Springtime Valentine Party. Pussywillows for spring and a profusion of hearts for St. Valentine, lent themselves most attractively to the Valentine party given last Tuesday evening at the Civic clubhouse by Mrs. B. B. Ballis, Mrs. J. V. Miller, Mrs. V. D. Miller, Mrs. S. A. Peters, Jr., Mrs. William Briggs and Mrs. Edwin Dunn.

About one hundred and seventy ladies were entertained, thirty-two tables of bridge having been arranged. Those who did not play cards, were entertained with games and needlework, and prizes were given to the ones who composed the most clever Valentine rhyme. Mrs. Bert Thomas received first prize in this contest and Mrs. Wilmer Poley received second prize. Prizes in bridge were won by Mrs. R. L. Burdick and Mrs. Louis Brown.

After the games, a delightful program was given. Miss Ruth Yoder, accompanied by Miss Weiss, played two violin numbers and Miss Regina Johnson sang two solos. Refreshments were most attractive, in pink and white, and the cakes were heart shaped. Maxine Miller, young daughter of Mrs. V. D. Miller, one of the hostesses, was adorable in a valentine costume, carrying a huge heart-shaped basket filled with candy hearts, which she passed during the refreshment hour. A basket of cut flowers and ferns was presented to Maxine, and to each of the other ladies on the program, Miss Yoder, Miss Weiss and Miss Johnson.

Mesdames Earl Gaddis, William Vawter, Jr., Frank Dillard and H. O. Frobach of Medford.

Past Presidents Entertain Guild.

Past presidents of the Trinity Guild of the local Episcopal church entertained the members of the club and a number of invited friends at the parish house on the afternoon of Thursday, February 2. Mesdames George Looney, Walter Bevington, G. H. Hedberg and Walter Maxey acting as hostesses for the occasion. Entertainment for the affair consisted in several delightful piano numbers furnished by Mrs. E. A. Woods and Mrs. Harry Harrison. The remainder of the afternoon was pleasantly passed in guessing contests, games and stunts. Mrs. Louis Brown winning a prize for the guessing contest and Mrs. E. A. Woods being consoled. Mrs. J. C. Poor won the first prize in another contest.

At a late hour the hostesses served a delicious two course luncheon to the members and guests.

Entertain at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hatch of Grand street entertained Prof. Andrew Landles and Mr. and Mrs. M. Roat at an informal dinner party Thursday night. Mr. Landles is the orchestra and choir leader at the Light House temple in Eugene and Mrs. Roat is the soloist. These two musical ans have been assisting at the revival meetings that are being held at the Full Gospel temple. Mr. Landles and Mr. and Mrs. Roat returned to Eugene today.

Interesting Meeting Held.

The Mission Study class of the Presbyterian church held a most interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. J. W. McCoy, an extra large attendance being present to enjoy the following program of the afternoon. Mrs. J. W. McCoy gave a splendid and instructive review of the 1st two chapters of the class book, the ladies are studying this year, "See For Yourself," by James E. Clark.

Mrs. Burns gave a comprehensive talk on the training of nurses and hospital work in Chicago. She spoke of the good work done by the nurses in the slum districts of that city, stressing the point that Christian nurses could do much to relieve suffering and want, as they encountered it in their work among the slums. She also stated that the pictures and stories regarding present conditions among the very poor of the big cities, have not been exaggerated.

Delphian Board Meeting.

The regular monthly board meeting of the local Delphian club convened Wednesday afternoon, February 1st at the residence of Dr. Mattie Shaw on Pioneer street.

After a short business meeting at which the president of the society, Mrs. John Fuller, presided the program of the afternoon was taken up. The Shakespearian play, "As You Like It" was studied, the different officers reciting the different character parts.

Late in the afternoon, the hostess, Dr. Shaw served dainty refreshments to the following ladies: Mesdames F. G. Swedenburg, A. H. Praet, G. H. Yeo and Walter Redford. After a short social hour the members departed having enjoyed both a pleasant and profitable afternoon.

The next Delphian group meeting will occur on February 14th, and the next chapter meeting will take place in the Lithia Springs hotel on February 28th. At this meeting each member will be privileged to invite a guest.

The different rooms in the Claycomb residence were artistically and beautifully decorated in red and white, the valentine motif being carried out in the table appointments and dainty refreshments that were served at a late hour by the hostess to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. John Enders, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tomlinson, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Enders, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Haines and Mr. and Mrs. J. Andrew McGee.

Foreign Missionary Society.

The Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carol Pratt on North Main street. Mrs. Pratt being assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Manley Brower.

The routine of business was conducted by Mrs. Fred Engle, who is president of the society. The subject of the afternoon was "The Broader Outlook" taken from the book being used for class study work.

"A Straight Way Toward Tomorrow," Mrs. J. W. McCoy of the Presbyterian church reviewed in a most interesting and capable manner the first chapter of the study book, which she gave at a recent meeting of the Presbyterian Foreign Missionary society. The members of the two societies are studying the same class book and often exchange numbers, appearing on the monthly programs at the different meetings.

Mrs. Pratt, assisted by Mrs. Brower, served delicious refreshments to the large number of ladies in attendance.

DeMoss Concert Pleases.

The musical concert given by the famous DeMoss family at the Christian church Wednesday evening, February 1st, proved a rare treat to the large crowd in attendance. The entire company of artists, numbering seven persons, appearing in special solo numbers, duets, trios, quartets and ensemble work, their first number being the famous "Hungarian Rhapsody" by Liszt in which the entire company displayed their mastery and versatility of harmony. The quartet in which banjos were used for the interpretation of southern plantation melodies was composed of George DeMoss, Aurelia DeMoss, Homer DeMoss and Henry DeMoss. This series of numbers was especially appealing in melody and tenderness. Miss Florence Smith demonstrated her ability as a skilled pianist, in the delicacy and wonderful technique she displayed in her rendition of the "Eleventh Rhapsody." She displayed to advantage her versatility, in pianology as serious, pathetic and humorous readings.
