

News Notes of Interest

Mrs. S. D. Doremus, who has been sick with flu, is able to be out again. The Hooking family were visitors at the Broili home Sunday evening. Will M. Dodge returned Sunday from a short business trip to Portland.

Mrs. W. A. Cooper has recovered sufficiently to be out to church Sunday night.

Mrs. J. S. Parsons spent Thursday in Jacksonville visiting at the home of her friend, Miss Issy McCully.

Mrs. Perkins of Granite street was calling on friends on B street Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. S. D. Doremus, who has been seriously ill with the flu, is greatly improved and able to be up.

J. W. McCoy, cashier of the First National, was a Salem visitor this week.

The Wednesday club of the Presbyterian church are entertaining the choir and orchestra with their families tonight at the church parlors.

Klamath Falls Pelicans beat Battery "B" basketball at the armory Tuesday night with the score 47-35.

Jim Cook, who had blood poison in his foot, is improving and able to go on one crutch.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Leggett attended church services down in the valley last Sunday.

Mrs. Lester DeArmond and babies were visiting and shopping in Ashland last Friday.

Mr. Fields, of Fields & Moon Lumber company was an Ashland visitor last Friday.

A. B. Hardin has moved from the Hershey place on Oak street to the Sanford place near Helman's bath.

Miss A. R. Getsinger, a missionary from West China, will speak at the Baptist church, Sunday, February 20 at 7:30 p. m. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burns, who live at Moon's mill on the Green Spring mountain, were shopping in Ashland Friday.

Mrs. Doremus of the Standard cleaners, who has been quite ill, is able to be out again.

James Bailey of McDowell, was attending to business in Ashland last Friday and Saturday.

Rev. S. J. Chancy of Eugene was meeting many friends in Ashland during the past week.

Mrs. Morrison is gaining slowly and her friends hope that she may soon be able to get around again.

Altadena Spencer, who has been quite ill with flu, has recovered and returned to school. Her sister, Alice, is now quite sick with the flu.

Mrs. Fred Jones of Klamath Falls visited this week in Ashland with her parents and many friends.

Social circle of Christian church will meet next Wednesday, February 23rd in the church parlors of the Christian church.

Mrs. R. L. Burdic, Sr., of Grants Pass was a week-end visitor at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Burdic, Jr.

Mrs. Arthur W. Hunt has returned to Ashland after a two weeks' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Barneburg near Medford.

Miss Genevieve Swenenburg, student at the state university, has made the first freshman women's team in basketball.

Loyal Leach of Dunsmuir, California, visited in Ashland Friday. Mr. Leach is employed by the Southern Pacific company.

Mrs. J. H. Fuller left on Saturday morning for Salem to spend a few days visiting Mr. Fuller, who is in attendance at the state legislature.

Mrs. Addie Wilson of Medford was a business visitor in Ashland one day recently.

Charles Holman of Salem is here visiting his mother, Mrs. C. O. Holman of 335 B street.

Miss Nona Hall and her mother of B street and third avenue, left on train 16 Monday for San Francisco to be gone about a month.

The Southern Oregon Law Enforcement association which met in Eugene Monday, drew from Ashland Chief of Police George W. McNabb, H. R. Ingling and S. A. Peters.

Lost, strayed or stolen, Teddy, small dog, part Pomeranian, black and golden tan, long hair, bushy tail. Reward for information or return to Fred Putnam, 357 Vista St., Phone 122.

The Eagle meat market on North Main street is installing a modern refrigerator in their place of business.

Mrs. H. L. Walter and daughter, Ruth of Portland, were visitors at the home of Mrs. A. H. Russell this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Day of Baum street, entertained at dinner last Saturday noon, Rev. Hugh T. Mitchellmore, Rev. W. W. Hendre and Lawrence Mitchellmore.

Mrs. Robert McMillen of Chehalis, Washington, arrived in Ashland Sunday evening to make an extended visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Will Dodge.

