

News Notes of Interest

Quit crying.
Plant strawberries.
Advertise in the home paper.
Money and market for strawberries
Eli Davis of Greensprings was calling on friends in Ashland Sunday.
Ashland is a good town, encourage it, believe it, talk it.
Mrs. Peffy is reported as being quite ill with the flu.
E. H. Hedrick and family of Medford visited home folks Sunday.
Lester Wellington of Medford was a visitor in Ashland Sunday.
Mrs. Locke of Ohio street was calling on friends on B street one day last week.
Mrs. F. J. Wilnot of Medford was in town Sunday inattentance at the Christian church services.
C. G. McAllister of Beach street was driving a new car the first of the week.
Mrs. J. A. Lockhart returned home from Salem last week after some months visit there
Mrs. Katherine Morrison is said to be improving rapidly at present after many weeks of illness.
Mrs. Wm. Yoe has been on the sick list for some time past but is reported improving.
H. C. Severance, local dealer for Mcness products, has just received a large shipment of goods.
Mrs. Charles Hooper, who had the misfortune to break her arm is improving nicely.
Rev. and Mrs. Emma Thomason of the Free Methodist church have been quite ill for the past two weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Oakson motor ed to Grants Pass Sunday to see the damage done by the recent flood.
Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shaw of Medford have moved to Klamath Falls to reside.
Mrs. Hedrick of B street has purchased a new Simplex ironer from the Jordan Electric company.
Mrs. Frank Beswick entertained Dr. Eva Mains Carlow of Medford Sunday.
Mrs. Mary Cole, who has recently been seriously ill, is reported as improving at this writing.
Mrs. Yester of Bellview district was a business visitor in our city one day last week.
E. M. Wilson of Medford was a business visitor in Ashland one day recently.
Mr. and Mrs. Nash of Hilt, Cal., are new people in our neighborhood. They are located at 235 B street.
The friends of Mrs. Allen Proctor of Talent are very sorry to learn that she is not improving very rapidly from her recent illness.
Miss Sarah Armstrong, student at the normal, spent the weekend at Corvallis visiting with relatives and friends.
C. L. Smith of Wolf creek was in town Friday visiting relatives and old friends.
James Baughman came over from Klamath Falls recently and is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Newton of A street at present.
C. M. Henry, east of Ashland, recently sold his place at Talent to L. O. Penland, who will soon take possession.
Thomas Newton, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Newton of this city is ill at Klamath Falls, being laid up in the hospital for some time.
The regular missionary meeting of the Congregational church met this week at the Moore residence on Liberty street.
J. H. Hardy underwent a tonsil operation on Friday at the Community hospital and is reported to be doing nicely.
Kenneth Hobson has returned to his classes at the state university at Eugene. Kenneth has been at home recuperating from an attack of flu.
George Andrews of Corvallis was in Ashland Sunday to make a visit to his mother Mrs. Aaron Andrews of Fairview street, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks.
W. H. Perkins of the Tidings force has returned from the Dalles where he went to visit his mother, who has been seriously ill, but is now slowly improving.
Mrs. Nell Dunn was calling in Ashland Tuesday afternoon. She is one who always brings her cheery smile with her and makes one feel better after having met her.
The Doren Bushnell family moved from B street of Granite street above the park and Brockmans from next door took possession of the rooms vacated by them.
Tommy Bryant, who was operated on at the Community hospital, is doing nicely and was taken to his home on Fourth street last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Elliot, who lives on Green Springs were in Ashland and Medford Monday attending to business.
Mrs. E. M. Wilson of Medford has returned from Klamath Falls where she went to visit her granddaughter, who has been quite sick.
Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parker of Klamath Falls spent Sunday with their grandmother, Mrs. A. L. Harvey of B street.
Mr. and Mrs. Theo Easton, who formerly lived in Coos county were visiting their old friends the Leggetts of Mountain avenue Saturday.

