Birthday Dinner

Little Miss Pauline McCoy entertained thirteen little friends at her home on Pine street, Thursday afternoon, the occasion being in celebration of her seventh birthday anniversary.

During the afternoon the little girl's played many interesting games, of various kinds. Miss Pauline was the recipient of a number of beautiful presents.

About three o'clock the little ladies were seated about a beautifully decorated table where dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Olin McCoy, Pauline's mother. The beautiful frosted and decorated cake with seven lighted candles was cut by the little hostess. At four o'clock the little ladies bade their charming hosts many happy returns of the day and departed for their homes having enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon.

Entertain Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dunn were the gracious host and hostess at their country home in the Bellview district, Thursday evening, December 29, when they entertained a group of friends. An elaborate dinner being served at six thirty o'clock at a perfectly appointed and beautifully decorated table to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peters Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Miller; Mr. and Mrs. Russel Cripe, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Burdick and Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Haines.

After dinner bridge was played till a late hour, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Cripe winning a handsome prize for holding high score; and Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Miller winning the consolation.

Entertains for Daughter

Mrs. Carol Pratt delightfully entertained with a four o'clock tea, on Christmas day at her spacious and comfortable home on North Main street, honoring her daughter Miss Alice Pratt who is attending the nurses' training school at the St. Frances hospital in San Francisco.

The guest list which included only the most intimate friends and old classmates of Alice were the following named: Misses Margaret McCoy, Elizabeth Stearns, Celia Rhinehart, Catherine Pittenger, Veeda Gideon, Lydia Smith, Emma Cook, Nellie Glenn, Bernice Carter and Frances Pratt.

Several hours were most pleasantly spent in conversation, renewing old friendships and in music. During the afternoon Mrs. Pratt served delicious salad, wafers and tea to the guests.

Delightful Party

Mr. and Mrs. John Beck gave a delightful Christmas party at their home on Second street on Christmas day.

Covers were laid for eight, at a table beautifully decorated in true Christmas fashion: A flaming centerpiece of poinsettias, clever place cards and glowing lighted candles. The sumptuous turkey dinner was served at six o'clock to the following: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Madden, Kenneth Madden, Helen and Fern Madden, Miss Lois Bell, Mrs. Colon, Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Mr. Elmer Trace, Albie and Irma Beck and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. John Beck.

After dinner the guests were entertained with music and games and Santa Claus arrived with a pack of presents which he distributed among the merry group.

Yeoman Dance Success

A very delightful dance was given at the Moose Hall, Tuesday evening under the auspices of the local order of Yeoman.

A large number of visitors from Medford and vicinity were present at this affair which was especially well attended.

The Yeoman six-piece orchestra furnished the music for the dancing, and a splendid cafeteria supper was served in the dining room late in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson Have Christmas Party

On Tuesday evening of this week, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tomlinson were host and hostess to a company of friends at a Christmas party. The Tomlinson home on Oak street was most attractive with Christmas decorations, a frosted Christmas tree and baskets of holly were arranged for the entertainment of the guests, after which a dainty lunch was served.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Haines Entertain

Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Haines entertained at a 6:30 dinner on Wednesday evening, having places marked for eight guests. The dinner table was beautiful with holly and lighted tapers, and a turkey dinner was served. The evening hours were spent playing bridge, the gentlemen being the opponents of the ladies. Total scores showed the ladies to be the winners.

Entertains At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Butler Walker entertained on Christmas day with an old-fashioned turkey dinner with all the fixings. Those present to help Mr. and Mrs. Walker make the Christmas day merry were: Mrs. Della Acklin, Everett Acklin, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kay, Barbara Kay, Marie Walker and Leta Walker. After dinner the evening hours were pleasantly spent in conversation, games and music.

Watch Party

A watch party is to be given on New Year eve at the parlors of the Methodist Episcopal Church, by the young people of the Epworth League and the Wesley Foundation.

The New Year will be ushered in with a musical program and games. Refreshments will be served shortly before eleven o'clock. The hour between eleven and twelve o'clock will be spent in a devotional way. All young people are invited to attend.

Auxiliary Meets

The Auxiliary to the Trinity Guild of the Episcopal church, held their regular meeting at the Parish House, Wednesday December 28.

At this time the new officers for the coming year were elected: President, Mrs. Stanley Robinette; vice-president, Georgie Coffee; secretary, Mrs. M. P. Dunn; treasurer, Mrs. Elwood Hedberg. After the business of the meeting, a social time was enjoyed by the members and dainty refreshments served later in the evening.

New Years Dance

The local order of B. P. O. E. will give their annual New Year's Ball in the Elks Temple. Dancing will begin promptly at 9 P. M.

At midnight a bountiful turkey banquet will be spread in the basement. In former years the Elks have made the affair strictly among members and their ladies, this year each Elk is privileged to invite a prospective member and his lady. Those who wish to invite a friend are urged to communicate with the supper committee. The affair promises to be the most brilliant staged in years.
