

Rebekah Lodge Members Have Social Time

Hope Rebekah Lodge met in regular session Tuesday evening, October 25th. After the business of the evening had been disposed of a pleasant social time was enjoyed by the members present. Cards and games were indulged in until a late hour. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening by the following committee: Mrs. Belle Schwein, Mrs. Louise Perozzi, Miss Mary Sloan Mrs. Dorothy Specht, Mrs. Belle Songer, Miss Mollie Songer, Mrs. Edith Storey, Mrs. Ellen Smith, Mrs. Schoeniger, and Mrs. George Trefren.

W. C. T. U. Meet

A very interesting meeting of the W. C. T. U. occurred Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Luella Stearns on Pine street. A splendid program was presented. Mr. Ralph Billings spoke on "Women's Jury Duty." Mrs. Mary Wilshire gave two delightful readings and several instructive short articles were read during the afternoon.

A large attendance was present, also a number of visitors.

Boys Entertain

Elliott MacCracken and Foss Kramer were the gracious hosts Monday evening at the MacCracken residence on Hargadine street, when they served a splendid duck dinner (with all the trimmings) to a group of friends. The following young people enjoyed the hospitality of the two young men: The Misses Lucille Hunter, Helen Lyons, Nell Mahoney, Katherine Langworthy, Mrs. Norma Reeder, Messrs. Don Smith and Donald Hinthorne.

Mrs. Norma Reeder acted as chaperon and after dinner several hours were enjoyably spent in music and conversation.

The Delphians Meet For Class Work

The two groups of the Delphian Society met for regular class work Tuesday afternoon, October 25th. Dr. Mattie Shaw's group met with Mrs. A. H. Pracht on Vista street; Mrs. Redford's group met at the home of Mrs. Frank Dean on Hillcrest street.

The subjects of the afternoon were taken up by the following ladies of the two groups: "Old Comedy" Mrs. Harry Yeo and Mrs. J. H. Hardy. "The Birds"; Mrs. Caldwell and Mrs. J. V. Miller. "Middle and New Comedy" Mrs. S. A. Peters Jr., and Mrs. D. Perozzi. "Character of New Comedy" Mrs. Gerald Wenner and Mrs. A. H. Pracht. A synopsis of "The Brothers" Mrs. Gerald Wenner and Mrs. Swedenburg. "Contrast between Aristophanes and Menander", Mrs. Lou Hansen, Discussion of "The Brothers" Mrs. Dom Provost and Mrs. Paulserud. Review of "Oedipus the King" Mrs. Marsh Wagner.

The afternoon's work proved successfully instructive and revealed the difference between High and Low Comedy, Satire and Pathos, Wit and Humor. The next meeting of the Delphian Society will be on Tuesday November the eighth. This will also be a group meeting.

Mrs. H. H. Gillette Entertains Eleven O'Clock Club

The Eleven O'clock Club met Wednesday evening at the pleasant home of Mr. H. H. Gillette on Gresham Street.

There were three tables of bridge in play during the evening.

Attention Mr. Car Buyer
Come in and look over our stock of GOOD USED CARS.
Want to reduce our stock, so have
PRICED THEM ACCORDINGLY
You can't help being interested.
EAKIN MOTOR CO.
Dodge Dealer
16 So. Fir Medford

ing. Mrs. McRae was the winner of the first prize and Mrs. Merrill received the consolation.

The ladies who enjoyed Mrs. Gillette's hospitality were: Mesdames O. W. Long, Walter Bevington, G. E. Hedberg, Shutts, Dyrud, Merrill, McRae, Dewey Sackett, H. L. Carter, C. I. J. Porter and T. H. Sanford.

Ashland Study Club has Reunion

Mrs. Otto Winter entertained Wednesday evening October the 26th in honor of Mrs. E. L. Creeks of Gerber, California, who is visiting friends in this city for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Creeks resided in this city about eight years ago. The members of the old Ashland Study Club of which Mrs. Creeks was an active member were the guests of Mrs. Winter.

Miss Blanche Hicks organized this club in 1912. During the evening the guests enjoyed reminiscences of the days when the club was in its infancy, its heyday of activity, and later on the gradual disbandment about the time of the World's War.

This party was a happy reunion between old friends and fellow students. The decorations were on the Hallow'en order and the refreshments that were served by the hostess later on in the evening further carried out the Hallow'en scheme. Mrs. Winter's guests were the guest of honor Mrs. E. L. Creeks, Miss Blanche Hicks, mesdames Robertson, Williamson, August Schuerman, William Myer, George Kramer, E. D. Briggs, James McNair, and Belle Schwein.

Camp Fire Girls

Friday, October 28 at 7:30, the Camp Fire Girls of Ashland will give a Mother Day Party. This will be the third of these annual parties.

The following program will be given to entertain the parents and friends present:

Welcome address, Mr. Briscoe. Sponsors represented by Mr. Pemberton.

Parents represented by Mrs. Bateman.

Guardian represented by Miss Waters.

Camp Fire Girls represented by Beth Joy.

Reading by a High School Camp Fire Girl.

Stunts.

Original play by Carrol Clark given by Camp Tula-hilus.

Witch Dance, welcome song, Miss McLeod's Group.

Tragedy of the Family Plate by Camp Gatusi and Junior High's new group.

Upsetting Exercises, Tems Kwah ta wah by camp Flemshuatawak.

High school troops will give stunts.