Wan Chung and son, Sam, of Portland are here disposing of their household effects. They expect to make Portland their future home.
The armory was packed—over 700 attended the first night. The Legion realized good and the show a big success.
The Lithia Springs garage, home of the Hudson and new Essex, have added a modern machine shop on the second floor of their large garage.
Mrs. A. H. Trafon, who has been very ill with flu, is much improved and her nurse, Mrs. J. W. Walkup has returned to her home at 492 Palm avenue.
Mr. Warner, who fell some time ago and crippled his knee, is able to be out again. Mr. Warner lives with his daughter, Mrs. Coss at 155 B street.
A new industry for Ashland this week is the factory starting by J. A. Youngs. Mr. Youngs has invented a machine for patching and relining old tires. The factory is located back of Piels hardware store. Adrian Broili is connected with Mr. Youngs.
Mr. and Mrs. Sams and Mr. and Mrs. Dunn were among Ashland people to attend the big point Pythian doings in Medford Monday night.
J. C. Hopper has been ill at his home on Scenic Drive for some time with rheumatism, but was able to get out Saturday for the first. His friends are glad of his improvement.
The Jackson County Medical society met at the home of Dr. Swedenberg Wednesday night. Dr. Malmgren of Phoenix gave the paper of the evening, followed by a general discussion. Refreshments and a general social gathering were enjoyed by the county physicians present.
Edward Headburg, Jr., the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Headburg of Mountain avenue has been quite seriously ill during the past week, but is reported slightly improved at present.
A residential fire in the east part of town called out the city fire apparatus Wednesday afternoon. No excitement and very little damage; but exercise for the firemen, who are always there when called.
Horace V. Mitchell and family moved from the George Coster place on Mountain avenue Saturday to the J. M. Morgan residence on Ashland street.
SPECIAL SALE this week only.
Bright, dry Blocks $5.00 a load.
Kindlings $2.50 extra sized load.
PHONE BOX FACTORY 30
Mrs. Mary Cole, who is confined at her home on A street, second house east from seventh, would appreciate having members of the Loyal Womans class of the Christian church call on her.
Charles A. Holman returned to Gates, Ore., last Monday, not finding anything permanent in way of employment to justify him in staying here. His mother, Mrs. C. A. Halmon accompanied him as far as Medford where she completed business.
Mrs. Dr. Brawmer, evangelist, who has been holding revival meeting at the Full Gospel Temple, has gone to Grants Pass to hold meetings. She was accompanied by Rev. Murphy.
Ward Jennings, who received a severe cut on the head Monday night when a fellow knocked him through a glass door in the Odd Fellows hall, is reported resting as well as can be expected. From reports it was a fight, pulled off unexpectedly, as a side issue, not on the program.
On March 11 the Berean class of the Christian church will hold their class meeting, consisting of a business and social program. Mrs. S. D. Doremus is the efficient teacher of this class.
The Nazerene missionary meeting was held Thursday, February 24 at the parsonage and a very interesting and instructive program enjoyed by all present.
Mrs. Byron McClay and nephew, Wm. McClay of Talent were visiting friends in Ashland one day last week. The McClays expect to move soon from Jackson county to Douglas near Roseburg.
Miss Martha Spenker aided the American Legion program Wednesday night greatly with her singing. Miss Spenker, talented and widely known musician and entertainer received much comment and words of praise were given the Legion for securing her on the program.
Friday afternoon at 2:30 the Inter-denominational day of prayer for missions will be held at the Christian church. The members of all missionary societies are invited to this meeting.
The ladies aid of the Presbyterian church will meet in the morning on Friday, having dinner at noon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Gow, who will leave soon for Petaluma, California, where they go for Mr. Gow's health.

