

FISH ASCENDING RIVER

Fish are coming over the recently constructed fishway at Raimey falls at the rate of nine a minute, according to Walter Browne, who with W. O. Hadley, state superintendent of fishways, returned the first of the week from a trip there, a week ago. The fish are experiencing no difficulty in coming up, and better conditions are being noted on the Upper Rogue. Last Tuesday Bowne and Supt. Hadley and W. R. Coleman made an inspection of conditions at the Savage Rapids dam, and conferred upon recommendations, which will be embodied in a report to be filed by Supt. Hadley with the state fish and game commission for early action.—Medford Mail Tribune.

The following letter from Myrna Bush, who has been in charge of the post office at Crater Lake lodge for the past two seasons has such a nice mental picture of the lake that we were inclined to pass it on:

Crater Lake, Sept. 17, '26
Dear Folks—I surely wish you could see Crater Lake tonight, its the truth when I say I positively never saw it so beautiful before.

We are under about six inches of snow and the clouds have gone away and left the air clear and cold. Oh, oh, but 'tis beautiful.

A few clouds cling around the higher peaks of the rim, lending a mysterious beauty to the rest of the lake, the sun has just set, and the lake is a very deep blue, oh I just can't tell you how wonderful it is with everything so white and so clean looking. I got out for a half hour today and took a few snapshots of different things, and surely hope they are good, but Mother when its so pretty that it actually hurts, I just wish and wish that you could all see—My Crater Lake.

MEDFORD NEWS

Wednesday of last week was the inauguration of the Air Mail Line through Medford and the opening day of the Jackson County Fair. Pat Patterson piloted the Medford No. 4 from San Francisco, arriving in Medford at 8:15 a. m. Pilot Bookwalter arrived from Portland at 8:45 a. m. while Art Starbuck took the San Francisco No. 6 from Medford to San Francisco. Pilots Patterson and Starbuck alternate on the San Francisco-Medford run, one coming to Medford and the other going to San Francisco. Pilot Bookwalter makes one round trip daily between Portland and Medford. The mail was carried to the postoffice by Postmaster Warner in a Harley-Davidson motorcycle driven by Ernest Scott, local dealer, under escort of State traffic officers. The Special Delivery letter to Mayor Allendorfer from Mayor Baker of Portland was rushed back to the field via motorcycle by Postmaster Warner and handed to Mayor Allendorfer on the field by him while H. G. Bromley took moving pictures of the event. Mr. Bromley also took movies of the planes landing and taking off and of the pilots, the transferring of the mail and a copy of the above letter.

Another letter received on the first air mail was a letter to Boy Boyle, secretary of the chamber of commerce, which had written on the lower corner of the envelope, "Los Angeles is the best place in the world to live, Medford being a possible exception."

'WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA'

University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore., Sept. 23. (Special)—H. D. McCaskey, geologist, of Central Point, is among the 177 Oregonians listed in the new edition of "Who's Who in America," which has just been issued.

One half of the number live in Portland, while the other half is distributed among the smaller cities of the state.

There are six Oregon women as follows: Gertrude B. Warner, Eugene, art collector; Anna E. Bagstad, Forest Grove, author; Eva E. Dye, Oregon City, author; Mary Carolyn Lavies, Portland, author; Anne Shannond Monroe, Portland, author; and Cornelia Marvin, state librarian.

AUTOMOBILES CAUSE OR POOR SCHOLARSHIP

University of Oregon, Eugene, Sept. 23. (Special)—Pointing out that automobiles brought to college by University students are a cause of poor scholarship and increase the danger of moral delinquency, University authorities have appealed to parents to prohibit their sons and daughters from bringing cars to Eugene, it was announced today.

While several other large institutions have prohibited the use of student cars, Oregon will attempt to solve the problem by seeking the parent's co-operation, it was stated.

"The increasing use of automobiles by University students has been observed with much concern by University officials everywhere," a letter sent to parents today read. "Careful studies have shown that they cause poor scholarship, are expensive, waste valuable time, increase the danger of moral delinquency, and cause traffic congestion about the campus; that at best they are undesirable and unnecessary at college, and that they are often positively demoralizing."

Although permission may be obtained in cases where automobiles are particularly necessary, officials pointed out that "we are constantly striving to maintain on the campus a simple, wholesome, democratic and scholarly atmosphere. Many of the students are self-supporting and gain rather than lose thereby in respect and social standing."

MORE than thirty million Bibles or Books of the Bible were sold or distributed in 1925.

Would you not love to have companion volumes to help you discover the treasures in that Wonderful Book?

SWEDENBORG

explained the Bible's practical application to daily life; how it describes the life hereafter; what the Bible parables mean when spiritually interpreted.

His theological works—as issued by himself—have been published by the Houghton Mifflin Co. in most modern translation from the original Latin, in the Rotch Edition of 32 volumes.

The first twenty give the spiritual sense of Genesis and Exodus as understood in Heaven; and volumes 26, 27, 28 give likewise the spiritual sense of the Book of Revelation.

Volume 29, Marriage Love, views from the union of the Divine Love and the Divine Wisdom the Law of Sex throughout all creation. It shows the crown and jewel of the Christian Religion, the union of one with one only. Price $2.00.

Volumes 30, 31, 32, contain a full statement of the True Christian Religion as revealed from Heaven. $3.00 the set.

The whole 32 volumes in half-morocco at $125; in buckram, $40.

Who Was Swedenborg?

Emanuel Swedenborg, the son of a bishop, was the great Swedish scientist, philosopher and theologian, whose vast range caused Emerson to term him the mastodon of scholars. Dr. Parkes Cadman recently named him the Universal Genius. Officially connected, by appointment of the King, with the great mining industry of Sweden, he mastered all the sciences of his time, and wrote the most useful books on metallurgy, minerals, geology, astronomy, and the human brain. His life search was for the human soul. How his spiritual senses were opened, after he was 50 years of age, that he might reveal the human soul, the life after death, and the Bible itself, may be read in the above named, uplifting, useful books.
