

Locals

Visits in Texas.—J. J. Skinner, of the investment department of the California Oregon Power company left Sunday morning, February 26 on a trip to southern California and Texas. A. E. Pederson, of the accounting department, accompanied him as far as Los Angeles. Mr. Skinner is going to visit his old home in Texas, and will be gone for nearly four weeks. He is expecting to return about the 25th of March. He has not been back to his old home in Texas for 25 years, and is looking forward with much pleasure to seeing his relatives, friends and old acquaintances.

—Pure Drugs, Addis Drug Store.

Visits Secretary.—E. E. Dent, traveling auditor for the Federal Lank bank at Spokane, made his annual visit to Ashland today calling upon F. L. Nutter, secretary of the local association. While here, he is in company with Mr. Nutter visited the Products exposition and was amazed at the variety of products produced in Ashland.

—Trinity Guild Food sale at Hardy Brothers Grocery, Saturday.

Enjoy Birthday.—Several friends gathered at the home of W. H. Worthington of Laurel street, February 22, to assist in the celebration of his birthday. His birthday occurring on George Washington's birthday anniversary, the affair was in keeping with the national holiday, cherries, hatchets and flags being used both in the decorations and in the refreshments. The crowning event of the afternoon occurring when the beautiful birthday cake covered with candy cherries was placed upon the table, a lovely luncheon was served to the following: Mr. Worthington for whom the affair was planned, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wirtz, Mr. and Mrs. William Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. Janditahl, Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Pemberton, Miss Nellie Ewan and Miss Bertha Pease. Several social hours followed the luncheon, with music and conversation furnishing the evening's pleasure. At a late hour the guests departed wishing Mr. Worthington many more happy birthdays.

Business Trip.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Everton of Allison street, left Wednesday evening for Portland where they will spend several days on business.

Talent Men.—J. W. Fish of Talent was attending to business in Ashland Thursday.

—Kiwani's "Womanless Wedding" March 12 and 13. Save these dates for a big laugh. 83tf

—Try our Thermoid Brake Lining at THIRD STREET GARAGE.

Dorris People Visit.—Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Briner of Dorris are spending a few days in this city visiting friends and attending to business matters. Mr. and Mrs. Briner formerly resided on a farm in the Neil creek district.

O. S. C. Student Visits.—Charles Tilton, who is a student at the Oregon State college, spent the week-end in Ashland with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Tilton on Almond street.

Normal Students Return.—The following normal students returned last Sunday evening to Ashland from Klamath Falls where they spent the week-end with their parents: Nadine Brearcliffe, Velma Cox, Elvira Call, Hillis McCall, Annie Crossman, Mary Hunt and Mildred Rideout.

Visit in Grants Pass.—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Mayberry and family spent Sunday in Grants Pass visiting friends.

Klamath Visitors.—Foss Kramer and Dorothy Chappel spent the week-end in Klamath Falls with friends, returning to their home in this city late Sunday evening.

From Klamath.—Robert Elliott and Gerald West of Klamath Falls spent Sunday in Ashland visiting relatives.

Visits Mother.—Leslie Heer, who is employe in Butte Falls, spent the week-end in this city visiting his mother, Mrs. Bertha Heer on Church street.

Spent Week-end.—Lawrence Wagner spent the week-end in this city visiting his parents. Mr. Wagner is a student at the University of Oregon.

Return from North.—Mrs. Frank Dickey returned Sunday evening on the train from Portland and other cities in the northern part of the state where she has been spending a few days with friends.

Portland on Business.—Mayor J. Edward Thornton and Attorney William Briggs left Sunday for Portland where they will spend several days on business.

Dunsmuir Man Visits.—C. J. Wallace, traveling auditor for the Southern Pacific company, who resides in Dunsmuir, was an Ashland visitor the latter part of the week.

—Nothing nicer—a new portrait for Easter. Studio Ashland 84tf

Looking for Location.—J. C. Whittaker, who recently sold out his grocery store in Klamath Falls is in Ashland with the intention of investigating Ashland and vicinity with the purpose of locating in the near future. Mr. Whittaker and his family were residents of Ashland several years ago and express much pleasure that they may be able to enjoy the benefits of the Ashland climate again.

Visits in San Francisco.—Audrey Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown of this city spent the week-end in Oakland and San Francisco with friends and relatives.

To Visit California.—Misses Pearl Wardle and Delphine Sackett left Saturday on a combined business and pleasure trip to Sacramento and Stockton, California. The girls expect to return the latter part of this week. Miss Sackett is an employe of the Pacific Telegraph & Telephone company and Miss Wardle is attending the southern Oregon normal school.