Wm. M. Briggs of Ashland, representative in the state legislature from this, Jackson county, presented and put through successfully more bills during the recent session than any other member of the house.
Thank you! Here is one Ashland man who is appreciative and has an eye to business. This week one Ashland man came in the American office and signed for six subscriptions for three months each. Each subscription for acquaintances living in Jackson county, near Ashland.
Wallace D. Carey has returned from Santa Cruz, California, where he has been spending the winter months. Mr. Carey is visiting at the home of his son, George Carey on Gresham street.
Mrs. Nella Rice of Lincoln street and Miss Martha Spenker of Medford entertained a number of friends at the Rice homeon Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock on March 3. A program refreshments and health talk by Miss Spenker were features of the afternoons program.
Last game of the season for the normal basketball team will be played this (Friday) night at the junior high gym. Coach Hughes team will meet the fast Columbia university team of Portland. The visitors beat the normal players earlier in the season, but it isn't generally believed that they will do it again.
The Normal school entertainment committee has arranged for one of the best musical treats and entertainments of the season to take place in the normal auditorium on March 16. The exceptional attraction is the University of Oregon string quartet. All music lovers of Ashland will remember the date.
The poem on the editorial page of last week's American caused favorable comment by some of the readers of the paper. Ashland folks certainly need more prayers. "A life without prayer is like a flower without fragrance."
On Thursday afternoon, March 10, a very pleasant social and business meeting is being planned by the Bereans of the Baptist Sunday school. Mrs. Poyer and Mrs. V. N. O. Smith are the hostesses for this meeting at the Smith residence on Penn and Morton streets.
Dr. Maud Allen from Forozepur, India, will speak at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening, March 3. Dr. Allen is in charge of the Frances Newton hospital for women and is one of the foremost workers in Presbyterian church leaving here for India in 1894.
The A. E. Kinney and T. W. Miles summer home on Rogue river was disturbed by the recent flood waters and moved 15 feet from the original location. The porch was loosened from the house and all the contents were disturbed and soaked with muddy water. The house was held by the trees, otherwise it would have been carried away in the flood.
The Bible school party at the Christian church last Friday was an enjoyable affair. A splendid program was rendered after which an hour was spent in games in the classroom. Later refreshments were served to about one hundred in the church dining room by the committee in charge. Mrs. Marian Hager, chairman was assisted by Mrs. C. O. Holman and Mrs. Frank Crossen.
Word has been received from Mrs. Hal McNair, who has been spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Fraley and Mrs. Helen Eastman, also her father, Mr. Moore of Whittier, California, that she and son Jamie are enjoying the time very much, only Jamie has had the measles. They expect to return some time after the middle of March.
The past noble grand club met Friday, February 25 in the I. O. O. F. hall. Thirty-eight ladies were present and all joined in working on a quilt which is to be sold for the benefit of the Odd Fellows childrens home. Mrs. Minnie Fleener and Mrs. Julius Koch were hostesses and served delicious refreshments.
Medford celebrated the Sixtieth anniversary of the Knights of Pythias on February 28. The program was held in the K. P. hall. A large cake, beautifully decorated with emblems of the order and sixty candles was served with coffee to the crowd. A large crowd was present, among those attending from Ashland were Mr. and Mrs. Julius Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Pittinger, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sams, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Dunn.
A Mr. Clark from Fresno county, California, is in Ashland today buying Jersey and Guernsey cows, which he is shipping to Los Angeles and other California points. He has bought several carloads in the Rogue river valley and will finish his shipment with what he buys around Ashland.
The daily Bible school has steadily increased in attendance until at the opening of the present semester 509 pupils were enrolled. Thirty of this number were passed, leaving the present enrollment at 407. This means that 86 per cent of the pupils in the first six grades of the grammar school are in regular attendance upon Bible instruction for one hour each week.
The American Legion in every town and city, where they have a post is always the most active society of that town. They generally lead in "clean-up" days, charity acts, city activities and celebrations. That is only one of the reasons why the style show at the armory this week was so successful.

