Dr. Conroy of Medford, who has been the family physician for a number of years has been called to San Francisco on the case. From the Forsythe place the trip was made on up the mountain, dividing when three-fourths of the climb had been attained with Nedra Bartlett and the other half with Miss Ella McLeod, the first group reaching the destination first was to build a fire.

After eating lunch, different amusements were indulged until time to start home. The homeward route was made over the Bellview road, dividing again into two groups and the girls arrived in Ashland at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, tired but with the consciousness of having enjoyed a splendid outing.

Those who attended the hike were the guardians, Miss Ella McLeod and Nedra Bartlett, and Nancy Lou Gill, Beverly Young, Harriet Gooding, Nella and Melba Putnam, Lucille Cramer, Bernice Clawson, Rachel Forsythe, Virginia Crandall, Nelle Napier and Dorothy Flackus.

A huge centerpiece of attractive shamrock adorning the dining table, green candle holders and green tapers, place cards and favors supplementing the St. Patrick scheme. A lovely three course luncheon with the color scheme of green prominently featured, was served at one o'clock.
