

SOCIETY

Joint Installation
 Joint installation of the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges were held at Gold Hill Wednesday evening. A sumptuous banquet preceded the installation at which the following Ashland people were guests: Mr. and Mrs. Guy Randles, Mr. and Mrs. George Crapsey, Mr. and Mrs. George Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Payne, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Madden, Milton Nichols and George Eib.

Following installation, a social time was enjoyed by the large number present.

Woman Surprised on Birthday

A group of friends and relatives surprised Mrs. H. L. Taylor on the eve of her birthday anniversary, Tuesday, January 10, at her home on A street. A pleasant social evening was spent and elaborate refreshments brought by the guests were served to the following Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sams, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. George Scribner and Mrs. Amy Weedon.

Mrs. Taylor was also the recipient of a number of useful and dainty gifts.

Theta Delta Phi

Eleven members were admitted to the Theta Delta Phi men's honorary fraternity of the Southern Oregon Normal school at a recent meeting of the organization. The total membership is now eighteen.

Those making the scholastic requirement of ones and twos in fifteen hours of work last term are: Aubrey Haan, Ben Ellis, Kenneth Anderson, Lester Beck, Riley Pittener and Vernon Trimble. W. J. Roberts, C. J. Weaver, J. V. Starrett, Paul Master, and L. V. Kene made the required standing the summer school but are not in attendance at present.

Girls' Honorary

Theta Beta Phi the women's university sorority of the Normal school plans to initiate twenty-five new members into the organization next week. There are at present ten members in the organization.

The requirement for admittance in the sorority is a grade of one or two in fifteen hours of work carried. Those meeting this standard last term are: Dorothy Bollen, Leta Carroll, Vesta Coke, Mildred Culy, Eldora Damewood, Yvonne Devaney, Julia Aiken, Leona Fries, Genevieve Galloway, Marion Giddings, Mildred Gyger, Margaret Hammerbacher, Mary Agnes Hunt, Rita Lane, Helen Lyons, Muriel McCutcheon, Evelyn Mangold, Stella Morse, Marjory Penn, Irene Patrosck, Effie Quinn, Bonnie Scholas, Lucille Wilson, Mrs. Wetherall and Lucille Woodruff. The sorority plans to prepare an assembly program and to sponsor a student body mixer sometime during the quarter.

Black Bear Club Holds Initiation

Very interesting was the meeting of the "Black Bear Club" of the Pioneer boys of the Christian church which was held in the parlors of the Christian church, Monday evening, under the direction of Mr. Harold Teal, who is their leader. At this meeting which occurred at 7:30 o'clock four members were initiated into the club. Following the meeting, Mrs. J. V. Wright and Mrs. Sawyer mother of two of the members served delicious refreshments to the dozen boys assembled.

Wednesday Club Holds Meeting

A most delightful afternoon was that of Wednesday of this week, over which Mrs. Otto Winter and Mrs. A. C. Strange presided as joint hostesses for the ladies of the Wednesday club of the Presbyterian church at the residence of Mrs. Winter on the Boulevard.

Mrs. J. R. Robertson vice president of the society presided over the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Wilmer Poley. Plans were discussed and formulated for the church work for this year. Plans were made to give a colonial party in the parlors of the Presbyterian church on February 22, the public to be invited to attend, benefits derived from the affair to be used for the church. Following the business meeting a delightful afternoon was enjoyed, with enlivening games and music.

The hostesses served very dainty and unusual refreshments to the twenty-four ladies present. Very unique and attractive were the favors which were candle holders formed of life-savers and gumdrops with a tiny lighted candle in the center.

Local Ladies Attend Medford Installation

One of the most brilliant occasions recently held in Medford, was the installation of the officers of Reames Chapter No. 66 of the order of the Eastern Star, which occurred Wednesday night in the Masonic Temple. The hall was most beautifully and artistically decorated with poinsettias and ferns. The installing officer of the evening was Past Worthy Matron, Mrs. Nellie McGowan. The Worthy Matron installed was Mrs. Helen Minkler, a sister of Mrs. J. H. Turner of this city and a former resident of Ashland, where she resided for many years.

After installation, an interesting program was given, the outstanding number being three local solos by Mr. Stevens of Medford who is the possessor of a very fine voice.

Those in attendance from Ashland were, Mesdames Dewey Sackett, Hal McNair, J. H. Turner, Belle Schwein, Frank Crouch and Elsie Churchman.

Delightful Bridge Party

One of the most delightful affairs of the week occurred Monday evening when Miss Calla Beagel entertained a group of friends at her home on Morton street with an evening of Bridge.

Lovely gifts were presented Misses Frances Howard and Ethel Shrum for holding high and low scores of the evening.

A sumptuous supper was served at eleven o'clock at a table beautifully decorated with a centerpiece of waxed daffodils exquisitely arranged in a huge green bowl. The early spring idea was further carried out with waxed daffodil favors, place cards, napkins, and yellow tapers in green holders grazing either end of the tables.

Miss Beagel's guests were the following: Misses Gertrude Biede Gladys Applegate, Ethel Shrum, Elsie Alexanders, Emma Jenkins and Ruth Osmun of Ashland and Misses Mary Bebb, Alvina Boland Brownie Purdin, and Mrs. Hazel Bromley of Medford.

Elk Ladies Meet

A large number of Elk ladies attended the first Card party of the new year, Thursday afternoon, January 12, in the ladies' Club rooms at the Elk Temple.

Joint hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Harris Dean and Mrs. C. L. J. Porter, who served dainty refreshments to the members and visitors at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. J. Hughes held high score in Bridge for the afternoon, and Mrs. Clyde Costello received high score in Five-Hundred.
