The Third Street garage, Wimer & Barto, at 25 Third street, are now agents for the Star car. The Star seems to be gaining rapidly in the public's favor and one is delighted in the new models shown at this garage.

Oscar Cooper preached at the Christian church Sunday morning to an appreciative audience. Mr. Cooper announced that he was not a candidate for the Ashland pulpit, having formerly lived here. He said "a prophet was not without honor save in his own country."

Mrs. Bertha Carthell in company with her sister, Miss Abbott, went to Buck Horn lodge last week, where they will stay for a time for the benefit of her health. This is an old health resort, about sixteen miles out of town.

The White Elephant class of the Christian Sunday school are planning a basket dinner at the church dining room next Sunday at the noon hour. All members or friends of the class are invited to come, bringing a well filled basket. An impromptu program for the afternoon will be put on by the young people.

About twenty-five were present at the William Rice home Friday evening at the Berean class party. All report an enjoyable time. A program was given by members of the class, also games and refreshments were part of the evenings entertainment. The next meeting is billed to be at the Floyd Putman home on Beach street.

A group of relatives surprised J. E. Randles at his home in the Bellview district Thursday evening April 7, the occasion being in honor of his birthday anniversary. Each person brought something to eat and at 6:30 a sumptuous dinner was served, the main attraction being a pretty decorated birthday cake. Mr. Randles received many useful gifts, which he greatly appreciated.

The various churches in Ashland will have special Easter programs Sunday. We wish each church would send in church announcements and church society news each week for The American. This matter is printed free of charge and greatly appreciated by the editor as well as by the many hundreds of readers. Won't each organization appoint some one to attend to it and get items in not later than Wednesdays.

The young people of the Full Gospel church are having splendid times on roller skates at the natatorium. Last Monday night forty-seven skaters were on the floor and it was indeed a lively party. All members are Sunday school boys and girls and the wholesome entertainment offered is being taken up with much interest.

U. G. Dubach, dean of men at O. A. C., was the speaker before the Kiwanis luncheon group on Friday at the Lithia Springs hotel. The dean is a favorite with Ashland audiences. He is a man of highly developed human interests and a skillful hand at rousing the deeper and truer instincts in his audiences. The dean's talk was greatly enjoyed by all who had the opportunity to hear it.

REDWOOD HIGHWAY FROM OREGON CAVES TO MERFORD

We are reliably informed that arrangements have been completed whereby the Redwood highway via the Oregon Caves to Jacksonville and Medford will be completed this summer. This is good news to many Medford people for a more direct route to the caves and the coast has been worked for, for years by local interests; this project had its inception during the administration of the late George Gardner and the progressive spirit of this energetic good road enthusiast in building the first link of the highway, the paving of the Jacksonville highway, has tendered to create an undying interest in this east and west artery to the coast and to one of Oregon's scenic wonders, the Oregon Caves. The opening of this road will mean the diversion of thousands of tourists over this new highway.—Pacific Record Herald.

MAUNDY MONEY IS GIVEN BY KING GEORGE

London, April 13.—(UP.)—King George will make 124 of his subjects happy tomorrow.

The occasion will be that of distributing of the King's "Moundy Money"—the day being Moundy Thursday. The practice is a survival of an ancient custom when the king gave to the poor who assembled at the palace.