Womanless Wedding to be Staged Here.—The Kiwanis club of Ashland has secured the services of the Symphon Levie Producing company, of Bardstown, Kentucky, to stage "The Womanless Wedding," which has been put on so successfully in other towns. The dates will be March 12 and 13. This play is a riot of fun, so remember the dates, and plan to see the funniest play ever witnessed. Many prominent local business men will be invited to take part.

Takes Position with Enders' Wholesale.—Roy Anderson, who has been employed at the local 20th Century store, has accepted a position with the Enders' Wholesale company. Mr. Anderson will have charge of the Klamath district now operated by Mr. Fridegar. George shaffer will fill the position in the 20th Century store formerly held by Mr. Anderson.

Visits in Medford.—G. F. Billings was a Medford visitor on Monday.

Takes Apples South.—C. B. French, who recently took a carload of apples to Los Angeles, has disposed of them and is expected home within a few days. Mr. French stated that though Los Angeles has its oranges, Ashland apples bring mighty big smiles to the faces of the residents of sunny California.

Called to Ashland.—Mrs. Irene Hicks of Pittsburg arrived in Ashland Sunday morning, having been called here by the death of her father, the late A. E. McFarland, who passed away Tuesday, February 21. Mrs. Hicks, whose husband is a nephew of Miss Blanche Hicks, the city librarian, will make a short visit with Miss Hicks in this city before returning to her home in Pennsylvania.

From Klamath Falls.—R. G. Fowler of Klamath Falls is transacting business affairs in Ashland this week.

Portland People Visit.—Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Knapp of Portland are spending a few days in Ashland transacting business affairs and visiting friends.

Stockton Visitors.—Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Songer of Stockton, California, are in this city for the purpose of investigating Ashland and vicinity with the purpose of future investment.

From Los Angeles.—Mrs. D. Hanna of Los Angeles is making a short stay in Ashland.

Returns to Corvallis.—Chester Woods, who spent the week-end in Ashland visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Woods on North Main street, returned to Corvallis Sunday, where he is a student at the Oregon State college.

Returns from Portland.—Miss Anna Hargrove returned Saturday from a two weeks' combined business and pleasure trip to Portland where she visited relatives and attended the style show held in that city last week. Miss Hargrove purchased a complete line of the latest in spring millinery.

Returning Caravaners.—Among the people who recently enjoyed the good will pilgrimage to California, who stopped off at the Lithia Springs hotel Saturday on their way home were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Irvine of the Oregon Journal, T. A. Rafferty, head of the state traffic department at Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Price, former managers of the Lithia hotel, who are on their way to Portland. Enroute they stopped at Eugene to visit their daughters Jane and Josephine who are students at the University of Oregon.

Buy New Car.—Mollie Songer purchased a new Essex sedan this morning from H. A. Stearns of the Lithia Springs garage.

Aged Lady Dies.—Word has been received in Ashland that Mrs. Martha Given, 94 years old and mother of Mrs. Major Carter passed away at her home in Rogue River Saturday. The deceased had many friends in Ashland who regret to learn of her passing.

Vaccinate 218.—Dr. L. D. Inskeep, county physician with the county health nurse, Mrs. Lydia King, conducted the second of the series of three diphtheria immunizations in the various public schools of Ashland Monday, vaccinating 218 pupils in the Ashland schools and 20 in the Bellview school. Due to the fact that twice as many students signed up for the treatments yesterday, Dr. Inskeep agreed to make a fourth trip to complete the three treatments for those taking the first of the series yesterday.

Last Rites Held.—Last rites were held for the late A. E. McFarland Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Dodge chapel, with Rev. Pemberton in charge of the services and interment being made in the Ashland cemetery.

Mr. McFarland passed away at his home on B street Tuesday, February 21, but funeral arrangements were delayed pending the arrival of the daughter, Mrs. Irene Hicks of Pittsburg, Penn., who arrived in Ashland Sunday morning. Another daughter, Mrs. Elva Kennedy who resides in Australia was unable to be present. The deceased was a pioneer of Oregon and had resided in Ashland for many years.

Berkeley Woman Visits.—Mrs. William Sinclair of Berkeley, California is spending several weeks with her cousin, Mrs. Heath on Terrace street and with friends in this city. Although Mrs. Sinclair has been a resident of Berkeley for many years, she embraces every opportunity to visit in Ashland, being especially fond of the local scenery, park and climate.

Visits Brother.—W. G. Hardy of Salem spent the week-end in Ashland where he transacted business affairs and visited his brothers, J. H. Hardy, A. V. Hardy and Percy Hardy, and his mother Mrs. William Hardy of B street.

