Elks Fortnightly Dance—The third of the series of fortnightly dancing parties given under the auspices of the local Elks, is scheduled to take place on Thursday, February 15 at the Elks temple.

Under the management of William Briggs, exalted ruler of the local lodge and a large committee, these dancing parties given for the Elks and their ladies are rapidly gaining in popularity. A splendid eight piece orchestra, composed of brother Elks, under the capable direction of Ward V. Croft furnish the enlivening music for the affairs.

Plan Old-Time Dance—An apron and overall old-time dance is to be staged by the local Woman's Benefit association on Thursday, February 23 at the Moose hall, with Tucker's old-time orchestra scheduled to furnish the music for the occasion.

It is hoped that a good attendance will help make the affair a pleasant one, and the public is invited to attend.

Birthday Party Saturday—Mrs. Hubert Bentley entertained Saturday evening at her home on Beach street in honor of her husband's birthday. The early part of the evening was spent at the armory at the basketball game, after which the company assembled at the Bentley home where they played bridge until a late hour. Mrs. Bentley served at midnight, and had a beautiful birthday cake adorned with the required number of lighted candles. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the Bentley's were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Nate Simpkins and Mr. Ernest Maas.

Home Missionary Society Meets—Members of the Home Missionary society of the local M. E. church enjoyed a most interesting and profitable afternoon last Friday, February 10, at their regular monthly meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Lulu Howard on Graham street. The business session was presided over by Mrs. J. R. McCracken. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mollie Songer and the following interesting program rendered for the edification of the members: Song, "The Old Rugged Cross," was delightfully given by Mrs. Pemberton, assisted at the piano by Mrs. A. Madden. Mrs. Frank Bass had charge of the lesson, which was taken from the study book, "The Adventures of a Church," chapter five, "The World Adventure," being brought out. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. Jas. Yeo. Mrs. McCracken read "A Wise Investment" which was taken from the "Woman's Home Missionary."

After the program of the afternoon, Mrs. Howard assisted by Mrs. McCracken, who acted as joint hostess, served daintily arranged and wholesome refreshments to the ladies.

Card Party for Teachers—Mrs. E. M. Chilcote of Palm avenue delightfully entertained with an evening of bridge for the pleasure of a group of teachers, last Friday night, the valentine motif being carried out throughout the evening both in the decorations and refreshments, a dainty two course luncheon being served late in the evening by Mrs. Chilcote to the following guests. Misses Hazel Saunders, Hazel Smith, Caroline Radde, Laura Raguse, Ellen Waters, Wilson and Cason.

Hiked to Grizzly—Early on Saturday morning a group of Camp Fire girls and local school teachers left from the Ashland Hotel for a day's hike to Mount Grizzly where they stopped to enjoy the variety of good things the girls had taken along for lunch. After resting they returned to Ashland by way of Derky Falls, arriving home shortly after six o'clock. Those who enjoyed the pleasant hike were: Misses Ellen Waters, Irene Clark, Ethel McCormack, Mary Lancaster, Lillian Vanetti, Grace Coombe, Lucille Baswick, Lucille Carson, Floy Johnson, Norma Brower, Frances Philpott and Messrs. Culver Anderson, Emmerson Pratt and Mr. Allison.

Dinner Party at Kay Home—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kay entertained at a dinner party last Friday evening having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wender and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood. Dinner was served at 6:30, after which a congenial evening followed.

Golf Lessons by Ladies of Golf Club—The ladies of the Golf club who are interested in playing the game, are meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Homes, adjoining the golf course where they will meet the golf professional from Medford and arrange for lessons to be taken as the season progresses. The Ashland golf course is becoming very popular with the ladies of the club, more and more of them taking up the game. The fairways and greens are in good shape and the warmer weather suggests the out-of-doors.

Rebekahs Meet—Hope Rebekah lodge No. 14 of this city will meet this evening in regular session at the local Odd Fellows hall. After the business of the evening, a social time will be enjoyed by the members, dancing and cards furnishing the amusement. A supper will be served at 11 o'clock by the following refreshment committee: Mesdames Leah Caldwell, Charlotte Beagle, Laura Applewhite and Misses Helene Biede, Gertrude Biede, Georgie Coffee, Cora Baldwin and Mr. Charles Blake.