Mixing game.

Songs by Camp Fire Girls.

Games.
Refreshments.

Entertains at Medford

Dr. and Mrs. Conroy of Medford entertained at their beautiful country home Sunday in honor of Mrs. S. V. Cary of Seattle, Wash. and Mrs. Daisy McGarry, of Ashland, with a three o'clock dinner. Mrs. Cary is a sister-in-law of Mrs. McGarry. After dinner a delightful ride through the country was enjoyed.

Mr. Collins of Salem was in Pinehurst Tuesday interviewing the members of the school board in regards to playground apparatus.

Rough Riders

Continued From Page 1
Berry, George Bancroft and Fred Kohler. And they saw Frank Hopper, the image of Roosevelt and Col. Fred Lindsay as Leonard Wood. All of them appear in the production which reaches the Vining Theater Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Aunt Dies.

(Continued From Page 1)
Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Services will be in charge of Alpha Chapter O. E. S. of which she was a member. Interment will be made in the Mausoleum at Mountain View Cemetery.

HIGH SCHOOL

(Continued from page 1)
Cripe told the students that he

NOTICE
Just received a full line of Harriet Hubbard Ayers
TOILETRIES
Ask for free Samples of Powder, Creams and Lotions
M'NAIR BROS.
The Rexall Store

Just Arrived!
New Metallic Hats
In Satins and Velvets
At Medium Prices
Wineland Millinery
in
Lithia Springs Hotel

REACH OUT With Sparton
Wonderfully selective, Sparton amazes even seasoned radio fans with its clear, true tone under all ordinary conditions. With Sparton you can concentrate on the station you want.
Visit Our Display Room and Get a New Radio Thrill
SPARTON RADIO
"THE PATHFINDER OF THE AIR"
Ashland Electric Supply

was very well satisfied with the game and with the support the boys received. However, he urged that all boys who were not playing in the game or helping with it, be loyal enough to at least come and support the team.
Mr. Forsythe announced that Mr. H. B. Carter had promised thirty quarts of milk to the family of the boy who made the first touchdown. The lucky boy, although he did not know what he was earning at the time, was Hod Dunn.
Miss Dwyer, lower English teacher, has been holding play trials for the last three days. There are a great many girls trying out for the six womens parts. There are twelve parts for boys and not so many boys trying out however, the prospects for a good caste are excellent.

The student body election of yell and song leaders resulted in the election of Lee Boyd as Yell Leader and Letha Miles as Song Leader. The election was held the first two periods Wednesday morning, in the assembly room. Ray Abbott, Ned Mars and Letha Miles were tellers.
The Senior class held a meeting Tuesday noon for the purpose of deciding on dues and a method for raising money. Everett Mc-

VINING
"The Theatre Beautiful"
Watch This Space For Coming Attractions Each Issue
SATURDAY ONLY
"DEVILS SADDLES"
SUNDAY
"ADAM AND EVIL"
Featuring Lew Cody and Aileen Pringles. It's the comedy hit of the season
MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY
"THE ROUGH RIDERS"
A Mans picture that woman will love

POTATOES ARE NOW SELLING AT HARDY BROS.
IN THE PAST WEEK WE HAVE TAKEN ORDERS FOR PRACTICALLY ALL OF OUR FIRST CAR. WE BOUGHT THE SECOND BUT IT COST US MORE MONEY. WE BELIEVE NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY. GUARANTEED NO. 1'S AND FREE FROM WIRE WORMS.
SEE SAMPLE IN OUR WINDOWS
ANOTHER DAY OF THOSE
5-SEW FINE STRAW BROOMS
SPECIAL AT, EACT 59c
SPECIAL ON HATU PEAS
UNGRADED BUT ALL SOFT PEAS
AT 2 CANS FOR 25c
AMAIZO CORN OR GLOSS STARCH
3 PACKAGES FOR 25c
DON'T FORGET "HARDY BROS. SPECIAL COFFEE, NO ADVANCE
PER LB. 50c
TRINITY GUILD FOOD SALE SATURDAY
YOU WILL NOT BE SORRY YOU TRIED
Hardy Brothers

Kewpie Twin Shoes for Children
New smart models of soft, pliant yet durable leather in tan combinations and all black. Every pair of Kewpie Twin Shoes are guaranteed to give satisfaction. They are all made in combination lasts which insures perfect fit and comfort.
NEW ARRIVALS IN LADIES STRAP SLIPPERS
Patent leather and Black Satin one strap slippers will be the mode in evening footwear this winter. We have just received some beautiful new numbers at $7.50 and $8.00.
VALUES AT OUR CLOSING OUT SALE OF PIECE GOODS
On Saturday you will find many more exceptional and unusual values at our closing out sale of piece goods. Now is the time to supply your future needs as this merchandise is going fast. With the price of cotton materials steadily advancing the savings at this sale will never be equaled again.
UNUSUAL VALUES FROM OUR OCTOBER COAT SALE
It will be to your advantage to come in and see the exceptional values in Ladies Coats on Saturday. The quality of these garments and the prices cannot be equaled anywhere and the coats will not last long.
McGee's DRY GOODS
WOMEN'S WEAR AND DRY GOODS
142 EAST MAIN ST. ASHLAND, ORE.
Saturday is S & H Red Letter Day
10 STAMPS FREE
The last Saturday in each month is Red Letter Day and each customer who calls and asks for them may receive ten free Stamps without any required purchase