

Your Kidneys
Must Function Properly
For You to be Well

LATE hours, rich foods and stimulating drinks are all hard on our kidneys.
If their action becomes sluggish, they do not thoroughly cleanse the blood of poisonous wastes.

Such impurities may make one dull, tired and achy, with often a toxic backache, drowsy headaches and dizziness.
A common symptom of imperfect kidney function is scanty or burning excretions.

Thousands have learned the virtue of Doan's Pills, stimulant diuretic in these conditions. 50,000 users have publicly recommended Doan's. Ask your neighbor!

50,000 Users Endorse Doan's:

Lambert W. Cox, Westover, Md., says:
"Doan's Pills" proved their value to me. My kidneys acted sluggish and the secretions were scant and scalding. There was such a soreness across my back that I couldn't bend or stoop.
I was told to use Doan's Pills and shall always be glad that I did. They put me in fine shape."

Wild Animals Fear Snakes

Dangerous snakes in Great Britain are so rare that cattle show no fear of them, but any foreign deer will be in a state of panic if a snake is placed near it. The elephant ignores the largest snakes for he knows that his thick hide is a safe armor against their attacks. On the other hand, large mammals such as the lion and tiger will quickly run off from the presence of a snake.

Many people imagine that worms or tapeworms cannot be expelled entirely. A single dose of "Dead Shot" proves that they can. 272 Pearl St., N. Y. Adv.

How Sound Travels

Sound travels more than four times
as fast through water as through air, points out an answered question in Liberty. Through water, sound travels at 4,700 feet a second; through air,
at 1,090 feet a second.

A TEST CASE

Tommy entered the parlor, where his sister was entertaining Mr. Dubleigh. Walking up to the latter, he held out his hand, in the open palm of which were a dozen small white objects.

"What's them?" he asked.

"Why, those are beans," answered Dubleigh with an ingratiating smile.

"He does know 'em, sis," said Tommy triumphantly to his sister. "You told me last night that he didn't."

PARADOXICAL

"Say, Bo, what's your idea of a square meal?"

"Oh, a nice round steak!"

Great Faith

"Why don't you arise and tell your public what is wrong with the way the country is being 'run'?"

"I don't want to remind 'em that anything is wrong," answered Senator Sorghum. "I have taught the folks to have great confidence in me. If I tell 'em anything is wrong, they will simply turn on me and ask why I don't correct it."—Washington Star.

The Retort Courteous

A new jailer was astounded, on making his tour of the prison, to find one of the convicts busily at work at his barred window with a file.

"Hey!" roared the jailer. "What are you doing with that?"

"Oh," replied the prisoner airily, "just cuttin' me initials on one of the bars to kill time."

Plenty of Tracks

"Toofus," asked the mayor of Fort Mink, "how is it you are always able to find city hunters plenty of bear tracks?"

"I use my tame bear," explained Toofus, the Fort Mink philosopher and guide.

"Not to shoot at?"

"No, to make tracks."

SHOULD CERTAINLY SHINE

"She's ambitious to have her husband shine in society."

"Well, doesn't he? He's always lit."

Sister's Fender

"Why do you call that young man your sister's rain beau?" inquired the caller.

"Because," said her little brother, "while she thinks he's all wet he has a closed ear, and she only keeps a date with him when the weather's bad."

A Mother's Way

Mrs. Smartleigh—Yes, my dear, I intend my daughters to be engaged when they are nineteen.

Mrs. Wise—But suppose they are not?

Mrs. Smartleigh—Then they shall remain nineteen until they are.

It's a Fact

"Harry, women sleepless than men."
"Why so?"

"One seldom hears of a woman talking in her sleep."

His Busy Season

MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

A Dark Secret

Bug—"You're too slow for anything." Snail—"Well, it's some satisfaction to know that you'll never be arrested for exceeding the speed limit!"

Ages

"Don't you sometimes wish you were young again?"

"No," answered Senator Sorghum.
"I have been reading the papers. A man can be just as foolish and flighty
at thirty as he can at sixty."—Washington Star.

He Had to

Harold—I really believe your father likes me.

Edna—Oh, no, he's just troubled with bunions.—Washington Star.

Such Graceful Style

"You have developed a strange admiration for this pugilist."

"I can't help it," answered Miss Cayenne.

"Do you know anything about prize fighting?"

"No. But his literary style is so graceful."—Washington Star.

Said With Flowers

"Who is the man who sent you the beautiful bouquet?"

"Isn't it an exquisite creation of blossoming art!" exclaimed Miss Cayenne.
"I quite forgot the name of the man who sent it and fell in love with the florist."—Washington Star.

Dramatic All Right

"How did your dramatic tour succeed?"

"When we played tragedy the receipts were a farce, and when we played farce the receipts were a tragedy."—London Tit-Bits.

A Long Job

Herbie—I'll count the days until I see you again.

Ethel—Well, I hope you have a good head for figures.

EASY TO WEIGH

Customer—"It's easy to weigh fish, isn't it, Mr. Shadd?" Dealer—"How come?" Customer—"Because they're already in the scales."

Unthinkable

Mrs. Mandy Johnson—I want to see Mistah Hamlin.

Office Boy—Mr. Hamlin is engaged.

Mrs. Mandy Johnson—Go long, boy.
Ah don't want to marry him. Tell him his wash lady wants hub money.

How Shows Are Made

Artist—Did you sell that joke about the college student and the waitress?

Jokesmith—I showed it to a playwright and he wrote a musical comedy around it.
