

Searching for Victims of Awful Movie Fire

When the Laurier moving picture theater in Montreal burned seventy-seven children perished. This picture shows firemen and policemen searching the interior of the theater for the bodies of victims.

Native Sugar Mill in the Philippine Islands

Here is an interesting scene in the Philippines, which General Wood is having so much trouble governing. It is a native sugar mill in operation at Barrio Cubisuculan.

Fitting Out the Richmond for Nicaragua Trip

Members of the crew of the cruiser Richmond carrying supplies aboard the vessel when she was getting ready to sail hurriedly for Nicaraguan waters.

Street Scene in the Capital of Nicaragua

Scene in Managua, capital of Nicaragua, where American marines are again on guard to protect American lives and property and to bolster up the regime of President Diaz which is attacked by revolutionists.

Prettiest Magyar Girl in the U. S.

Here is Juliska Lovas of New York, who, according to the vote of 250,000 persons, is the prettiest Magyar girl in America and fitting possessor of the title "Miss Magyar America." The prize is a trip to Europe. Juliska is five feet two and weighs 130 pounds. She says she never uses cosmetics.

Clever Pony and His Young Trainer

One of the cleverest trick ponies in California is owned and trained by little Fred Foster of Los Angeles. The animal, which displays uncanny intelligence, is here seen imitating his young master.

Every Airplane Must Have a License

From now on all airplanes must carry license tags the same as automobiles. Here we have the first plane to carry the new identification insignia. At the right of the picture is Charles R. McComas, artist, who designed the insignia, and at the left is William P. McCracken, Jr., assistant secretary of commerce for aeronautics.