

HOME NEWS NOTE

MANY MATTERS MERELY MENTIONED

THIS, THAT, and THESE

News Notes Glimpsed From the Street—Those Who Come and Go—Thoughtful People.

Christmas Cards at this office.

The Portland Oregonian was victorious in last Tuesday's election. —Boys shoes at a sacrifice price. Fabers.—adv.

Christmas Greeting cards - call at printing office and see samples.

W. M. Tetherow of Central Point will read the American until 1928.

W. P. Grimes of Medford will continue to read the American.

The Central Point American can save you money on job printing.

—Would you pick up a dollar? Boy's shoes at Fabers.—adv.

W. B. Harris is one of the many renewals to the American since our last issue.

J. L. Burger renews the American subscription for another year.

R. H. Paxon, of our Rexall Drug Store, calls to mark his American subscription away in advance.

J. J. Grim is numbered among the 'home paper' renewals, coming in last Saturday.

Ed Whiteside called in Saturday and left a cart wheel for the American.

James McDowell is another of the many who wants the paper for another year.

Two million people voted in the United States Tuesday, many states holding off-year elections.

John Anderson left for Portland Wednesday to take in the stock show.

Are you getting your Christmas cards at home of abroad. The American prints them. Call, see samples.

The business building occupied by the shoe shop is all dressed up with a new coat of paint.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mee and Mrs. Kinsman of Applegate visited relatives here yesterday.

Mrs. Dora Lynch of Weed Calif., sends the order for a year's subscription to the American this week.

Born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Morava of Central Point, twin girls, weighing seven and eight pounds.

Anything in the paper or printing line; commercial printing, society printing, stationery, etc. American office.

H. A. DuBuque orders the American sent to him for a year, on Route 1.

E. R. Gleason continues to read the American each week, renewing for another year this week.

Mrs. L. Hatfield renews for the American a year and at the same time orders the paper a year for C. O. Hatfield at Seattle.

Get advertisement copy in by Wednesdays. Bring send, phone or mail it. Or phone us to call.

Ladies, don't you want some neatly printed individual letter heads of society style. Look over samples at the American printing office.

Warren Patterson is enjoying a visit with his brother, who is here

WANTED!
DRESSMAKING
REMODELING
HAT TRIMMING
Mrs. J. E. Boswell
Phone 79

from Idaho. They were over at Klamath this week.

G. F. Danielson, after visiting his brother, T. E. Danielson of the Central Point district, left this morning for his home in Roseville, Calif.

We might flop our wings and say "We told you so," but will only state that we will all be more than pleased at the result of the state election.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver have been in Cove, Oregon, for a couple of weeks where they were called to the bedside of Mrs. Weaver's mother, Mrs. Wagner.

D. M. Grisham is marked ahead on the American list of readers, Mrs. Grisham calling Saturday to attend to it. Thank you.

W. H. Norcross of Central Point thought it would be nice to continue reading the American so renewed his subscription.

P. D. Loflin, who lives on Route 1, calls at the American office Monday and while in has his paper marked up a year.

We appreciate Mr. W. E. Alexander's visit Saturday when he called on purpose to push his subscription ahead as well as bringing in one for Mr. Fred Hasselgrave.

C. Skyrman looked around the new American office while in town Saturday and before leaving had us mark him a year in advance on the book of readers.

C. E. Lange came in Saturday with the price for the American for another year, and a good word for the paper.

We appreciate the help of Mr. Richardson in the choir. We need other helpers. If you sing come give us some help.—Union Church Messenger.

For Rent: Three room semi-modern residence, near high school, in Central Point. Inquire Mrs. C. E. Lamb.

Kirkland Farm, one of Central Point's adjacent show places and exceptional farms, comes with the crowds to secure the weekly visit of the American for many months in advance, calling Saturday.

Governor Al Smith of New York was reelected by a big majority, causing many New York Democrats to loudly proclaim him a candidate for President. Cal and Al may be the candidates; if so the race will be lively, and the west would go for Cal.

Mrs. Dora Lynch, a former local resident, but now of Weed, Calif., following several days spent visiting friends and relatives in Medford, Central Point and Table Rock left the first of the week for Glendale where she will visit a sister.

Election day was perfect. It was like all the rest of the days we have had and are having now. Meadow larks singing, men hoeing gardens in their shirt sleeves, boys fishing and all nature at her best. Roses and lawn flowers in bloom and native strawberries on the market. Election day was perfect and many people got out to vote.

It is possible a merchant fails to see returns from an advertisement. One reason might be that prices were omitted from the ad. Readers must see prices along with good display. Big ads, steady ads, and prices, have made stores rich. There's the 20th Century, Skaggs, Penny, Montgomery Ward, etc. Ask them.

City Dads in Central Point had no opposition. Their past administration was sufficient record to insure their reelection. The City of Central Point is in good condition and under a good administration, from the Mayor's chair down.