Mrs. Eunice Kibler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Andrews of Fairview street, has gone to Santa Cruz, California, to accept a business position.

By a big majority in the state senate, the income bill of Governor Patterson's was adopted last Wednesday. After a two hour debate the bill was put through by a 27 to 3 vote.

Not alone are spring time medicines, tonics and blood purifiers to the fore at the East Side pharmacy, but their attractive showing of new stationery is causing attention, especially the "Hollywood" box stationery.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Fleener gave a dinner Monday night in honor of their wedding anniversary. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oakson. After a splendid dinner, cards were enjoyed.

An auto collision Tuesday on Main street. Merrick Thornton ran into a car driven by Wm. Bibby. Mr. Bibby's small brother was thrown against the wind shield, cutting his face severely. He was taken to the hospital.

Charles A. Holman of Gates, Oregon, is visiting his mother, Mrs. C. O. Holman on B street and if he finds steady employment, which will justify a move of his family, will locate here.

O. H. Franklin of B street is the proud owner of a large German police dog. This should be fair warning to the night prowlers who have been visiting Ashland of late.

Charles Buffington of Minneapolis, Minn., has leased the James Hersey property, consisting of a 5 room bungalow and five acres of land and will engage in the poultry business on rather an extensive scale.

Miss Nona Hall and her mother, Mrs. Margaret Hall, left for California Monday afternoon. Mrs. Hall going to Oakland and her daughter to San Francisco.

The Ashland junior high girls basketball team was taken to Medford Friday by James Hocking, where they played against the Medford junior high girls. The score was 18 to 17 in Ashland's favor.

The Berean class of the Christian Bible school will have charge of the opening exercises next Lords' day. The junior and intermediates had charge last Sunday and rendered a splendid program.

Mr. and Mrs. Wan Chung, Chinese residents of this city, have gone to Portland to live. Mr. Wan Chung has very poor health, and it is to be hoped that the change may be a benefit to him.

Mr. Feigh of B street has had a new coat of paint put on his house, and also a new roof which adds much to the attractiveness of the place.

Among those who have been on the sick list the past week, are Mrs. J. O. Johnson and two children, Miss Ethel Schrum and Miss Floy Young. All are reported better and able to be out again.

Mrs. J. E. Hartly of Ashland was called to Klamath Falls on Friday by the news of the illness of her grandson, who is suffering with pneumonia.

Mrs. Irving Redifer of Los Angeles, California, has been visiting her father and brother, Jack and Ray Cozart, who reside in Ashland. Mrs. Redifer expects to remain for some time.

The high school trio, consisting of Misses Rose Aikins, Floy Young and Mary Gafey went to Medford Saturday afternoon, where they played two groups of musical numbers before the College Women's club.

We notice many home owners buying flower and garden seed as well as small garden and lawn tools and implements. The M. C. Lininger and Son store in the Enders block surely has a large line of these and their advertisement is an invitation for you to inspect the lines.

Right now is the time to put in that drain tile and fix up the premises, while the weather is fine. Read the reminding ad this issue of the Carson-Fowler Lumber company and act accordingly. These are fine people to deal with.

A Bible school party is to be given in the church parlors of the Church of Christ, Friday, February 25. A program will be rendered, after which the children, will enjoy games for a time and later refreshments will be served to start at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. L. H. Hansen, Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg and Mrs. E. A. Woods returned home Sunday from Portland Oregon, where they attended the Delphian assembly to which they were delegates from this city.

Each week we are printing on some page of the American a "Kitchen cabinet" column that is proving interesting to many women readers. New and valuable receipts are often found in this column of your local weekly paper.

All present officers of the Y. M. C. A. were re-elected at their Tuesday night meeting. The board of directors voted to invite the southern Oregon district older boys' conference to Ashland in April. It will bring some 150 high school boys from over the state for a three day session.