Lady Elk's Annual Card Party—George Washington's birthday anniversary is to be the inspiration for the annual card party which is scheduled for February 22 at the local Elk's temple, sponsored by the lady Elk of Ashland. Plans for the pleasant annual affair are well under way, the following committees having already been named. Table committee: Mesdames O. W. Long, and H. H. Gillette, while Mrs. Clyde Costello, president of the lady Elk's club and Mrs. Guy Cary, vice president will have charge of the refreshment committee, with the appointment of other committees who will oversee the decoration and other details, which will be revealed at a later date.

Bridge and five-hundred will be played during the evening. This is an annual affair given by the lady Elks to which the public is invited. Much attention is being given and elaborate plans are being made to insure the success of the affair.

Surprise Party Given—A jolly surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Kennedy at their home south of Ashland Saturday night, when a congenial group of friends and neighbors gathered there.

The evening hours were pleasantly spent with dancing and games. Delicious refreshments being served at midnight.

Those present who enjoyed the delightful affair were: Mr. and Mrs. R. Kennedy and children, George, Raymond and Etta. Mrs. J. MacNerney, Dennis and Jack MacNerney, Miss Hazel Hopkins, G. W. Powell and William and Frank Ritchson.

Entertain With Sunday Dinner—Mr. and Mrs. Sam McNair delightfully entertained with a turkey dinner Sunday at 3:30 o'clock at their pleasant home on Scenic Drive, having as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Nate Bates, Hugh Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Hal McNair and son Jamie, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rose.

After dinner the evening hours were spent in conversation and listening to the radio concert.

Alpha Club Meets—The Alpha club of the local order of O. E. S. met this afternoon at the Masonic hall in their regular semi-monthly meeting.

Mrs. F. F. Whittle had charge of the social hour and the hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. Leah Caldwell and Mrs. August Schuerman.

A pleasant time was enjoyed by the large attendance of ladies present, the hostesses serving delicious refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Alpha Tauri's Meet—The Alpha Tauri dramatic society of the normal school held their regular meeting Monday evening at the SONS auditorium. At this time plans were made to put on a play Friday morning at the SONS auditorium, during assembly period. The play to be presented will be: "Makers of Dreams," with Margaret Turner as "Pierette," Gordon MacCracken as "Pierot," and Elizabeth Morse as "Manufacturer of Dreams." The play is being directed by Fay Arthur, president of the society, and it is being given in connection with National Drama Week.

It was also decided to present three one-act plays this term for the public, the main idea being the desire to find out what the public desires by presenting different types of plays, the three plays being under way are: "Suppressed Desires," a comedy, "Two Crooks and a Lady," a melodrama, and "The Wonder Hat," a phantasy.

Several plays are also under consideration for the annual home-coming to be held in the normal school the latter part of June.

Qualifications for membership in this interesting and instructive dramatic society are: The applicant must have been a student for six months, and is required to try out before officers and advisors of the club. Tryout for membership will be held some time next week.

Masonic Dancing Club Organized—The members of the Alpha club of the Order of Eastern Star are sponsoring a series of Masonic dances to be given in the Masonic hall, beginning with a dance on the evening of February 28, and continuing for six dances to be given before the summer months. A committee meeting was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. S. A. Peters Jr. at which were present Mrs. R. L. Burdic Jr., Mrs. John Enders, Mrs. J. H. Hardy, Mrs. V. D. Miller, Mrs. C. H. Vaupel, Mrs. C. I. J. Porter, Mrs. P. R. Hardy, and Mrs. Edwin Berg.

The committee announced this morning that all Masons and members of the Eastern Star are eligible to attend and if there are strangers in Ashland who are members of either lodge they are urged to come to the dances. Provost's orchestra will furnish music for the dances.

Forest Grove—Carnation Lumber company rushes work on new electric sawmill.

Newport—Contracts let on city water system.

YOUR HOME

SPECIAL ENTERTAINMENT

During each evening of this week a special program has been arranged. Details of this program will be announced later, but it is now known that only Ashland people will provide the entertainment.

This feature alone will be well worth your while, so if impossible for you to attend the main exposition hall in the day time, plan to come in the evening.

OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

For the special benefit of the men who are unable to leave their work during the day time, the main exposition hall will be open in the evening. This will give ample opportunity for every one in Ashland to really see and know just what is produced in and around your own home. There will be an attendant at all times, and it is your privilege to ask as many questions as you desire.