The ladies of the Social circle of the Christian church are all equipped for serving any function now upon short notice, having just received their cutlery which was ordered through O. H. Johnson at very satisfactory figures. Any one wishing dinner or luncheons served confer with Mrs. C. O. Holman, 435 B street or phone 467-J.
Chapter A. C. of the P. E. O. Sisterhood met at the home of Mrs. Louis Dodge on Saturday afternoon. The usual business of the chapter occupied the first part of the afternoon and was followed by a very fine presentation of the evolution of the American flag and pictures were shown illustrating the various phases of its development. Mrs. Dodge was assisted by Mrs. H. C. Galey.
Wednesday night, March 2, the Congregational people had a "Mite box opening" at their church, only in this particular case they had small barrels instead of the ordinary mite boxes. These little barrels are filled during the year by each member, laying aside a few pennies of thanks giving for each meal, and thus the thought of thankfulness for present blessing is taught. Also the need of helping others, part of whom are doing our work for us across the seas.
The various mercantile establishments of Ashland are pretty well prepared now to take care of spring trade Spring shoppers begin to get active in March, and Ashland merchants have stocked up well this year for the trade. Displays in the stores are attractive, and the windows have nearly all been decorated, this week with new and late arrivals. All the prevailing styles are to be found and the old slogan "Try Your Home Town First," will prove valuable and worth your while this year. This trade at home habit helps everyone and spring is here. Time to take advantage of new goods first.
Mrs. K. M. Haan, Miss Gertrude Haan and Miss Edna Goheen were hostesses at a very jolly party given Friday evening at their home on Palm avenue. The event was to celebrate the birthdays of Clarence Haan and Miss Bonnie Pollard. Games and music filled the hours until refreshments were served. The guests were Ernal Miller, Freda Hiatt, Hazel Hiatt, Dora Larson, Jeanette Gore, Muriel McCutcheon, Georgia Currier, Martha Bash, Ahmee Coleman, Mrs. Catherine Coleman, Lawrence Mitchelmore, Melvin Kiner, Aubrey Haan and the honored guests, Miss Bonnie Pollard and Clarence Haan.
Mrs. Thacher was the leader of the meeting and after a very short business session the secretary read a number of questions about conditions in Japan and Mrs. Thacher answered the questions in turn in a very capable way having been a missionary in Japan for three years some time back. She knew many conditions and customs of the Japanese people that were interesting to hear about. One strange custom they have is to wear white at their funerals and black at a wedding. Mrs. Thacher also sang "Nothing But the Blood of Jesus" in the Japanese language and then passed the hymn book around so each one could see the strange marks that the Japanese call writing. They say in Japan that our writing looks like hens tracks and maybe they are right about it but theirs certainly looks a lot worse.
AT THE CHURCHES
TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Vicar, the Rev. P. K. Hammond
Holy communion at 8 a. m.
Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.
Morning service and sermon at 11. Good music. A helpful service. Everyone cordially invited.
METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
North Main and Laurel Sts.
H. F. Pemberton, Pastor.
Morning worship at 11 o'clock.
Rev. J. M. Canse, D. D., president of Kimball school of Theology will preach.
Evening worship at 7:30. Subject: "No man liveth unto himself."
Sunday school at 9:45. A Bible school with a plan. We invite you to investigate.
Junior League for children from 8 to 14 meets at 4.
Epworth League for young people at 6:15. This is a worthwhile hour.
Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.
You are cordially invited to attend all these meetings. Strangers and visitors especially welcome.
AT THE CHURCHES 1234 123451
BAPTIST CHURCH
Myron S. Woodworth, Pastor
Sabbath school, 9:45. Here you find a grade school, enjoying the study of the Scriptures. Sunday school boys and girls are most apt to make the most worthwhile men and women. Older folks can not better invest their time than in attending and helping in the Sunday school.
B. Y. P. U. 6:30. Topic: "Observing the Sabbath." Come and see our Japanese tree with its seven golden lamps. Mable Day will lead this meeting.
Preaching at 7:30.
Study of Revelation, chapters 10, 11 and 12.
THE FULL GOSPEL TEMPLE
J. E. Murphy, Pastor
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Mr. S. F. Foster, superintendent.
Morning worship, 11 a. m. Sacramental services following the sermon.
Young peoples meeting 6:30. Trust all the young folks will realize the importance of attending these meetings.
Evening worship, 7:30.
Every Wednesday in each week prayer meeting.
If you are looking for a real home like church, attend these services and you will be convinced that there is a welcome that is hard to find.
Stirring singing and gospel preaching.
FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
"With Illuminated Bulletin"
Sunday morning 11 o'clock, "A Salvation for Today."
Bible school 9:45.
Junior C. E. 4:00.
Intermediate C. E. 6:30.
Senior C. E. 6:30 Floy Young, leader.
Every one speaks of the singing of the male quartette at the regular services. You will enjoy hearing the Sunday school orchestra.
Sermons by the pastor, Rev. Hugh T. Mitchelmore.
Questions are being answered in the introduction of the evening service.
Ashland Loses to Roseburg.
The Roseburg high school defeated Ashland here last Saturday night, 28 to 19, in a fast, hard game. The visitors were not figured to have a chance, and the victory was a surprise, after the 34 to 10 defeat administered by Medford on Friday.
The Roseburg team played a good defensive game and out-lucked the Lithians with long shots.
Gets the Ford.
The second nights show, Wednesday night, drew even a larger crowd than the first night. The American Legion gave a new Ford away Wednesday night, as the main attraction. Thomas Grisby was the fortunate young man to leave the hall possessing the new car.

VINING Theatre

Week of exceptional attractions

Saturday, March 5
"TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION"

An Edgar Rice Burrough's story. New release and magnificent picture of Tarzan, the African jungle, thrills

Sunday, March 6
MOST LAUGHABLE COMEDY OF THE SEASON
"MILLIONAIRES"

with George Sidney, Louise Fazenda and Vera Gordon

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 7, 8, 9
THE GREATEST STORY EVER PICTURED

The Wonderful "MICHAEL STROGOFF"
A Jules Verne's masterpiece

Thursday and Friday, March 10 and 11
Hoot Gibson in "THE SILENT RIDER"
A Western story full of comedy as well as thrills