

Fine Home for Women's National Democratic Club

This handsome old mansion on fashionable New Hampshire avenue in Washington has been purchased by the Women's National Democratic club for its headquarters in the national capital. The club has made rapid progress in the last few years.

Scene of Explosion That Cost Seven Lives

General view of the wreckage, caused by a mysterious explosion that demolished the executive offices of the Yellow Taxi Cab company in New York city. Seven persons were killed and forty-one injured.

England's Newest and Most Powerful Battleship

The H. M. S. Nelson, England's newest and most powerful battleship afloat, as it left Newcastle for Portsmouth to go through naval maneuvers. It was constructed at Newcastle, and is named after Lord Nelson, one of England's most famous sea fighters.

Borah, Like President, Holds Press Conferences

Every afternoon at three o'clock press correspondents in Washington gather in the office of Senator William E. Borah of Idaho and listen to what the chairman of the senate foreign relations committee has to give out. Senator Borah is the only one in the national capital, except the President and some cabinet officers to hold such conferences with the press. The photograph shows one of the conferences.

Turned Down by the Royal Academy

John Collier, famed artist, with his painting of George Bernard Shaw, British writer and critic, who has been turned down by the hanging committee for this year's Royal academy exhibit in London.

"Uncle Mose" Waiting for Relief

"Uncle Mose" with all his worldly goods waiting on the high section of the levee at Greenville, Miss., for the return of the Red Cross relief steamer to take him down the river to the newly established camp for refugees at Monroe, La.

Supplies for the Flood Victims

Unloading Red Cross supplies, food, etc., on the levee at Monroe, La., for the multitude of flood refugees. The Red Cross has established a relief camp there.

RADIO BABY

Seroba Mary Lou Bartley of Whitesburg, Ky., who has the distinction of being the first baby to be christened over the radio.

Making Amber Workable

Most of the amber we get in this country in the way of pipe stems, cigar and cigarette holders and strings of beads of the cheaper variety are pressed amber. The better grades and larger pieces either stay in Europe or go to the East. By gradually heating amber in an oil bath it becomes soft and flexible. Thus it is rendered workable.

Founded Russian Empire

About the middle of the Ninth century a Scandinavian leader, Rurik, came to Novgorod with a band of warlike followers in response to an invitation to establish order and unity. From this event the Russian historians date the beginning of the Russian empire, the foundation of which they place in the year 862.

Biggest Mistake of All

The biggest of all mistakes is to be always watching for small ones.