Mrs. P. S. Loosley, returned, last Friday from the east where she has been visiting since October 10th. She has been visiting relatives in New York and Pennsylvania. Mrs. John W. Schatt, who is Mrs. Loosley's aunt, returned with her to make a two months visit in the Land where the Rogue River Flows.

We are very much pleased with our new management in the office of the Central Point American. We regretted seeing the Messrs. Sheley retire from the business, but we are glad they found efficient successors. We are also glad, too, that the Sheleys are to stay with us.—Union Church Messenger.

Come in and see these beautiful samples of Christmas cards. You will want some and it is time to order now. Let the American furnish you with these cards and envelopes with your name neatly and properly printed on them all as cheap as the blank cards.

Teachers - schools and Sunday Schools, Professional man, Minister or merchants who may want Christmas Greeting cards to mail students, friends or customers, will please call at the American office to see our samples. We can save you money if you order now on lots from two to five hundred. Should you care to phone for appointment we can call on you with samples at any time, any place in the county.

Popular Quality, Popular Values, Popular Prices are all combined in a new assortment, just arrived for your approval, of Hammernill Linen Social Stationery in appropriate boxes, make splendid gifts. Both the paper and envelopes are the late Romance Size, in the ever correct linen finish. For home, office, library and school. Call at the American office and look these over. In colors to suit.

Mrs. Scott and family of Central Point, and Mrs. Wm. Hansen of Medford, called at the home of their mother, Mrs. A. Throckmorton, of Ruch one day last week, taking her completely by surprise on her seventy-first birthday. Mrs. Throckmorton received many beautiful gifts, as well as a large angel food birthday cake. Every body spent a jolly day and Mrs. Throckmorton received best wishes for many more happy birthdays.

While the condition of Mrs. Roy Yost and five-year-old daughter, Lois, patients in the Sacred Heart hospital suffering from burns received when fire destroyed a house, barn and smaller buildings on the Black Oak ranch on Ross Lane Friday afternoon is reported to be still serious, considerable improvement has been shown by both. Their injuries, causing much pain and considerable shock are expected to keep the patients in the hospital for a fortnight more at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sebrean, former theatre operators at Central Point, left this morning for Klamath Falls and Bend, where they will commence a tour of Oregon and Washington in the interest of selling a new coin rolling device used by banks and other places of business where much money is handled. Mr. Sebrean has the salesmanship rights of the two states and expects to be on the road for some time. Their daughter, Ruth, will not accompany them, staying in Medford to attend business college.

Important.
For your convenience, this paper has purchased a new mailing machine. You will notice your address on the paper is printed this week and in addition to your name, you will find the date printed when your subscription expired. Should it read "July 8, 1926" it means your subscription expired last July and should have been paid then, up until next July. Should it read "October 1926" it means it is up now and you should renew for another year. Notice your address and keep your subscription in advance please.

Attorneys, We Plea
Lawyers of Jackson county are reminded that the Central Point American will appreciate the privilege of publishing any summons, sales, or legal notices they may send us. The American is a legal paper, published regular in the rich, central part of the land where the Rogue river flows and feels justified in soliciting a share of this business.

Resolved.
Be it resolved that whereas, we who have been present at the sessions of the Jackson County Home-maker's Institute held in Medford, October 20th to 23rd inclusive, do hereby express our appreciation of the benefits and pleasures derived from the lectures, and the many helps given by each extension worker from the Oregon Agricultural College, and especially Mrs. Jesse Mc-

Comb, Home Demonstration Agent, Leader for the extension Service, and we earnestly desire that the Home Economics Work in the County may be long continued, also

Be it resolved that our best thanks be tendered to Dr. Warner for her splendid 'Health' lectures, to the Episcopal people for the use of their Guild Hall for our meetings, to the musicians, to Miss Snedcor, and to all others who have contributed in any way to the success of the institute.

Home Economics Advisory Committee. Signed Alice Hanley, Chairman

Salt is kept smooth and free from lumps by the addition of one teaspoon of cornstarch to each cup of salt.

Watch your work, not the clock.

PHONE 343 FOR Radio Service Repairs and Accessories

INSTALLATION OF SETS AND AERIAL CONSTRUCTION
Special service given to Balancing of Radio Frequency Circuits and Neutrodyne receivers

Power tubes correctly adapted to your present receiver.
TUBE REJUVENATION TESTING FREE

Adaption of "PHILCO" Power Supply
Pentachford Radio Laboratories

Medford Center Bldg. (Downstairs)

New Shoes

New Oxfords, New Slippers
All new in design and patterns and the best for Ladies, Girls, Children, Mens and Boys Dress or Work

COME AND SEE

THERE'S NO
QUESTION ABOUT IT

"Star Brand
Shoes Are Better"

Ask the Man Who Wears Them

Our price on this line is the lowest possible. Ready for inspection

B. P. Theiss & Co.