

Golf Breakfast

At 8 o'clock this morning a group of friends met at the Lithia Springs hotel in response to an invitation to breakfast from Mrs. O. A. Paulserud and Mrs. C. J. Read. Breakfast was served to sixteen guests, immediately following which the ladies drove to the golf links for an early morning game of golf. Score cards were arranged and Mrs. Backus bringing in the lowest score received a prize.

Mrs. Russell Cripe received the consolation prize.

Mrs. Paulserud and Mrs. Read will be hostesses again on Saturday to a group of ladies at bridge at the home of Mrs. Paulserud on Oak street.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for the most beautiful floral offering and tribute paid at the recent death of our wife and mother.

CHANGE IN STORE

the streets that now house the Lithia Springs Hotel and Citizens bank had just been opened by the late H. G. Enders, and many other interesting early views of Ashland. An Elk's paper, with its pages yellow, was unearthed in a bottom drawer along with a program of a home talent show, and a most interesting booklet on the shale oil industry were two other interesting "heirlooms" that the Register editor was given, because he happened to appear during this ceremony.

John, has been connected with the store for several years, and is entirely conversant with the needs of Ashland's buying public, and will conduct the store along the same progressive constructive lines that have made it an outstanding one in Southern Oregon.

MANY PIONEERS

likened them in their struggles and trials to the Children of Israel who in their forty years of wanderings still held fast to their faith and ideals. These brave pioneers who completed the hard tasks and arduous journeys were giants; they had to possess qualities of gigantic proportions in order to overcome the gigantic tasks.

Fidelity, integrity, and honesty were the outstanding characteristics of pioneer men and women.

In closing Mr. Gore plead with the sons and daughters to carry out the vision of their fathers and mothers.

Mr. Sumner Parker delighted the gathering with a violin solo and responded with "Till we Meet Again." Mrs. Burdic accompanied him on the piano.

Quartette Sings

A quartette consisting of Messrs. McGee, McCoy, Dr. Burdic and Frost, rendered in their usual delightful manner "Juanita," and sang as an encore "I've been working on the railroad."

John Griffen, a native son, recited one of his poems written in honor of "Grandmas Lewis," 93rd birthday and continued on the celebration of her 94th birthday in Jacksonville. Mrs. Lewis is the mother of George Lewis, Sheriff of Josephine County. After these numbers the pioneers, sons and daughters adjourned to the Civic Improvement Club House where the tables fairly groaned beneath the banquet that was spread thereon and to which nearly two hundred people did justice.

After dinner, Irving E. Vining paid fine tribute to the pioneers who have passed away since the last meeting.

The obituaries of the following were read:

Mrs. Kate Howell, who crossed the plains in 1852.

Mrs. Nancy E. Applegate, also came to Oregon in 1852.

Lucian B. Applegate among the last to cross the plain.

Margaret Hutcheson Applegate, who came by way of the Isthmus and landed in Crescent City in 1870.

Sarah Elizabeth Patterson, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Payne, wife of Sylvester Patterson, and a native daughter.

William T. Herrin, born in Jackson county in 1854. Mr. Herrin was a pioneer and member of the society. He was vice president and general counselor for the Southern Pacific Company in San Francisco, California for many years.

Mrs. Sarah Van Dyke who came to Oregon as a bride in 1862.

Mrs. Elizabeth Clippie who came across the plains also in 1862. All these brave and worthy pioneers have crossed "The great " very novel and exciting one no other have ever experienced. The Indians attacked them several times but were driven away by the bravery of the men in the company.

Mrs. Payne with her husband settled on a donation claim in Linn County near Harrisburg. They came to Ashland in 1866.

This annual reunion has proved to be a very enjoyable one, and

To Purchase Book

It was voted to purchase a book in which to keep the records of the native sons and daughters.

Mr. William Bybee of Jacksonville was elected president for the coming year, and Mrs. Alice Hanley also of Jacksonville was elected vice president of the society.

The oldest member present was Mr. Knighting who is 93 years of age. Mr. Knighting was one of the first settlers in Rogue River valley.

Mrs. Elizabeth Payne of Ashland ran him a close second, being in her 93rd year.

Mrs. Granger was also among the oldest of the pioneers being 99 years of age.

Mrs. Hudson of Jacksonville 84 years old is the only living pioneer of 1848.

Mr. J. B. Griffen came from the farthest away. His home is in Trinity, Humboldt county, California.

Mr. Griffen and Mr. Herrin were boyhood pals and schoolmates.

Mr. Griffen says that he bears the distinction of being renowned as the mightiest hunter in Jackson county, and a bear hunter at that. He was born in Jacksonville in 1853 and his father's family was the seventh to arrive in the valley.

Mr. Isaac Skeeters was born in Jacksonville in 1864. He has a farm near Talent. Mr. Skeeters says that his father was one of the bunch of men who discovered Crater Lake.

Mrs. Elizabeth Payne came over the plains by ox team in 1852. Mrs. Payne says that this was her honeymoon trip and certainly a
