

EXPULSION OF MIDSHIPMEN

Annapolis, Md.—Charged with being intoxicated on the streets of Annapolis two midshipmen, one a member of the graduating class at the Naval Academy, and the other of the class just below it, were dismissed from the Academy recently.

KILLS BROTHER

Cincinnati.—Accusing his brother Joe of having worried his father to death, Samuel Wise nursed for five years hatred against his brother. When they met in the office of the business their father established, Sam seized a bat and struck Joe twice. Not satisfied with this, he seized a revolver and shot him five times.

DEAF MUTE SEES CRIME

York, Pa.—For nine hours suffering the ridicule of his companions, Arthur Long, a deaf mute, tried to tell of seeing a hunter fire two shots into a girl's body and then end her life with the butt of a gun. Following finding of the body of Gertrude Rudy, 16, on the railroad tracks east of this city, detectives had Long to "tell" in a dramatic pantomime his eye-witness story of the murder.

CHAMPION

Galsburg, Ill.—Herold Holmes of Henry County won the Illinois corn picking championship from a field of fifteen county champions despite the fact that he had a boil on his hand which clasped the husking hook. He averaged 39 ears a minute.

STARVES; HAD $5,000

Jamesburg, N. J.—Although she had $5,000 deposited in a bank and was found to have more than $100 secreted about her clothing, Miss Frances Van Middlesworth, 70 died recently, her death due to weakness induced by lack of food.

FLOOD BURIED DYNAMITE

Burlington, Vt.—Ten tons of dynamite that floated down the Winooski Valley from Bolton during the recent flood have become a serious menace to life and property. Unless it happens to be buried deep enough grave danger exists that the pick of the reconstruction workers might cause an explosion or the plow of the farmer in the spring might also cause such a disaster.

HIRED MAN TO KILL WIFE

Milwaukee, Wis.—Alvin Greenwaldt, former bus driver and bootlegger confessed that he had paid R. A. Kelly, a bus driver, $500 to slay his wife, so that he could collect $20,000 insurance on her life. Both are being held, charged with murder.

CHURCH FLOOR COLLAPSES

Indianapolis.—When the floor of the Tabernacle Baptist church collapsed during cornerstone laying exercises, 200 people were thrown into the basement 25 feet below. Twenty-four people, all negroes, were injured.

NEW QUICK-TRIP RECORD

New York.—What is believed to have been a new quick trip record between Detroit and New York was made by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh recently when he flew from Selfridge Field, Mich., to Mitchell Field, L. I. a distance of about 500 miles in two hours and forty-three minutes.

METEOR FIRES BARN

Seranton, Pa.—The little village

Dr. Albert Parsons Sachs, of New York, whose complete survey of European oil fields for American interests will result in cheaper oil products there.

of Fairdale, Pa., was threatened with destruction recently when, during an electric storm a meteor, accompanied by a bolt of lightning set fire to the barn, granary and storehouse of Glen Cronk postmaster, and damaged sections of the concrete highway nearby where holes 12 to 14 feet in diameter were made in the road.

HUGE BREWERY

Detroit, Mich.—An underground brewery, whose plant occupied an entire city block of basements and most of the office buildings above and whose paraphernalia is valued at half a million dollars has been found by federal prohibition agents a few steps from Detroit's main street, Woodward Avenue. Quantities of beer and cases of whiskey were found.

Brownsville—Woolen mills re-open after shutdown of several months.
