Camp Fire Guardian's Meeting
—The Camp Fire guardians held a meeting last Tuesday evening with Miss Ellen Waters, at the Frank Merrill residence on the Boulevard, for the purpose of outlining plans for a spring council fire.

The spring council fire is scheduled for the afternoon of May 13. Previous to the council fire demonstration, the Wokelo court will hold a meeting on May 8.

Those present at the Tuesday meeting were Misses Irene Berg, Edna Goben, Irene Clark, Mell Carter, Ella McLeod and Ellen Waters.

Dr. Brower Officiates. — A wedding of interest was performed at Medford at the court house on Monday, March 19th when Mr. John Bachman and Miss Linda Cook, both of Los Angeles were married by Mr. Bachman's old friend, Dr. D. M. Brower of Ashland. Dr. Brower and Mr. Bachman were friends years ago when Mr. Bachman was a resident of this vicinity, and Dr. Brower accompanied the couple to Medford where the marriage took place. The couple will live in Los Angeles.

Surprise Party.—Mrs. W. T. Taylor was delightfully surprised last week at her home on B street when a number of relatives and friends gathered in honor of her birthday anniversary.

Music, conversation and games constituted the evening's entertainment, with delectable refreshments being served by the guest committee of the following: Mrs. Taylor, the guest of honor, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sams, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hendricks, Mesdames Arthur Hamaker, Marcella Scribner, Ross Gentry, Ethel Miller, Ross Hardin, Raymond Butler, T. A. McCallister, R. A. McCallister and Miss Myra Taylor.

Mrs. Taylor received many beautiful gifts which were opened in the presence of the guests.

Honor Miss Kruse.—Following the services at the Bible Standard temple Wednesday evening, about forty young people met at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Murphy on 225 B street, the occasion being in the form of a farewell party in honor of Miss Lillian Kruse who left Thursday morning for her home in Veneta, Oregon. Miss Kruse plans to take up the Bible Standard work in the future and was registered at the Bible Standard theological school at Eugene where she will begin her studies in the near future.

The evening passed pleasantly in games and music. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Murphy late in the evening. The guests departed at a late hour after wishing Miss Kruse a successful future.

Miss Kruse made many friends in the normal school where she was a student and in the local Bible Standard church where she was an active member, and while her many friends regret her departure, they feel that she has made a splendid future movement.

Trinity Guild Party.—The auxiliary to the Trinity Guild of the local Episcopal church held their regular meeting at the parish house Wednesday evening, March 21. A social evening was enjoyed by the splendid attendance of ladies present with bridge furnishing the amusement of the affair. Mrs. G. H. Hedberg winning a lovely prize for holding high score of the evening and Miss Gertrude Biede being awarded the consolation.

The hostesses for the occasion, Mrs. E. M. Berg and Misses Elsie Alexander and Ethel Shrum served delicious refreshments at the close of the games. Decorations in the rooms and at the daintily arranged tables carried out the yellow Easter color scheme as did also the refreshments.

Invited guests were Mrs. Dan Kay, Mrs. E. L. Wilkes and Misses Gertrude Biede and Marjorie Gillette.

Ashland Music Club.—The Ashland Music Study club will meet on Monday, March 26 at the residence of Mrs. John Fuller on North Main street.

It is hoped that a good attendance will feature the meeting, as a splendid program has been prepared under the direction of Miss Leona Marsters, and an interesting and instructive time is promised.

Delphian Board Meeting.—Mrs. A. H. Pracht will be hostess to the Delphian board on Friday, April 6 at her home on Vista street. The afternoon will be taken up with the business of the society which will be followed by a program on which the different members of the board will deliver topics on Shakespearian literature. The afternoon will terminate with a luncheon.

Delightful Bridge Party.—Miss Genevieve Swedenburg was the charming hostess on Thursday evening at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg on the Boulevard, the occasion being in honor of Miss Julia Wilson of Portland, University of Oregon classmate of Miss Swedenburg, who is a house guest at the Swedenburg home during the spring vacation.

The Swedenburg home was beautiful with an abundance of daffodils and ferns. Two tables of bridge furnished the amusement for the evening. Miss Isabelle Silver won a lovely gift for holding high score of the evening, Miss Gertrude Brown was granted a dainty prize for holding low score and Miss Julia Wilson received the guest prize.

Miss Swedenburg's guests were the guest of honor Miss Wilson, Misses Althea Dwyer, Laura Johnson, Edith Dodge, Isabelle Silver, Gertrude Brown and Eleanor Swedenburg.

Entertain With Dinner.—Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Murphy entertained with an elaborate dinner Tuesday evening at their home on B street, the pleasant occasion being in honor of Miss Lillie Kruse, who recently left for her home in Veneta, Oregon, with the intention of later entering the Bible Standard school at Eugene where she will specialize in that line of religious work. Covers were laid for ten at a table attractive in its decoration of spring flowers. Dinner was served to the following: The guest of honor, Miss Lillie Kruse, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Held, Miss Anna Rickman, Miss Elsie Mollett, Mrs. Hazel Johnson and two young daughters and the hosts, Rev. and Mrs. Murphy.

After dinner the hours were spent in music and conversation.

The girl, the license, the minister—but the ring! OH! THE RING!!

and family were visiting with home folks Sunday evening.

Visit Camas Valley.—Miss Esther Brown, expects to visit with home folks at Camas valley during the school vacation. Miss Brown is attending normal school here.

Out Again.—The many friends of G. W. Benedict on Mountain avenue are glad to learn that he is able to be out again after being ill for the past three or four weeks.

Called on Friends.—Mrs. E. W. Redifer and son, Paul, were calling on relatives on B street Monday afternoon.

NOW EVERY HOME CAN AFFORD
RUNNING WATER!

Of course, you can get along without running water. You can pump—and pump—and carry water pail by pail. You can do without the conveniences in the kitchen, bathroom, garage, and barn that running water brings.

But, under these conditions, can you and your family enjoy real health and happiness—the only things in life worth while? Think what it would mean if you had a plentiful supply of running water—under pressure.

The new Fairbanks-Morse Home Electric Water System brings water pressure at a still lower cost. Let us demonstrate it to you.