Landscape work is under way at the normal school and will be completed by the 25th of February, is the announcement given by President J. A. Churchill. Plans now under way when carried out will give the school a beautiful campus.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hunter, who arrived here a short time ago and took over the Good Eats cafe, are making a number of improvements in the kitchen and dining room of their establishment. They cater to home, transient and tourist trade.

Probably more than usual was the large number of shoppers in Ashland Wednesday. This Wednesday shopping is a good habit. It makes it less crowded on Saturdays and gives one more time to look around the stores. The American would like to see more of its readers in town on Wednesdays. Parking space was pretty well taken up last Wednesday.

The ladies of Jackson county are invited to a tea and reception in honor of Miss Florence York, the newly appointed home demonstrating agent for the county this Saturday from 3 to 5 in Holland hotel parlors at Medford. The home economics executive committee desire a good number of Ashland ladies to attend and welcome Miss York at this time.

Word was received Tuesday that J. E. Norred, an Ashland citizen, had evidently committed suicide by drowning at Long Beach, California. The Norred family live in Ashland and the husband and father was seeking employment in California.

Further particulars have not been learned at this writing.

The Franklin bakery is another splendid home institution that is keeping up with modern improvements and striving to produce a product above the average. This week the Franklin has added another new and late model high speed dough mixer to their equipment, enabling them to do better work and faster work.

Last Thursday night a group of friends gathered at the Grubb home on B street to listen to the songs broadcasted by Miss Martha M. Spenker of Medford. Miss Spenker has a wonderful voice and her songs were greatly enjoyed by her many friends who listened in. Those present at the Grubb home were: Mr. and Mrs. James Hocking, Mr. and Mrs. True, Mrs. T. N. Fleener, Mrs. Chas. Broili, William Selkork and Mr. and Mrs. Grubb.

Mrs. W. K. Smith, who has been quite ill for the past month, is very much improved. Mr. and Mrs. Smith lived in this city many years. Their home was at 925 B street, but owing to their advanced age were compelled to give up the hom and are now living with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Drew, near Dairy, Klamath county. Mrs. Drew is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith. This fine old couple are very much missed by the members of the First Presbyterian church of this city.

St. Valentine's day served as the basis for the Junior prom held Saturday evening, February 12. This was the first such social event held at the normal school. Many special features made the party one of pleasure to those present. Lester Beck of Klamath Falls, president of the junior class, headed the organization for its production.

Kenneth Wolcott, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Wolcott of Sherman street, left on Monday morning for Klamath Falls to resume his work with the Southern Pacific company. Mr. Wolcott was a patient at the Southern Pacific hospital at San Francisco early in the year and has since been recuperating at his home in Ashland.

Several Ashland Women attended the College Women's club at Medford on Saturday afternoon. Those who made the trip were Mrs. Frank Dickey, Mrs. Anna Belle Davis, Miss Hileman, Mrs. A. H. Stearns, Mrs. Robert Herndon, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Ralph Billings, Miss Juanita Tarr, Mrs. H. C. Galey and Mrs. F. D. Wagner.

The music department of the Greater Medford Music and Dramatic club gave a very interesting and valuable program to the students and faculty of the southern Oregon normal school Wednesday morning, February 9. The trio from the organization composed of Mrs. James Collins, soprano; Mrs. Richard Milholland, alto and Mrs. Rawles Moore, piano, presented selections from American composers. Mrs. Milholland also told of her friends, Charles Wakefield Cadman, the composer of American Indian music.

"Promotion of good marksmanship, safety in the handling of weapons and a general ability to use fire-

VINING Theatre

Saturday, February 19
"THE UNKNOWN CAVALIER"
 with Ken Maynard, a Western drama above the average. Also a comedy and travel picture
 —oOo—

Sunday and Monday, February 20 and 21
"PRIVATE IZZY MURPHY"
 with George Jessel and Patsy Ruth Miller. A powerful drama of the early days of the war. Also a comedy and Pathe News.
 —oOo—

Tuesday and Wednesday, February 22 and 23
"A MAN OF THE FOREST"
 A Zane Grey story with Jack Holt and Georgia Hale. Also a comedy.
 —oOo—

Thursday and Friday, February 24 and 25
"LET IT RAIN"
 A sparkling comedy with Douglas McLean. Also a Collegian, "The Relay."

arms," is the purpose of two rifle clubs organized recently at the southern Oregon normal. Seventy-five women and eighteen men signified intentions of becoming members of the organization. There is to be two divisions, one for the men and the other for the women. J. Q. Adams, a student is promoting and will act as instructor for the club. Arthur Taylor and Verne V. Caldwell of the faculty have joined the group and volunteered their services as instructors.

