"The Vine"

This magnificent bronze by Harriett Frishmuth is on display in the Palace of Fine Arts at the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia where the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence is being celebrated. This is but one of the many gorgeous and beautiful things to be seen in the Fine Arts exhibit. Famous artists from all parts of the world have sent their paintings, etchings and sculptures to Philadelphia to be exhibited during the exposition, which continues until December 1.

Why Mistletoe Is Disliked

The mistletoe plant fastens itself upon the tree, penetrates its tissues and draws nourishment from it, deforming it and sapping its vitality. Yet the mistletoe is a green leafy plant; that is, it possesses the pigment chlorophyll, which gives the green color of normal vegetation.

Why Fish Do Without Sleep

The bureau of fisheries says that fish do not sleep. They rest and remain quiet in nooks of streams, but never close their eyes.

ROGUE ELK RESORT IS SOLD TO OAKLAND MAN

Of recent importance in the local real estate world is the sale of the Rogue Elk resort, several miles above Trail, to N. E. Robb of Oakland, California, by A. B. Shepard, who a short time ago purchased the property from W. G. McDonald, well known landscape painter. The purchase price was not made public.

The new owner will operate a store, dance hall, hotel and dinner room, giving the same good service that during the past has won for it an enviable reputation.—Gold Hill News.

WHY Women "Nag" Explained by One of the Sex

Just why do women nag their husbands and children as so many of them are always doing?

Gina Lombroso, the famous Italian woman scientist, has a very interesting answer to give this question. She says that a woman's "nagging" is simply a by-product of her finest trait, her sovereign authority.

"There is no virtue that has not its defect," she says. "It must be admitted that women are of a more combative temperament than men. They are always bickering, quarreling with husband, friends, servants, in fact, pretty much with everybody, and if they are not fighting openly they are usually boiling with wrath inside."

"Men are more even tempered, and families where the masculine element predominates are generally more peaceable than families where the feminine element is the stronger."

"But why are men more peaceable? Simply because they are more indifferent to things. Because man's only desire is to be left in peace. He shuts one eye, or even both, to whatever goes on around him, provided things do not get so bad that he has to take a hand himself, or get someone else to do so."

"Woman, on the contrary, who is blessed with a desire to do things, cannot bear to see them badly done. She inevitably steps in to correct what she thinks is wrong, to remonstrate if her orders are not carried out, and sooner or later she loses her temper."

Peace, Goodwill

Columbia, Peace and the Spirit of Brotherly love have been joined in one person, a beautiful woman. This young lady was one of the central figures in a pageant staged at the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia, celebrating 150 years of American Independence. The Exposition continues until December 1.

A NEAR CASUALTY ON CRATER LAKE HIGHWAY

Harold Berry, a well-known man of Medford, plunged off the Crater Lake highway near Prospect, at about 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, sustaining serious injury.

The young man claims the accelerator on the car became "stuck" causing a burst of speed owing to which he was unable to make the turn, which at this point is very wide.

Going ten feet farther than the location of the fatal dive of two weeks ago, Berry's car went 15 feet down the incline hitting the tree head on. He was stunned and sat in the car over an hour holding the steering wheel before recovering complete control of his senses. Climbing out he wandered toward Prospect and little over an hour later arrived at the California Oregon Power company plant, where he received first aid.

Berry relates he was en route to the Diamond Lake country on a hunting trip, but because of unfamiliarity with the country, was not sure of the location of the branch road leading off of the highway above Union creek. He had turned back toward Medford to make sure of bearings when the accident happened.

The car, which is a total wreck, was brought to Medford while young Berry is recovering from minor bruises, although not suffering from any dangerous injuries.
