Feeders of Anti-Foreign Flame

Here, left to right, are the so-called "mystery man of Russia," who is said to be responsible for all the anti-foreign propaganda put forth by the radicals of the southern Chinese, and Lio Ho-Lin, chief of the Cantonese publicity bureau.

Aviators Are Busy in Nicaragua

Aviators attached to the American forces in Nicaragua are kept busy with reconnaissances. The group shown above was inspecting the airplanes at the Managua flying field. They are, left to right: Admiral Larimer, Major Korwell (in charge of planes there), Ensign Zeurmuhieln, Major Martlett and Lieutenant McCullen.

DANCERS, TRY THIS

Couples in a busy street of London, England, were astonished recently to see a man and woman dancing the Charleston on the top of a moving automobile and doing the intricate steps in perfect rhythm. The dancers were Santos Casani and Miss Jose Leonard.

Double Shift

At a club a man who had applied in vain for membership was being discussed. "I have heard that he is unscrupulous to an unusual degree," said one member. "Unscrupulous?" returned another. "If that fellow were to reform, he would have to put in overtime feeling remorse."—Boston Transcript.

Deadly Disease Spreader

The common housefly is found in practically every portion of the globe. They deposit their eggs upon some putrifying matter, and the larvae are hatched under favorable conditions within 24 hours, and become full-grown within three or four weeks. The common housefly is a most dangerous agent in the spread of disease

Nation's Many Divisions

Ancient Greece had no national flag since it was divided into many separate kingdoms. The standard of Attica bore a white war horse; that of the Corinthians, the winged horse; the Lacedaemonians, the letter L; that of the Thracians, a death head; that of the Thessalonians, the immortal sorrel horse, Xanthos; that of the Messenians, the letter M.

Ruler of the Winds

Aeolus was the ancient ruler of the Aeolian Isles of the coast of Greece. According to tradition he was given dominion of the winds, which he either kept confined in a cave or sent forth to do his bidding. The aeolian harp is named after him, as the sweet sounds are produced by the wind playing across its strings.

Glass Long in Use

Glass was made as far back as 2500 B. C., but no blown glass was made before the Christian era.

On the Funny Side

A MAN'S JOB

They sat silently for a long time; then he spoke a little nervously. "What are you thinking about?" he asked. He knew he had to say something. She blushed and moved uneasily in her chair. "Never mind," she answered sharply. "It's your business to propose, not mine!"—Tit-Bits.

HARD TO BELIEVE

Nephew—Up among the snows and glaciers of Alaska, Aunt Sally, I hunted bear. Old Aunt—I can't believe it, John, you'd have gotten pneumonia and died.

Brutal!

Take now the bride of Joe Montcalm—Her work is far from coarse. She drained poor hub of all his "balm." Then asked for a divorce!

Powerful Stuff

"Is your stuff any good for rheumatics?" asked an old lady of a man selling embrocation. "Madam, it would take the wrinkles out of corrugated iron," was the confident answer.

Horse and Horse

Judge—It seems very strange to me that you could keep on robbing that enormous corporation for so long without being caught. Prisoner—Well, the corporation was pretty busy itself.—Life.

A Phase of Life

A schoolteacher who was fond of a little girl's prattle remarked one day: "But I seldom hear you speak of your father. Don't you love your father?" "Of course. But he can only see me when with his lawyer."

One-Man Shop

Stephens—My uncle is one of those men who believe in singing at his work. Durham—What's his work? Stephens—He's an opera singer.

LOVED HER STILL

Girlie (recently scolded)—Mother, do you love me still? Mother—Yes, be quiet, dear.

Emancipation

The gentler sex is gaining ground. As ne'er it gained before: Since Graminaw's had her neck shaved round. I think she's swearing more.

Not a Chance

Stout Theatrical Person (engaging room)—Window's a bit small. Wouldn't be much use to me in an emergency!

Landlady—There ain't goin' to be any sich emergency! My terms fer actors is weekly in advance!

False Pride

Bill—Yes, ma'am! He said he'd like to have my head in his business. Jean—Hee! Haw! He makes ivory pool balls.
