

News Notes of Interest

The Week-day Bible school, with an enrollment of over 500 will hold its open assembly Friday night, May 6. Keep this date open. Meeting to be held in M. E. church. Nearly every church in Ashland is a co-operative member of this work. 513

Heath's confectionery and grocery is a neat and well located new institution for Ashland to open the first of the week in the large room joining the Elk temple on the north. Mr. Heath has arranged the new confectionery as modern as possible and intends giving presents to every visitor on Monday, his opening day.

The city council has tabled the petition to postpone building the new dam. According to this action, it looks like work will progress rapidly and the dam built as soon as possible and for a good job. The majority of the citizens are pleased with the decisions of the city fathers.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Long are in Modesto, Cal., attending the wedding of their son, Raymond, this Saturday night.

At the election of officers of the chamber of commerce last Tuesday noon, J. H. Fuller was re-elected secretary. This is the eight successive term as secretary and it speaks of splendid service, public welfare interests and faithful endeavors on Secretary Fullers part in behalf of the Ashland country.

Mr. Butterfield was compelled to close his shop last Monday on account of being summoned to serve on the jury. But he was excused from jury duty the balance of the term, so he could attend his business.

Forty-nine new subscribers to the Ashland American this week. There must be a reason.

Support the Chamber of Commerce Co-operate with it; assist and make your kicks known to it in preference to making them out of the organization.

Mrs. McElfresh is quite ill at her home on Ohio street.

O. O. Helman, who has been ill for some time, is reported as no better.

Little Lillian Avery celebrated her ninth birthday Saturday, April 2 with a party. Twelve little girls attended, each one presenting the small hostess with a gift. Lovely refreshments were served and each place was a pretty paper cap and tiny basket favor. All joined in games and contests, and spent a happy afternoon. Those present were Mildred Dunn, Freda Underwood, Mary Louise Robretson, Agnes Hall, Mary Larder, Cecelia Swenson, Margaret Broili, Pauline Ward, Genevieve Sanders, Irene Cuthbertson and Lillian Avery.

H. C. Severance is moving his family from the Sloan house on Helman street to Central Point. Mr. Severance is dealer for the McNess products in Jackson county and is making the change because Central Point is centrally located.

Tonight (Friday) at 6:30 the Royal Neighbors will serve a covered dish supper to the Modern Woodmen. It will pay all members to be present at this banquet and general good time.

A party of men, including Julius Koch, Mr. Craps and Mr. Powell have gone on a fishing excursion to Savage Rapids and Gold Ray dam.

Dr. and Mrs. Coryell of Myrtle Point were guests at the Koch home on Laurel street Tuesday. They were in Ashland to attend the Eastern Star convention.

Are There Any Left Not Getting it.

Any farmers or townspeople not now subscribers to the American, can receive it a year for half price if they subscribe before Saturday night. As an added special we will also have sent to you a year, The National Farm News. Two good weekly papers a whole year for only $1 if taken during this bargain price closing Saturday night.

This is Important.

Many Ashland American readers in the country and in town written us and talked of American advertising. Hundreds of readers are back of the American and American advertisers. Now to all our many readers, we suggest that you put a little extra effort in patronizing American advertisers and trading in Ashland. This paper likes your suggestions, it is absolutely your paper, trying to please the readers. Next week, besides Easter and Spring advertising hints for home shopping we will hope to give the Easter programs at the various churches.

Special for Saturday.

The Ashland American for one year and the National Farm News for one year, both for $1. The two for half the price of one.

New Cars Arrive.

The Lithia Springs garage has just received a car load of new automobiles, direct from the factory. And they are beautiful. In the car were a pretty new Hudson sedan, an Essex sedan, an Essex coach and an Essex coupe. Better go look at them.

