

News Notes of Interest

Mrs. Charles Simon is reported on the gain.

C. B. Hanley and wife, who live east of Ashland were doing business in town Saturday.

Mrs. H. B. Holmes of North Main was calling on friends on B street Monday afternoon.

Mr. Lasure and family of A street have moved out near the overhead bridge where they will reside.

Major Cartor of A street, who has been sick the past week, is able to be out again.

The many friends of Mrs. Catherine Morrison were glad to see her out to church Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Lewis on Third street is much improved from a siege of tonsillitis.

The Fuller Brush man from Grants Pass was doing business on our street Tuesday.

Mesdames French, Quigley and Bushnell motored to Medford Tuesday on a shopping tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon of Grants Pass spent Sunday in Ashland as guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Barnes in the Bellview district.

Mrs. Lizzie Stokes of Klamath Falls is here caring for her husband's grandmother, Mrs. Cole of A street, who is still quite sick.

Among the shoppers from Bellview district, who were into town Saturday were E. E. Gall, E. B. Shaw and King Barns.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kerns and family of Talent moved to Ashland recently and are occupying a residence on Mountain avenue.

Mrs. F. W. Shaw of Roca street, who has been seriously ill for some time with the flu, is reported to be somewhat improved.

Mrs. C. A. Gray of Iowa street is a patient at the Community hospital, where she underwent an operation during the past week.

Mrs. Ollie McIntosh of Wolf creek was in Ashland visiting relatives, Sunday and Monday, returning home Tuesday morning.

Mrs. John Enders and daughter, Shirley, returned Tuesday from a two weeks visit with her parents in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Simons of South Pioneer street had a stroke of paralysis a short time ago and she is still quite sick.

Miss Wilma Sheley of Central Point, an Ashland normal student, has been at home this week on account of sickness.

Latest news to arrive in the United States from the earthquake in Japan the first of the week, now puts the list of killed at 2,800 people.

Mrs. Fred Penniston of B street, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crosley of Neil Creek, the past two weeks, returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wright of Klamath Falls have moved to Keno to reside where Mr. Wright has employment. Mrs. Wright was formerly Miss Opal Harvey of this city.

Mrs. Karl Rose of Klamath Falls, who was so seriously hurt from a fall last week, is reported better. Mr. and Mrs. Rose are former residents of this city.

E. F. Smith, who has lived in Ashland a long time and likes it better than ever, was in this week to order the American sent a year to a relative in California.

Arthur Andrews of Corvallis, who has been visiting recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Andrew of Fairview street, has returned to his home.

Alex Noble, who has recently undergone an operation for appendicitis at the Community hospital, is improving and will be able to go home in a few days.

Sunday March 13 at the morning services at the Christian church, Miss Martha Spenser will sing for the congregation.

E. E. Phelps, who lives on route two was a pleasant caller Wednesday and joined the army of many new subscribers for the home weekly paper.

Charles Broili is working for a California firm, buying dairy cows. They shipped a car load last Friday and are buying more to ship within the next three weeks.

Among the several new subscribers to the American yesterday was Mrs. W. R. Davis of Allison street, who called personally and complimented the force on the paper.

New American subscribers keep coming in every day in the week. The paper has the best quality circulation of any weekly in the county. Advertisers get a rate in proportion to the circulation and advertisers earnestly invited to enter.

Mrs. Katherine Morrison was able to attend the social circle Wednesday. All the ladies enjoyed having her with them again.

The Royal Neighbors will give an old-time basket social and dance at the Moose hall, March 18. Everyone is invited. Ladies bring your well filled baskets, they will be sold to the highest bidders. A good time is guaranteed to all.

An event of unusual interest in musical circles is the concert scheduled for the University of Oregon stringed quartette, which will appear at the southern Oregon normal on the evening of March 15. The quartette is led by Rev Underwood, a recognized master of the violin. Dean Landsbury of the university school of music will be the soloist of the evening.

A dual debate between the southern Oregon normal school and the Monmouth normal school will take place on Monday evening. A negative team, consisting of John Churchman and Warren Kirkpatrick will meet the visitors here at 7:30 at the normal auditorium, while another team comprised of Warren Doremus and John Galey will uphold the affirmative side of the question at Monmouth. Considerable interest is shown in the event, as it is the first debate held at the southern Normal.

