Farewell Party

A farewell party was given at the Frank Davis home at 67 Seaside Drive Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Angwin who are leaving soon for Klamath Falls where Mr. Angwin has a position with the Southern Pacific company. The invited guests were Mrs. Katie Scroggins and daughter, Louise, Mrs. John Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Smith, Miss Jean

Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Werner, Mr. and Mrs. Wolcott, Dr. G. W. Gregg, Rev. and Mrs. Pemberton and daughter Helen, and son Paul, Mrs. H. J. Van Fossen, Miss Cora Mason, George Mason and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis. The evening was spent in playing games and singing after which refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Angwin will be greatly missed from the Methodist church where both have been members of the choir.

Mrs. Dodge Hostess

Mrs. Louis Dodge was hostess Friday afternoon at her home on the Boulevard at a bridge party given in honor of her sister, Mrs. Will Abbott of Los Angeles, Calif. who is spending a month as a guest at the Dodge home. The afternoon was spent playing bridge, and prizes were given by the hostess to high score holders. Mrs. Fred Wagner won first prize and Mrs. Frank Dean received a consolation prize. The ladies also entered into a golf putting contest in which Mrs. Fred Homes won first prize and Mrs. Will Dodge, the consolation prize. Mrs. Dodge served late afternoon tea, assisted by Miss Edith Dodge, Isabelle Silver and Ellen Galey. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Dodge, were: The guest of honor, Mrs. Will Abbott, Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Mrs. Emil Peil, Mrs. H. C. Galey, Mrs. Will Dodge, Mrs. F. D. Wagner, Mrs. A. E. Kinney, Mrs. E. V. Carter, Mrs. Hal McNair, Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg, Mrs. C. H. Vaupel, Mrs. G. M. Green, Mrs. J. H. McGee, Mrs. Karl Nims, Mrs. Frank Dean, Mrs. John Potter, Mrs. Fred Homes, Mrs. Frank Jordan and Mrs. O. Winter.

Golf Dinner

Mrs. Fred Homes is entertaining Tuesday afternoon at a unique party given at her country home in the Bellview district. She has invited a group of ladies to be her guests at a golf dinner, the guests to meet at her home at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon to equip themselves with score cards and proceed to the golf course where they will compete in this most popular sport. Scores will be turned in, and Mrs. Homes will serve dinner at seven o'clock. Among the lovers of the ancient game of golf anticipation is very keen looking toward this party.

Garden Party at Enders Home

The rain storm of Sunday evening could not dampen the spirits of the happy group of people who were guests at the John Enders home on the boulevard, when they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. John Enders, Mr. and Mrs. Crow and Mr. and Mrs. Domino Provost, altho the hostesses had arranged a most beautiful setting for a garden party, and the storm caused a sudden move into the house. The spacious lawn of the Enders home had been transformed into a Japanese garden of trees and flowers, Japanese lanterns and electric lights and seven small tables were arranged most artistically to accommodate twenty-eight guests at a buffet supper at 6:30. Just before the appointed hour however, Jupiter Pluvius stepped in and decided the party should take place in doors. The hostesses were disappointed, but the guests thoroughly enjoyed the bountiful buffet supper, as well as the evening of cards.

Four lovely prizes were given, the fortunate ones being Mrs. V. V. Mills and Mr. Andy McCallen for holding high scores, and Mr. Henry Enders, Jr. and Mrs. Clifford Read, holding low scores. The guests were Messrs and Mesdames Victor Mills, Henry Enders, Jr., Herschel Claycomb, Harry Tomlinson, Andy McCallen, Philip Backus, Andy McGee, O. A. Paulserud, C. E. Shinn, P. R. Hardy, Charles Haines, and Clifford Read. Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hardy and Mr. and Mrs. McCoy are unable to attend.

Stewart-Porter Nuptials

A wedding of unusual interest and beauty took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Porter on Eighth street, when their daughter, Marie was given in marriage to Mr. Rodger H. Stewart of Chiloquin, Oregon. The wedding took place on Sunday afternoon July 24th, 1927 at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. Pemberton, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, officiating.

The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Stewart of Powers, Oregon, brother and sister-in-law of the groom. The bride was lovely in a period dress of orchid taffeta and carried a shower of bouquet of sweet peas. The Matron of honor was gowned in pale green voile, and also carried sweet peas. Large bouquets of sweet peas lent their beauty and color to the living room where the ceremony took place. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will spend their honeymoon on the coast, after which they will return to Chiloquin where they will make their future home. The wedding was attended only by members of the immediate families of the bride and groom, those attending from out of town were, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart of Chiloquin, father and mother of the groom, Phil and Agnes Stewart, brother and sister from Chiloquin, Mrs. Coffins of Chiloquin, Mr. Rogers, of the Old Soldiers Home at Roseburg, grandfather of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Stewart and family of Powers, Oregon, Mr. Russell Morgan of Chiloquin, Mr. K. Nelson of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. F. J. Porter and three children of Eugene.