SILENTLY PASSING

J. H. Roberts.

Myrtle Point, Or., April 2.—J. H. Roberts, 87, who came to this country with his wife in 1872, died at Roseburg Wednesday of last week. Services were held here and burial was in the Myrtle Point cemetery. He is survived by his widow and eight children. Louis at Ashland, Mrs. Mary Rackleff at Canby, Jack at Portland, Levi J., Edwin C., Mrs. Jenie Schmitt, Mrs. Anna Winters and W. A. Roberts, all of Myrtle Point. Mr. Roberts was a civil war veteran. In 1884 he was elected to the Oregon legislature and was re-elected in 1885. He was the author of the measure for the connection of Coquille valley and Roseburg.

George W. Heath.

Funeral services were held last Saturday for George W. Heath, 85, civil war veteran, who died at his home in Ashland, March 31. Mr. Heath was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, July 4, 1841. He married Martha J. Backus at Capman Creek, Kansas, April 21, 1867. They came to Oregon in 1882. Mr. Heath had been a member of the Odd Fellows' lodge since 1885.

He is survived by his widow and seven children, Alfred S., Winchester bay; Gerald B., Gates; Edwin E., Ashland; Mrs. J. L. Read, Medford; Mrs. S. V. Hall, Salem; Mrs. O. C. Dike, Gates, and Ralph, Castle Rock, Washington.

George T. Watson.

George T. Watson, 52, passed away Sunday afternoon at his home on Ohio street, following a prolonged illness. He has been a resident of this city for many years.

The deceased is survived by a wife and one son, Kendrick, both of Ashland. Funeral services were held from the J. P. Dodge & Sons undertaking parlors Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

Mrs. Emily Rovny.

Mrs. Emily Rovny, 76, passed away at her home on Third street Saturday April 2. The deceased was a native

VINING Theater

A Splendid Show, Magnificent Scenery, A Show With a Strict Moral and Lesson

SATURDAY, APRIL 9

"THE PERCH OF THE DEVIL"

with Pat O'Malley and Mae Bush

—oO—

SUNDAY, APRIL 10

"BUTTERFLIES IN THE RAIN"

starring Laura La Plante and James Kirkwood

—oO—

MONDAY, TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11, 12, 13

The big production using 15,000 people

"3 BAD MEN"

It's a historic picture of the Westward travel and the best picture produced of pioneer days.

—oO—

THURSDAY & FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 15

"PALS IN PARADISE"

A romantic story of a modern gold rush of the state of Georgia and leaves four sons to mourn her death.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from Stock's undertaking parlors, with interment in the Mountain View cemetery.

DISTRICT MEET OF EASTERN STAR BRINGS HUNDREDS

Last Tuesday, April 5, Alpha Chapter No. 1, of O. E. S. was the hostess to the district meeting of all southern Oregon chapters. Ashland stars proved perfect entertainers and some four hundred delegates will long remember Ashland and the successful gathering.

Present were Worthy Grand Matron of Oregon, Mrs. Leonora Hamilton Kerr of Corvallis, and Mrs. Margaret Barnes of Grants Pass, the associate grand matron.

The chapter opened in due form by the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Mazie Bates. J. H. Hardy, worthy patron, gave the address of welcome and a response was given by Mrs. Lena Davis, worthy matron of Aloha chapter No. 61 of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Leona Hamilton Kerr, worthy grand matron; Mrs. Margaret Barnes associate grandmatron; Mrs. Nellie McGowan of Reames chapter No. 66 and Mrs. Josephine D. Crocker of Alpha chapter No. 1, past grand matron were introduced and after being escorted to the east were given the grand honors. They were also presented with beautiful bouquets of flowers. The worthy matron and worthy patron of Aloha, Adarel and Reames chapters were also introduced, escorted to the east and given a generous bow and flowers. The officers of Alpha chapter exemplified the opening and closing ceremonies and the officers of Reames chapter exemplified initiatory work, two candidates being initiated into the order.

KLAMATH FALLS TO

DEBATE FRIDAY EVENING

The Ashland high school debating team, winners in this district will meet the Klamath Falls debaters, champions of their district Friday evening at the high school, starting at seven thirty. The winners of the debate will meet the winner of a Willamette and Coos Bay district in the elimination contest which will finally result in the state championship being decided. The Ashland team is composed of Adena and Dick Joy.

