Mrs. Holloway Honored at Tea
Mrs. Stanley Robinette and Miss Victoria Tavenor presided over an afternoon tea Wednesday at 4 o'clock. The guest of honor was Mrs. Alice Holloway, of Medford who is county chairman, in charge of Christmas seals for the National Tubercular Association. Miss Holloway explained her plan for the distribution and sale of Christmas seals, which will begin the day following Thanksgiving, and Miss Tavenor will be in charge of the sale in Ashland and adjoining communities. Miss Tavenor presided most graciously over the tea table, and Mrs. Robinette assisted the guests to lovely tea biscuits, sandwiches and cakes. A company of ladies and gentlemen accepted the hospitality of the two hostesses.

Mrs. Swendenburg Hostess
Mrs. F. G. Swendenburg delightfully entertained the members of the Delphian Board, Wednesday afternoon at her handsome residence on the Boulevard. A social afternoon was enjoyed by the ladies and plans were discussed and laid for the coming year. After the business of the club had been taken care of the hostess served dainty refreshments to the following ladies: Mesdames A. H. Pracht, G. H. Yeo, V. V. Mills, Walter Redford, John Fuller, and Dr. Mattie Shaw. Mrs. Swendenburg is the local supervisor of the Delphians in Ashland.

Trinity Guild Card Party
The ladies of the Trinity Guild held a card party Thursday afternoon at the Parish House. Hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames E. Cliff Payne, C. W. Hanson, and G. H. Hedberg. Bridge, "500" and Needlework constituted the afternoon's amusement. The first prize in bridge was awarded to Mrs. Sylvan Provost and the consolation to Mrs. Donald Whitney.

Mrs. Hersey was the fortunate winner of the first prize in "500" and Mrs. Mary Wilshire was the lady consoled. After the games the hostesses served the guests and members with delicious refreshments.

Delphian Society
The two groups of the Delphian Society are holding their first chapter meeting of the season this afternoon in the ball room of the Luthia Springs Hotel. At this time a new president will be elected, to fill the vacant office left by Mrs. Herbert McCarthy who recently removed from this city to Dunsmuir, California. The following program will be carried out by the members of the order: Decline of the Roman Drama, Mrs. George Briscoe; Growth of Liturgical Plays, Mrs. Frank Dean; Mrs. D. Peruzzi who has witnessed the Passion Play, will describe her impressions of this wonderful spectacular drama; Moralities will be expounded by Mrs. Emil Peil; Interludes will be given by Mrs. Edwin Dunn; Folk Drama by Mrs. Walter Maxey, Early Italian Drama, Mrs. J. H. Hardy, The Commedia dell'Arte Mrs. J. V. Miller, and Mrs. S. A. Peters, Jr. will give a review of the book, Zeldia Marsh, by Charles G. Morris.

Daughter of Revolution
The Daughters of the American

Revolution of the Mount Ashland Chapter, held their November meeting Friday afternoon at the spacious home of Mrs. H. A. Stearns on Oak Street. Mesdames Gardner and Hansen were the assisting hostesses for the afternoon. The Chapter Regent Mrs. Harriet Fielding presided.

After the disposition of the routine business, Miss Immogene Wallace delighted the Chapter with a resume of Patriotic music from the pre-revolutionary times to the late war. The history was charmingly interspersed with selections of music illustrative of her theme. The predominant feature of the afternoon was the visit of the State Regent, Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, who brought the inspiring message gained through her attendance at the 36th Continental Congress. Mrs. MacCracken also outlined her work as State Regent in visiting other Chapters, and applauded the work of Oregon in being one of the successful competitors for the prize in the matter of magazine subscriptions.

At the close of her interesting address, the hostesses served most satisfying refreshments, and the meeting adjourned through the holiday season to meet again on January 20th with Mrs. E. V. Carter.

Birthday Party.
Last Friday evening, Miss Albert House and Miss Martha Huntley entertained at a party at the home of Mrs. Pine on B street in honor of Lloyd Hatch, who was celebrating his twentieth birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in making candy, playing on the Victrola and with various contests and games. A delicious supper was served at 11:30. Those present were Dorothy Bridge, Bernice McCormick, Sylvora Hach, Martha Huntley.

Campfire Girls Meet.
Last Friday evening a group of Campfire girls of whom Miss Waters is the guardian, met at the cabin on Terrace street for a ceremonial. The council fires burned brightly in the form of beautiful candles. Medra Bartlett having made the clever candle holders. Several girls took rank, earning bracelets and beads. Miss Waters and Miss Berg had charge of the event.

Mrs. Henry Enders Hostess.
A congenial group of friends accepted the delightful hospitality of Mrs. Henry Enders last Saturday evening at her home on north Main street. Mrs. Enders had arranged five tables where the ladies spent the evening playing bridge, after which table prizes were given for high score at each table. A color scheme in pastel shades was worked out, and the prizes also carried out the pastel color scheme. They were long wax tapers, each in a different color and were won by Mrs.

Harry Tomlinson, Mrs. Elwood Hedberg, Mrs. Hal McNair, Mrs. R. L. Burdick and Mrs. C. J. Read. Turkey score cards carried out the Thanksgiving idea and beautiful yellow and bronze chrysanthemums adorned the living rooms. Refreshments were served before the guests took their departure, the guests being Mrs. Herschel Claycomb, Mrs. P. R. Hardy, Mrs. J. H. Hardy, Mrs. Elwood Hedberg, Mrs. Clyde Young, Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Jr., Mrs. Hal McNair, Mrs. Earl Crow, Mrs. O. A. Paulserud, Mrs. Dom Provost, Mrs. Gerald Wenner, Mrs. Clyde Malone, Mrs. V. V. Mills, Mrs. A. J. McCallen, Mrs. Stanley Robinette, Mrs. F. G. Swendenburg, Mrs. Charles Haines, Mrs. Sylvan Provost, Mrs. Harry Tomlinson and Mrs. C. J. Read.

Mrs. George Rose and daughter, Virginia, left Sunday for their home in Crescent Lake, Virginia, will return to Ashland within a few days to resume her school work. She is staying with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sanford on Allison street this winter and attending the Ashland high school.
