dead-broke in London, plot to marry "Tip Toes" their pretty dancing partner to young Lord William and his fortune under pretense that she is their wealthy niece. When his Lordship discovers their perfidy and arrest threatens "Tip-Toes", who has fallen in love with him, manages to convince him of the sincerity of her love—which change everything. How she dances them all out of jail and into a happy home forms a surprise finish to a lively story. "Tip-Toes" comes to the Vining theatre next Sunday, with Dorothy Gish in the starring role.