ASHLAND

Has an elevation of two thousand feet; is ideal for tourists and travelers.

The climate is nearly ideal; no extremes of heat or cold; no blizzards or tornadoes.

Has a bountiful supply of the clearest and purest water to be found anywhere.

Has as its chief summer resort the Lake of the Woods, a beautiful spot for camping and out-door life.

The new Southern Oregon Normal school is located on the southern boundary of the city.

Within a short distance of wonderful fishing streams and a natural gateway to Crater Lake loop, one of the greatest scenic spots in America.

Farm Protection

Think You Can Spell?

How many words can you make from the letters in "FARM PROTECTION"? Ten, twenty, twenty-five or more? Here is a fine chance to cash in on your knowledge of spelling.

Win $250 Cash Prize

The National Farm News will give a $250 cash prize to the person who sends in the largest list of correctly spelled words made from letters in "FARM PROTECTION." provided the list is accompanied by $1.00 to cover one new yearly subscription to The National Farm News. There are no strings tied to this offer—it is all right before you in this announcement. Just make up your list of words on a plain sheet of paper and send it in with one yearly subscription to The National Farm News at $1.00. There is positively nothing else you need do.

DANDY SURPRISE PRESENT ABSOLUTELY FREE To Every Contestant

Send in a list of words accompanied by a yearly subscription at $1.00 and we will immediately send you a Dandy Surprise Gift. Every contestant who submits a list of words accompanied by a subscription as above will positively receive one of these Surprise Gifts whether they win the big cash prize or not.

ACT QUICK IF YOU WANT $250

Surely you could use $250.00 extra money. Here is your opportunity. Act now—you might just as well have a nice cash prize as anyone else. This fine prize would enable you to buy many things you have been wanting or would be a mighty fine addition to your bank account.

This gift will be sent absolutely free for sending a list of words and subscription promptly. We guarantee that you will be genuinely surprised when you receive this dandy free gift.

THE RULES ARE SIMPLE

1. The object of the Contest is to make as many words as possible from the letters in "Farm Protection." A letter may be used only as many times in a word as it appears in "Farm Protection." For instance, a word may contain only one "F" as that letter appears only once in "Farm Protection."
2. All words shown in the dictionary will be counted in case they contain only the letters appearing in key word. Words spelled alike with different meanings will be counted as one word. Such singular and plural may be used, and both be counted provided they are in the dictionary.
3. The Contest is open to anyone living any place in the United States. No regular salaried employees of The National Farm News or any of their relatives may enter.
4. Collaboration is permissible, but collaborating parties must not submit more than one list. Any list sent in that may lead the judges to believe because of duplication or similarity—they have been compiled by one and the same person or group of persons, will be rejected and not counted.
5. In case of a tie, duplicate prizes will be awarded.
6. Webster's New International Dictionary, 1926 edition, will be used in determining the correctness of words.
7. Words must be written on one side of the paper only and must be numbered consecutively.
8. No list will be counted which does not conform to this rule. Prepare your list neatly. Name and address must appear on each sheet.
9. Three executive officers of The National Farm News will act as judges in the Contest, and contestants agree to accept their decision as final and conclusive.
10. All lists of words and accompanying subscriptions must bear a postmark not later than Saturday, March 26, 1927. Each list must be accompanied by a yearly subscription to The National Farm News at $1.00, and all such lists will be promptly acknowledged. Winners will be announced in The National Farm News.

SEND LIST OF WORDS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS NOW TO RECEIVE DANDY SURPRISE PRESENT AT ONCE

Just pin to your list of words an extra sheet of paper bearing your name and address, also the name and address of the person to whom the subscription to The National Farm News is to be sent. Mail as soon as possible.

THE NATIONAL FARM NEWS, 215 G St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR AN

EASTER SUIT

DON'T FOR GET OUR

$20 SPECIAL $20

-PAULSERUD'S-

Every Suit Guaranteed — Every Suit Pure Wool

SEE OUR WINDOWS

If we can't fit you out in Ready-to-Wear, we can make a Suit to please you.