

Norval Wiley, who has been in Portland for several weeks, has returned to Central Point.

The editor's wife visited Portland relatives this week.

Mrs. Clyde Hansen and Miss Eva Hansen spent Saturday and Sunday at Butte Falls.

T. E. Parks of Medford was a caller at the American office last Friday.

R. R. Copley of the Beagle district was a business visitor in Central Point the latter part of last week.

Dickson's barber shop is sporting a shine stand and a new man to run it.

Do you send or present statements? Let the Central Point American print you some statements. We print anything except dollar bills.

Mike Snider, who has been employed in Marshfield for some time, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Court Snider.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stanley of Central Point motored to Portland last week. Mrs. Stanley returned this week and Mr. Stanley will remain for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Scott and daughters, Elizabeth and Ethelyn, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Hansen in Medford.

Philip Hamrick made a trip to Klamath Falls with "Billy" Stevenson and Everett Scott Saturday night, returning Sunday morning with a load of potatoes for Grants Pass merchants.

A baby has been named Bob after its mother's hair. We presume these nameless urchins are named after their fathers' hair.—Cottage Grove Sentinel.

Arthur Weiss and family, recently of Creswell, O., arrived Sunday to make their home here. Mr. Weiss is interested in the clay products plant which will soon begin operations under the new management.

The big Men's Bible class which meets each Sunday in Cowley hall at 10 a. m. will re-organize next Sunday and all members are requested to be present to take part and help maintain this fine organization. Let's all come out on time and boost.

It looked bad for Sam Dickson one night not long ago, when Harold Morton was seen rushing from Sam's barber shop, his face and hands smeared with red. It soon developed, however, that Harold had swapped shins with a friend who happened to wear ox-blood shoes.

Now what will Will Hayes, movie Czar, and good Presbyterian, do with Charley Chaplin. Will he Fatty Arbuckle him or has he done no wrong. Has Chaplin's flapper girl wife done any wrong? Isn't a good percent of the entire movie colony a moral disgrace—Money is power and excuses, seemingly, many outrages actions.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson arrived in Central Point Wednesday morning from Geneva, Ill., and will spend the winter here, visiting Mrs. Thompson's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Scott, and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson started for Oregon Nov. 2, and have been visiting relatives and friends at different places along the way.

Along with calendar time and holiday greeting time, we were presented with a neat and attractive advertising thermometer, by the Central Point Feed store. Thanks Mr. Richardson, we can now ascertain whether or not it is too cold or too hot for our office work. Today it registers 48 degrees—just right for winter.

Jean Brown, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Brown, who has been ill seriously for some time with pneumonia, is reported to be improving. Despite the prevailing wet weather, sickness in Central Point is regarded conspicuous because of its continued absence.

Enjoy Christmas Opening.
Several from Central Point were over to Medford Monday night to mingle with the street crowds in helping to celebrate the merchants Christmas season opening. Colored lights aided in making the city resemble a carnival. A Santa Claus distributed toys to youngsters and it was one of the largest street crowds Medford ever experienced.

New Arrivals Here.

Three families arrived in Central Point this week to make their home and aid in making this a better and bigger city. The families are connected with the brick and tile factory and the men will start immediately enlarging and improving the plant. The three families arriving this week will send their children to Central Point schools, enlarging the present enrollment by ten new pupils.

Appreciative Calendars

It is the time of year to distribute 1927 calendars. This office has only received one, so far, and it is a beautiful creation. Mr. Isaacson, of the Central Point State Bank presented us with one of their 1927 calendars that is a work of art. The title picture is: "In the Garden of Dreams," from the original painting of Chester K. Van Mortwick. The garden of dreams picture in calendar form is fit for a parlor. As the publisher says: "Dreams are wonderful things, beautiful things, but useful only in so far as we put them into active service for the good of humanity."

Initiate Five Members

Saturday proved a big day for Wm. Henry Harrison Chapter No. 27, W. R. C. The occasion was that of the regular meeting of the corps, at which three important branches of the work of the organization were covered. Following the opening ceremonies, five candidates were inducted into the organization with a ceremony that was both interesting and impressive. Following the initiation, officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: Emma Gleason (reelected), president; Mary Catey, S.V.; Mrs. Ed Farrah, J.V.; Mrs. Harry DuBuque, treasurer; Mrs. Jesse Richardson, guard; Eva Smith, conductor. At the conclusion of the election refreshments were served which consisted of sandwiches, cake and coffee.

Captor Of Bear

Dewey Hill caught a cub brown bear in one of his traps Saturday which he brought down Sunday to add to the Prospect zoo. He proved to be a real lively little fellow having grabbed Tom Herriott by the pants leg causing him to do some fancy steps and tearing a small hole in said trousers.

One reason we'd rather be a little country weekly than a great city daily is because our duty doesn't demand that we print a lot of ridiculous nonsense about "Peaches" Browning a spoiled and poorly parented child, and her "Daddy," who would be starving to death if he had no more money than he has brains.—Forest Grove News-Times.

O. B. Kroeger, a well-known resident miner, living above Jacksonville, was found dead Sunday in his home where he lived alone. The body will be held here awaiting word from relatives in Washington D. C.

Gold is contained in all sea water, but in such small quantities that no process has yet been devised for recovering it profitably.
