Kindergarten Picnic
The kindergarten and nursery pupils of Mrs. Nellie Sielaff, on Hargadine street, will have a picnic in Lithia park Friday noon, afterwards doing their kindergarten work and playing games in the park.

Mrs. Winters Entertains.
Twenty-six ladies were invited to the home of Mrs. O. Winters on the Boulevard in compliment to Mrs. J. F. Meikle, of Oakland, who formerly resided in this city, and who is now visiting at the home of Mrs. Sylvan Provost. The afternoon was spent informally and Mrs. Winters served tea at five o'clock.

Piano Recital.
Mrs. Harold Atkins will present her piano pupils in recital Monday evening June 13th at her home on Taylor street. A varied program of piano numbers, both solos and duets is being arranged, the following pupils taking part.

Jane Sugg, Charlotte Mitchell, Lily Sielaff, Frances Atkins, Dorothy Arnold, Billy Herndon, Bobby Berg, Margaret Real, Jean Balis, Marietta Whitney and Mary Peley.

Well Known Couple Wed.
A wedding of unusual interest was solemnized last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Presbyterian church of Medford, when Miss Frances Greb of Eagle Point became the bride of Mr. A. M. Miller of this city. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. E. P. Lawrence of the Presbyterian church of Medford.

The bride is well known throughout Jackson county, having graduated from the Medford high school in 1917, subsequently attending college and becoming one of Jackson county's successful teachers.

Mr. Miller is train dispatcher for the Southern Pacific railroad at Ashland, and they will make their home here after returning from an extensive honeymoon, which will take them to California, Arizona, Colorado, North Dakota, many of the eastern states, and then home via Canadian/Pacific to Vancouver, B. C.

M. E. Picnic at Lithia Park.

The Methodist Episcopal churches of southern Oregon are making preparations for a gala day to be held at Lithia Park in Ashland on Thursday, June 16, which will be their annual picnic and to which all members of the congregation of the denomination and all members of the Sunday schools of the churches of Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass are invited. There will be sports for the boys and girls under the direction of Mr. John Rigg of Ashland and Mr. George Kunzman of Medford. Plans for the special entertainment for the older folks will be arranged, and this picnic promises to hold much enjoyment for both young and old.

Missionary Society Meets in Park.

The Christian Missionary society of Medford held a pleasant picnic in Lithia Park Tuesday afternoon, at which about thirty ladies were present. Also the Christian minister and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Howe of Medford.

A bountiful dinner was enjoyed at the picnic grounds after which there was a missionary meeting of interest. Mrs. E. E. Eads was again installed as president for another year, and she gave a nice talk expressing appreciation for the faithful help of the members during the past missionary year. Those present were: Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Lawrence "Grandma" Davis, Miss Hull, Mrs. Grover, Mrs. Markum, Mrs. Currier, Mrs. Benart, Mr. and Mrs. Shuler, Mrs. Dewey, Mrs. A. F. North, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Howe, Mrs. M. G. Fry, Mrs. John Frick, Mrs. Margaret Fisher, Mrs. Lois Evans, Mrs. Hannah Einkoph, Mrs. E. E. Eads, Mrs. H. F. Davis, Mrs. C. R. Collins, Mrs. J. F. Davis, Mrs. Wm. Archer, Mrs. J. F. Davis, Mrs. F. J. Wilmot and May Benedict of Ashland. The ladies are planning a similar picnic in Lithia park soon.

Antique Day at S. O. N. S.

Acceptances to invitations extended by the southern Oregon normal school alumni association to attend Alumni day at the normal are being received from Portland, Coos Bay, Klamath Falls, and other parts of Oregon, as well as from Washington, Idaho and California. "Antiques" will be a feature of the day, old class rolls, annuals, newspapers and old photographs, given by various members of the student body and faculty of the old normal will be on display in room 6 of the normal building. This feature of the entertainment for all alumni will be in charge of Miss Eva L. White.

O. E. S. Dinner.

It was the consensus of opinion that the covered dish dinner which was given by members of Alpha chapter No. 1, O. E. S. in the Masonic hall at 8:30 Tuesday evening, was the best ever, from the standpoint of the connoisseurs of the culinary art. An elaborate dinner was served, and a short business session held, after which the evening was spent informally playing cards and listening to a very good program. Miss Lillian Olson and Miss Margaret Churchman gave several ukulele numbers, and Mrs. Mary Wilshire gave a reading. Miss Ruth Hackler of Talent delighted with a vocal number.

Daughters of the Nile

The daughters of the Nile will hold their monthly meeting in Ashland, Saturday afternoon, June 11th at which time a committee composed of local members will serve a luncheon in the Masonic Hall at 12:30. Members from Grants Pass, Medford, Jacksonville and Klamath Falls will attend.

Covered Dish Luncheon

The members of the Wednesday Club of the Presbyterian Church had an all day meeting Wednesday, featuring a covered dish luncheon at the noon hour. This was the last meeting for the year, and much interest was manifested. The afternoon was spent making paper flowers and other decorations for Children's Day.

Bellview Community Club Meets

The Bellview Community Club, of which Mrs. W. D. Jackson, is president had an unusually fine meeting of the club on Wednesday afternoon at the Community club house at which time instructions were given in the art of basket making. Flower baskets and work baskets in need were begun under the instruction of Miss Hanley and Mrs. Alving of Medford. At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Hays and Mrs. Barnard served refreshments.

Normal Sport Dance

A snappy sport dance was given Wednesday evening by the seniors of the Normal school, at the Bellview Club house, with Dickeys orchestra furnishing excellent music. It was a highly successful party and the students and guests were very gay in sport clothes. Dancing was the most popular order of the evening, however, some chose to play cards and tables were arranged for those who preferred bridge. Punch was served throughout the evening. Mr. John Galey was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements, assisted by Miss Lucy Ellen Richardson, Miss Myrtle Hall and Miss Vera Jungjohnn.

Members of the S. O. N. S. faculty who were chaperones were: President and Mrs. J. H. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Strange, Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Caldwell, Miss Helen Anderson, Miss Beatrice Hall and Miss Eva White

Miss Hazel Shaver has closed her school on Dead Indian and is visiting at the J. R. Maedon home on B street at present. Miss Shaver expects to teach Dead Indian School again next year.