Mrs. R. L. Burdic Jr., was a charming hostess on Saturday when she entertained a group of friends at a very delightful evening of bridge. Mrs. Claire Beebe held high score and Mrs. Domino Provost received the consolation. Mrs. Burdic served a very dainty two-course luncheon at a late hour. Those who spent the evening as Mrs. Burdic's guests were the Mesdames Gerald Wenner, Domino Provost, John Enders, Henry Enders, Jr., George Gillette, C. A. Haines, Edwin Dunn, William M. Briggs, Andy McGee, George Converse, Earl Crow, Clyde Malone, V. V. Mills, Louis Dodge, Claire Beebe, Stanley Robinette and Mrs. R. L. Burdic, Sr.

The Ashland Hi-Y club held their regular meeting and dinner in the dining room of Pioneer hall last evening. One of the important items aken up at last night's meeting was the entertaining of a group of high school boys from Central Point at the meeting next Tuesday. This was voted unanimously and an invitation extended to the Central Point boys. Conflicting dates in the form of a basketball game at Central Point that night may make it impossible for them to accept, according to telephone call received from there, but the plans will go ahead until further notice, according to members of the club. Barney Miller was elected as a delegate to the Northwest Y. M. C. A. assembly for work with boys and young men to be held at Rolling Bay, Washington, the last of the month. Miller will go with Secretary Walter and others from here to the assembly, which is of importance to all branches of the Y. M. C. A. work in the Northwest, according to word received from officials of the Northwest council.

Some of these fine days the word will come that the legislature has adjourned.

*
"Cyclone Sally."
 Drive out to Bellview this (Friday) night; just a short drive; and you will be generously repaid with the enjoyment you will encounter at the entertainment, eats, dancing and association with the jolly crowd there to see "Cyclone Sally," the home talent entertainment.

*
Every Day.
 The American certainly appreciates the new subscriptions coming in every day from the rural routes and near by communities.

*
Sure, the Senator Signed.
 John McNary of Salem, attorney-at-law and brother of Senator McNary of that city, will be the new United States judge for the district of Oregon. Mr. McNary's nomination became a certainty today when Senators McNary and Stanfield signed a joint recommendation in his behalf and forwarded it to the department of justice for the guidance of Attorney-General Sargent.

*
Surprising, But True.
 California rocked by raging storms floods and tornados this week to not mention a light earthquake or two. Six inches of rain in Los Angeles county. Houses unroofed at Taft, snow slides near Fresno and quakes at Berkeley. Come on up to Oregon, you Californians. You are welcome in Jackson county and Ashland where the climate is ideal and free from disastrous storms.

*
Americanism: Thinking the stranger unimportant because he seems human and approachable.—Quill Points.

*
 Send in a news item, or a communication or regular correspondence from your community.

We carry a full line of
BULK GARDEN SEEDS, LAWN GRASSES, ALFALFA, TIMOTHY and RED CLOVER SEED
Sondan, Meadow Oak, Orchard and Italian Grasses
 Also FISK TIRES at Special Prices
M. C. LININGER & SON
 Enders Block —:— Ashland, Ore.

NOTICE

The Eagles' Hall, 3rd Floor, Medford Building, Medford is under new management on Friday nights and is putting on a series of Friday Nite Jazz Dances.

Music by the Metropole Orchestra
 Admission 10c; Dance Tickets 75c
 "Everybody Welcome"