NEW LEAVES

In a few days begins the era of New Year's resolutions. Meanwhile, perhaps it would be well to examine carefully those which were adopted for 1927 to see how many have been carried out; how many partially carried out; how many entirely discarded.

The new semi-annual interest period which begins January 1, offers an inducement to those who mean to save regularly, and our practice of computing interest from the 1st of every month (rather than quarterly) on all deposits made before the 5th of the month is an inducement to keep up monthly deposits throughout the year. Why not, therefore include a First National savings account among your New Year's Resolutions? Then keep it active!