The Social circle enjoyed a very pleasant meeting, Wednesday the 9th in the church parlors of the Christian church. It was decided to, in the near future, give an entertainment with a good program and refreshments and each lady of the social circle gives a dollar to apply on the social circle fund and tell how she earned the dollar. Time is to be announced by committee in charge, Mrs. Nell Dunn, Mrs. James Duncan and Mrs. C. O. Holman. Meeting was adjourned to meet again March 23rd.

Faculty members of the southern Oregon state normal and wives had a most unique and jolly dinner party on Saturday evening at We-Ask-U-Inn near Grants Pass. There were about 30 present to enjoy the affair, which had been planned as an incongruous party. Miss Eva White won the prize for the most incongruous combination among the women and W. W. Wells as an Indian chief, won first honors among the men. The committee that had charge of the plans were V. V. Caldwell, Miss Clara Trotter, Miss Edith Bork, Mrs. Arthur Taylor and Mrs. Margaret O. Cason. The evening was devoted to cards and dancing.

SENIORS TO PRESENT MUSICAL COMEDY "CHERRY BLOSSOM"

The Senior high school students are making big preparations for the operetta "Miss Cherry Blossom." The school will present on Thursday night, March 17. Seventy-five students will form the elaborate chorus in addition to those chosen for the regular cast. Horace Dunn takes the part of Kokemo, while Ronald Gande as Togo takes the part of a conceited, scheming politician. The principal characters are John Ruger and Eunice Hager. John plays the part of a New York visitor much in love with Cherry Blossom, the daughter of Kokemo. The part of the daughter is taken by Eunice Hager.

Charles Lloya, automobile salesman from Medford, was arrested in a local restaurant Tuesday in company of three Medford ladies, for drunkenness and disorder by Chief of Police McNabb. Lloyd appeared in the Ashland police court and was fined $10.00 and costs of $2.50 by Police Judge Baughman.

A deserted still made out of two wash boilers and a tin tea kettle was found near Keene creek, and was brought into the local police station by Sargeant O. O. Nichols and Chief of Police McNabb.

Send it in Societies, parties, clubs any matter of news is always appreciated by The American. We wish the house parties would send in particulars and the various society and club affairs. Please send it in.

Read the advertisements.

NEW ARRIVALS

To Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bussie on March 2, a seven-pound boy. Mrs. Bussie is staying at present with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowson of Eighth street.

SILENTLY PASSING

Henry George Gilmore.
Henry George Gilmore passed away at his home "Elderly," on Scenic Drive, Saturday, March 5 at 6 p. m., after being in failing health for the greater part of the winter. He was taken suddenly worse three days previous and gradually grew weaker to the end.

Mrs. Etta Spencer.
Mrs. Etta Spencer, 59, wife of H. A. Spencer, died Tuesday at her home in Copco, California. The remains were brought to Ashland, her former home for burial, and the funeral was held Thursday afternoon from the Dodge undertaking parlors.

Mrs. Mary Cole.
Mrs. Mary Cole, 79, who has been seriously ill for some time, passed away at her home A street, Wednesday morning. She has been an Ashland resident for twenty years. The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Christian church and the remains shipped to Albany for interment in the family lot.

AT THE CHURCHES

TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Vicar, the Rev. P. K. Hammond
Holy communion at 8 a. m.
Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.
Morning service and sermon at 11. Good music. A helpful service. Everyone cordially invited.

THE FULL GOSPEL TEMPLE
J. E. Murphy, Pastor
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Mrs. S. F. Foster, superintendent.
Morning worship 11 a. m.
Young peoples meeting 6:30 Trust all the young folks will realize the importance of attending these meetings.

Evening worship, 7:30.
Every Wednesday in each week prayer meeting.
If you are looking for a real home like church, attend these services and you will be convinced that there is a genuine welcome.
Stirring singing and gospel preaching.

BAPTIST CHURCH
Myron S. Woodworth, Pastor
Sabbath school, 9:45.
Preaching, 11:00.
B. Y. P. U., 6:30.
Topic: "Taking the Curse out of money."

If you think money doesn't talk, come and listen to a dialogue by some dollar bills next Sunday evening.
Preaching, 7:30.
Another study of Revelation. This will be based on the 13th chapter which deals with the anti-Christ.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
North Main and Laurel Sts.
H. F. Pemberton, Pastor.
Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Subject: "Getting Answers to our Prayers."
Evening worship at 7:30. Subject: "No Man Liveth Unto Himself."
Sunday school at 9:45. A Bible school for everybody.
Junior League at 4. Children from 8 to 14 welcome.
Epworth League at 6:15. Young people's meeting full of interest and enthusiasm.

Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30
You are cordially invited to attend all these meetings. You will be heartily welcomed. Strangers and visitors especially welcome.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
"With Illuminated Bulletin"
Sunday morning 11 o'clock, "The Invisible Church. In the evening worship, 7:30 the subject will be "The Unreasonableness of Christianity." Interesting questions will be answered in the introduction of the service. The special music at the regular services is in charge of Miss Florence Allen, director, with Miss Imogene Wallace, organist.

Bible school 9:45, Wirt M. Wright, superintendent.
Junior C. E. 4:00, Miss Estella Hays, Superintendent.
Intermediate C. E. 6:30.
Westminster Guild, 6:30.
Senior Christian Endeavor 6:30.
Mid-week service, Wednesday, at 7:00 o'clock.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned has been duly appointed Administrator of the Estate of Mary Cole, deceased, and all persons having claims against said estate are required to present them, duly verified, and with proper vouchers within six months from this date to L. A. Roberts, Attorney for said Estate, at his office over the Citizens Bank of Ashland, Ashland, Oregon.
Dated March 11, 1927.
HERMAN F. STOAKS,
Administrator

CLASSIFIED

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—145 White Leghorn laying pullets, also 25 White Leghorn laying hens, coming 2 yr. old. Elbert G. Davis, Route 1, Box 194

FOR SALE—And a sure bargain, 5 room modern house, furnished, can be arranged for 2 apts; garage and chicken house; lot 70x148, located handy to 3 schools. Price $1200. Brown & Rice, 63 E. Main.

FOR SALE—Good house and 2 acres. A real snap. F. L. Nutter, 240 East Main. 471

ON CRATER Lake highway, in city limits, and on Rogue River, the home of the Steelhead. Two acres, fine black soil, five room house, fireplace, bath, electricity. Spring, city and well water. Plenty fruit and shade trees. Also has 30x30 concrete tank, 5-ft. deep, fed from spring, an ideal place to keep trout or use as swimming tank. $2250 buys this place if sold soon. Address P. O. Box 522, Gold Hill, Or. 437f

FOR SALE—Extra choice Rhode Island setting eggs, $1.00 per 15. Phone 289-J. 463

HOUSE with toilet, bath, and electric lights, two lots; all kinds of fruit and berries to trade for small place near Central Point or Ashland. 163 Auburn St., Ashland. 464*

WANTED—To buy fresh cows and springers. Charles Broili, 448 Helman st. Phone 407R. 47f

THE FRAGRANCE OF BEAUTY

You will find a complete line of the wonderful DuBarry toilet goods, a Hudnut product, here.
Face Powder
combines rare fragrance and delicate texture. Its fine grain insures lasting effect and enhances the smoothness of the skin. In its harmonious cerise and silver box, it is recommended by Richard Hudnut as the ultimate development in powder perfection; in white, brunette, rose or natural.

EAST SIDE PHARMACY

WALKER'S DANCES
Medford
2nd Floor Medford Building
Wed. Jazz, 75c
Thurs. Old-Time, 50c
Sat. Social, 75c
Admission Always—10c

CITY CLEANING & DYEING CO.
"WERE NOT SATISFIED UNLESS YOU ARE"
Phone 474 624 RIVERSIDE ST.

MEDFORD, OREGON

VINING Theater
A PROGRAM TO SUIT THE TASTE OF ALL

SATURDAY, MARCH 12
"WHISPERING SAGE"
Buck Jones in his best and very latest picture. It's a Western scene—full of pep and thrills
—oOo—

SUNDAY, MARCH 13
"FOR WIVES ONLY"
but promises to be thoroughly agreeable to husbands. Marie Prevost, America's dramatic screen comedienne takes you through the best of her pictures. You will not want to miss this.
—oOo—

MON., TUES., WED., MARCH 14, 15, 16
"THE SON OF THE SHEIK"
This is pronounced far superior to "The Sheik" and it is not only Rudolph Valentino's last picture, but his best picture—and will be shown here at regular prices. It may be your last view of a Rudolph Valentino production.
—oOo—

THURSDAY & FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 18
"THE CANYON OF LIGHT"
with Tom Mix and his wonder horse. The picture is as good as it sounds
Each day's showing is preceded by our exceptional good comedy