Marie Provost's Best Comedy
If "Getting Gertie's Garter" is not the best picture in which Marie Provost has ever starred. It is next to the best. The vivacious star of "Up to Mable's Room" and a score of other successes has added another triumph to her long list of genuinely entertaining roles. The picture is coming to the Vining Theatre Sunday.

"Drums of the Desert" adapted from Zane Grey's "Desert Bound" will be shown at the Vining theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Advance reports call it one of the biggest Westerners that has ever been screened. The picture deals with the Navajo Indians who played so large a part in the Richard Dix vehicle. Only in this production however, it is the redskin who finally comes out on top.

George J. Hayes at the organ.
Mrs Olive Hake of Crescent City is spending a week in this city visiting.

Mrs. Peter L. Harreschou and Mrs. Grace Clarke, of Portland, were over night guests at the home of Mrs. Earl Cow on Van Ness Avenue Wednesday. They were on their way to California, stopping at Oakland, San Francisco and southern California points

Mr. John Finneran, formerly of Ashland, more recently of Salem, has been transferred from Salem to Cottage Grove as special agent for the Standard Oil Company. Mr. and Mrs. Finneran will move to Cottage Grove immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Isaac of Isaacs store, are spending a weeks vacation in Berkeley, Calif., visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Isaacs brother and his family of Medford also went to Berkeley and the families will have a reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac will return to Ashland Sunday evening.

Mrs. Waldo Klum who has been on a trip to the Northwest, returned Wednesday from Vancouver, B. C.

Dr. and Mrs. Randall F. White and two small children spent Saturday evening with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Hanson of the Ashland hotel. Mrs. White is the daughter of H. W. Stone, General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Portland, Mr. Stone having been connected with the Y of Portland for thirty years. Mr. and Mrs. White were on a motor trip to Southern California.

Have You Any Old Pictures Of Ashland? If So See "Mac"

Anyone who has any old pictures showing Ashland in its embryonic stage, or anyone who happens to have old plates or negatives of such, can make Chief of Police McNabb mightily happy by adding them to the collection he is making. The chief plans to cover the walls of one of the rooms at the station with these pictures, and make a picture-history of the city.