Well Known Woman Improving.—Miss Dorothy Reid returned home Sunday from Reno-Nevada, where she was called by the illness of her sister, Mrs. Violet Kincard. Friends of Mrs. Kincard will be glad to learn that she is on the road to recovery after an attack of pneumonia. Mrs. Henry Ried, who accompanied her daughter to Reno, will remain with Mrs. Kincard a few days longer.

Portland Visitors.—Henry Enders and Herman Mars are spending a few days in Portland where they are transacting business affairs.

Stop on Return.—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weeks and son LeRoy of Clarkston, Washington, who have been spending the past three months in California cities, stopped off in Ashland Sunday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hardy and family on Fifth street. The Weeks' were returning to their home in Washington.

Return to Roseburg.—Mrs. E. O. Rickli and little son, Jack, who have been visiting relatives in this city, left Saturday night for their home in Roseburg.

Former Senator of Dakota.—Stephen Henderson, former senator of South Dakota stopped off

in Ashland last week for a short visit with friends. Mr. Henderson was making a combined business and pleasure trip of the cities of the west.

Visits Family.—Carl McCune is in Ashland this week visiting his wife and young son, Paul, who are in the local community hospital. Mrs. McCune and little son will be removed within a few days to the home of her sister, Mrs. Morris Plymate on Beach avenue, where they will visit a few days before returning to their home in Dunsmuir. Mrs. McCune was Miss Margaret Stevens before her marriage to Mr. McCune.

—Trinity Guild Food sale at Hardy Brothers Grocery, Saturday.

March Graduates.—Twenty-two students will complete their work at the southern Oregon normal school at the close of the winter term, March 21, according to Miss Katherine Vincent, registrar. Graduation exercises will be held in June for the March, June and summer school graduates. Those completing their work in March are: Esther Barrett, Marie Boileau, Jane Creager, Vida Davis, Cecile Fifield, Anna B. Fisher, Inez Woodell Fries, Esther Gardner, Lester Gardner, Aubrey Haan, Clarence Haan, Fosma Kinney, Rose Martin, Joe Mercer, Thelma Reese, Wilma Sheley, Dorothy Short, Florence Updgraff, Priscilla Webb and Alvia Wetherell.

Orchestra to Appear.—An announcement was made Monday by President Churchill that the Klamath Falls high school orchestra and quartet will entertain the normal school assembly

Friday morning at 10:40. Mr. Churchill stated that the Klamath Falls orchestra is reputed to be as good as the one from Grants Pass which gave such a creditable program before the assembly a short time ago. Residents of Ashland are invited to attend the program.

Returns to Klamath.—W. E. Weedon, who has been visiting his mother in Grants Pass for a few weeks, stopped off in Ashland to visit with relatives and friends on his way home to Klamath Falls.

Cheese & Produce company Malin does $80,000 business in 1927.

There are Over 20,000,000 Passenger Automobiles in the World, and 17,000,000 of these are in North America. There are more new drivers appearing every day, creating a growing reason for thoughtful owners to protect themselves by Automobile Liability, Property Damage and Collision Insurance. Is it wise for you to assume all the risks of loss or lawsuit? Consult this agency before your accident.

BILLINGS AGENCY
Est. 1883. 46 East Main

The World Contributes
The Owl Distributes

THE OWL
DRY
HOUSEHOLD (packaged)
DRUGS

Purity and Quantity Guaranteed

Lithia Springs Pharmacy
Agents for Owl Drug Products

WE GIVE 25% GREEN DISCOUNT STAMPS

DANCE Chief Big Boy DANCE
—and his—
6 Piece MUSICAL REDSKINS 101 Ranch
FULL BLOODED PONCA INDIANS

Jackson Hot Springs Pavillion

FRIDAY, MARCH 2
Admission 75c; Ladies 10c
RED HOT MUSIC BY RED HOT REDMEN

Now for the Big Outdoors!

Golf Duds Hiking Breeches
Buckskein Jackets Sweaters

Everything for the
GREAT OUTDOORS

MILLER'S TOGGERY
"Hab-a-dash Inn"

New Spring Footwear

Our complete new line of Enna Jettick health shoes for girls and women for Spring wear is now on display.

We have a wonderful selection of Pumps, Ties, Straps and Oxfords. These shoes are made on a combination last and have a built-in steel arch support that is unbreakable. We are able to fit practically all types of feet as we have these shoes in widths D to AAA and sizes two and one-half to nine.

Their prices are most appealing.
$5.00 and up

The Enders Company
Ashland's Largest Department Store

7

TRADITION HAS IT THAT THE FIGURE SEVEN IS SIGNIFICANT OF BETTER THINGS TO FOLLOW.

It Is True In This Case
WATCH FRIDAY'S PAPER FOR FURTHER DETAILS