Miss Beigle Hostess

Miss Calla Beigle entertained Saturday evening at her home on Morton street, invitations being sent to Mrs. J. R. Edwards, Mrs. Dan Kay, Mrs. Georgia Salt, of Cleveland, Ohio, house guest at the H. C. Stock home, Mrs. H. C. Stock, Mrs. C. E. Beigle and Mrs. P. Dunn, and the Misses Alice Walker, Leta Walker, Ethel Shrum, Emma Jenkins, Georgia Coffee, Gladys Applegate, Etha Abbott, June McFadden, Helene Beide, Gertrude Beide and Elsie Alexander.

Miss Beigle entertained her guests at four tables of "Bunco," a game full of fun and amusement. Prizes were given to high and low scores and were won by Miss Alice Walker and Miss June McFadden. The midnight supper table was beautiful with a huge bowl of pink wax lilies and individual favors were given each guest, which were pink wax lilies in the center of which were small pink candles.

Past Noble Grand Club

The Past Noble Grand Club of Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F. held its regular meeting July 22nd, in Lithia Park picnic grounds. There was a good attendance of members and visitors. At the business session, the club postponed the meeting for August. All enjoyed a happy afternoon. At 5 o'clock, a pot luck dinner was served with appropriate toasts and general good cheer, refreshed.

PHOENIX AND VICINITY

(By Mary O. Carey)
(Deferred From Last Week)
Nelson Brothers of East Eden are cutting their wheat this week with a binder. The old fashioned header is about a thing of the past. Instead we see the big tractor-binder.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bish of Chico, California, are in the valley visiting with relatives. They will spend about ten days. Mr. Bish is a brother of Mrs. Harry Barneburg of Medford and Mrs. Donald Anderson. Harry Barneburg and Mr. and Mrs. Bish visited Crater Lake and Klamath Falls this week.

Frank Wilbur former Phoenix resident, but now residing in Sacramento, California, visited old friends in Phoenix last week, among them the Fred Furry family.

Farmers in East Eden are cutting the second crop of alfalfa hay. Many who have water have fine crops.

Fred Bareburg went out to Dead Indian last Sunday to bring home his wife and son Kenith, who have been rusticated out there the past ten days.

Miss Beredene Young of Phoenix, took a position with the Snyder Dairy Company Monday of this week. Miss Young is a student of the Medford business college and is very competent.

Mr. Lawrence Crawford and family of Talent were visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. B. N. French of Phoenix last Sunday.

Most of the gardeners of this precinct are digging their potato crop while the price is at its height. This winter we can buy the shipped-in product and still pay high prices.

C. Carey is furnishing the larger field growers with their late cabbage plants. Many are raising for the canneries.

Miss Irene Standley of Phoenix has taken a position in Manns Department Store in Medford as assistant bookkeeper. Miss Irene is a student of the Medford business college.

Mrs. R. E. Dale of Phoenix who was attending the Apostolic Faith camp meetings in Portland, was compelled to return to her home, on account of having a number of rabbits which must be cared for.

Mrs. Clarence Holmes and baby daughter returned to her fathers home in Talent one night this week, and remained over night.

Louie and Lloyd Colver of Phoenix started the header this week. They each have a number of acres to cut of their own.

Arthur Furry is layed up with rheumatism, he has been compelled to use crutches in the past two weeks.

Harry Morrison is running both his threshing and binding machine full time this week. Mr. Morrison has about all the threshing between Phoenix and Talent this season.

Mrs. Yoman of East Eden was calling on friends Friday and said she was looking over some properties in Medford, with a view of buying and moving into town to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Easter of Los Angeles, California, who have been visiting relatives in Missouri, stopped in Phoenix last week to visit with the families of G. C. McClain, A. H. Houston and J. E. Roberts. The Easter's left the last of the week for the southern city.

Mrs. Noah Chandler spent last Tuesday in Fern Valley visiting with Mrs. Hayman and daughter, Miss Bertha.

It is gratifying to the many owners of land under the Talent high line ditch to see the work start on the big viaduct which will furnish the water next year, when Applegate water users take the water from the Wagner creek ditch. Many have planted in these sections only to run short of water in the dry part of the season.

Beef cattle that are good and fat are getting scarce and our local meat market is scouring the country for fat young beef and also fat hogs. It would be a mighty good side issue for the dairymen to raise hogs and feed their skim milk to them.

The Phoenix new school house looks very imposing and is a great drawing card for new residents in the fall, when they wish to stop for the winter, and have the benefit of good schools. We hope it all attracts some of them to become permanent residents of the town.
