Preparations are going forward for the annual student reception, given in honor of the faculty and student body of the Southern Oregon Normal at the auditorium of the school building next Friday evening, October 14th. There will be a program of music and dancing, with refreshments during the course of the evening's entertainment. Miss Helen Anderson, dean of women at the college, is acting chairman in charge of plans and preparations for the reception.

Miss Coffee and Miss Applegate Hostesses

Miss Georgia Coffee and Miss Gladys Applegate entertained the members of the Auxillary to Trinity Guild Wednesday evening. The guests assembled at the Parish House at 8 o'clock and seven tables were arranged for the playing of bridge. This was the initial social gathering of the Auxillary for this year, and a most congenial evening was spent. Love prizes were given by the hostesses for winning scores, and were won by Mrs. John Enders and Miss Kathline Silver. After the close of the games, small supper tables were prepared for serving very tempting refreshments. Miss Marjorie Gillette of San Francisco was an out-of-town guest.

Rummage Sale Success

The rummage sale which was sponsored by the ladies of the Civic club, was held at the Civic clubhouse Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, and was very much of a success. Many articles of clothing and all kinds of wearing apparel were brought to the clubhouse and for a small sum, was purchased by someone who could make good use of it. This is an annual event, and this year's success was due to the civic club ladies, under the direction of Mrs. George A. Briscoe, club president.

On Friday evening, Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Murphy were host and hostess to over thirty young people, at their home on B street, when they held a reception for the young people of the Full Gospel church, with invited guests from the normal school and high school.
