store. A large number of local people were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tex and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pankey are enjoying the balmy weather of today by picnicking on the Rogue, also of course Mr. Tex and Mr. Pankey are among the many local fishermen crowding the banks.

J. H. McJimpsey was in Medford Wednesday on business.

The American does all kinds of printing. If it can be printed—we can do it.

In addition to their present stock Leever's Hardware Store has added a complete line of plumbing fixtures.

Why take your cars to Medford when you can get a better job for less money at the Independent Garage at Central Point. adv

Mr. and Mrs. Hatfield and Mr. and Mrs. Neal motored to Grants Pass Sunday afternoon.

Through recent business transactions in Portland, attorney W. G. Trill has received the local agency for the Intermountain Building and Loan association.

Leon Boomer, a prominent man of the younger set, recently purchased a Near-a-Car, from Harold Morton, the Tribune paper carrier of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Morris of the Table Rock district were in the city last night attending the dance at the Gateway Theatre.

City water superintendent James Cummings, irrigated the city park this morning with the fire hose.

A $2.00, 1926 Road, Radio and Railway map Oregon, Washington, California, U. S., as a premium, at Mary Mee's drug store. Ask about it. -2t

STRONG HATE AND LOVE

If you like tales of the wide open spaces, of strong hates and strong loves, you will enjoy the romance of the mountain West, "The Ranger of the Big Pines," a Vitagraph picture which will open Saturday and Sunday at the Gateway Theatre. It tells of a man's struggle between love and pride, besides the struggles between the guardians and invaders of the forests of Wyoming. William Van Dyke directed this picture-ization of Hamlin Garland's popular novel, "Cavanagh, Forest Ranger," in which Kenneth Harlan is featured.

SERVICE STATION CHANGES HANDS AGAIN

Joseph Martin of Medford who recently bought the "BonAir" service station north of the city, has exchanged the station for land of S. J. and C. E. Turner.

A certain young lady who will graduate this spring is expecting a nice watch or piece of jewelry as a graduation gift. Why disappoint her? See Jones, the Jeweler.

The young lady who was looking for a graduation gift for a young man dropped into Jones' Jewelry Store last week and her troubles were soon ended.

For Sale—New set of harness costing $100. Will sell at quick sale at $65.—Joe Lowdermilk. Inquire at Table Rock Store.

Eureka Vacuum Cleaners

Special Terms for MAY

Watch for Announcement

PAUL'S ELECTRIC STORE
Medford, Oregon

Carl Loveland's New Orchestra

Saturday, Night
April 17

At
EAGLE POINT DANCE

Shirts for Men

Extra Large Cut, two Bellows Pockets, High Grade Cloth, Extra Buttons on Cuffs, Large Sleeves, Watch Chain Button Hole, Triple Stitched, 6-Button front.

COME IN AND SEE THEM $1.25
OTHERS 90c and $1.00

KHAKI PANTS

Sterling make, full size, good shape $1.90
Sterling make, full size, 8 oz. cloth $2.25

YOU MUST LOOK OVER OUR LINE—No. 22 Blue Denims Overall, Waist and Bibb.

To get quality and the lowest price for you—

B. P. Thiess & Co.
"STAR BRAND SHOES ARE BETTER"