ASHLAND

Has an elevation of two thousand feet; is ideal for tourists and travelers.

The climate is nearly ideal; no extremes of heat or cold; no blizzards or tornadoes.

Has a bountiful supply of the clearest and purest water to be found anywhere.

Has as its chief summer resort the Lake o' the Woods, a beautiful spot for camping and out-door life.

The new Southern Oregon Normal school is located on the southern boundary of the city.

Within a short distance of wonderful fishing streams and a natural gateway to Crater Lake loop, one of the greatest scenic spots in America.

Ashland is noted for its effervescent and healthful Lithia water which bubbles up constantly through the rocks of granite.

Malaria germs cannot thrive in Ashland. This is a proven fact over a period of years. The climate is also noted far and wide for the relief it affords sufferers from asthma and hay fever.

E. E. PHELPS

Ashland, Route 2, Box 70

Wishes to sell his herd of fine Toggenberg Milk Goats. Make him an offer on one or more. 482

LONG YEARS AGO

Pirates and Nature were busy hiding Treasure Chests in various and numerous parts of the world.

Right here in Ashland chests holding untold wealth are buried awaiting discovery. To get this Treasure calls for work—plenty of work for every one who would share in the reward.

But, true Treasure seekers never tire, never get discouraged.

A Treasure Chest, brimming over with rich rewards for each and every one of us lies in the work we are doing. If we dig deep and work hard success is certain.

It means Greater prosperity for Ashland in which we all may share.
