Six room modern cottage and one acre of land on Pacific highway north of Jackson Springs and tannery to L. D. Mann of Ashland. A five room modern cottage at 139 Wimer street to R. I. Stuart of Medford.

Visit Relatives.—Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Klum of Klamath Falls spent several days in this city last week visiting friends and relatives, returning to their home on Sunday.

Visit Friends.—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Campbell were among the Ashland people who spent Sunday in Klamath Falls visiting with friends.

For Week-end.—Edith Dodge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dodge of this city is expected home the latter part of the week for a few days visit. Miss Dodge is attending the University of Oregon.

Visited Klamath.—Miss Mildred Paige spent Sunday in Klamath Falls visiting friends. Miss Paige is employed in the Plaza confectionery in this city.

From Grants Pass.—Mrs. Mary Brown of Grants Pass spent the week-end visiting Mrs. Ida Neil and Miss Anna Hargrove on Pioneer street.

Visiting Relatives.—Mr. and Mrs. James Hughes are spending a few days with Mr. Hughes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hughes on Oak street. They are returning to their home in Eugene after spending several weeks in Tijuana.

SOCIETY

Social Meeting of American Legion Auxiliary.—A social meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Monday night at Pioneer hall, complimenting past presidents of the Auxiliary who have so faithfully served during the past seven years. Past president pins in gold will be presented to the past presidents in appreciation of their work. Mrs. Edwin Dunn, president of the Auxiliary presided over the meeting, calling upon Mrs. Earl Crow to give a brief resume of the American Legion Auxiliary since its beginning in 1921. At that time, Mrs. Littlefield was president, being succeeded by Mrs. P. K. Hammond. Other past presidents who were honored were Mrs. Wolcott, Mrs. S. A. Peters Jr., Mrs. Clyde Malone and Mrs. John Enders. The hospital work, the child welfare work, sale of poppies, the making of apple butter and jelly for the veteran's hospital, children's clothing sent, and many other worthy activities were some of the things reviewed by Mrs. Crow in her interesting talk.

Mrs. Regina Johnson, accompanied by Mrs. R. L. Burdick, sang for the members. The refreshment committee, then took charge and a two-course supper was served. During the business meeting, the members of the Auxiliary made plans to help the American Legion boys at the Style Show at the armory Thursday and Friday, by providing ushers and also by providing a fifteen minute entertainment Friday evening.

Dean and Mrs. Bolton Honored.—Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Bolton were guests at a dinner and reception Monday evening held in their honor at the Lithia Springs hotel by the entire southern Oregon normal school faculty.

Dr. Bolton is dean of the school of education of the University of Washington and has been spending a few days in Ashland visiting several of the normal instructors who are graduates of the Washington college.

During the evening's entertainment, Miss Ruth Yoder delighted with several violin solos assisted at the piano by Miss Mary Gale.

President Churchill of the normal school, introduced Dean Bolton who delivered a most interesting talk on the "Educational Outlook" as it appeared to him.

Following the dinner, an informal reception was held in the lobby of the hotel for Dean and Mrs. Bolton.

Monday Study Club Social Meeting.—The officers of the Monday Afternoon Study club, Mrs. Charles Robertson president Mrs. William Myer, vice president and Mrs. Bert Hinthorne, secretary, were hostesses Monday evening a week ago to the members of the study club, entertaining with a combined business and social evening at the residence of Mrs. Charles Robertson on the Boulevard.

Members responded to roll call on current events of Mexico. Mrs. Stella Albert spoke interestingly of her journey through Mexico. Games and a social time followed the short program, and at a late hour the hostesses served delicious refreshments at a table attractive in St. Patrick day decorations, the shamrock being much in evidence. Refreshments also were carried out in the Irish color scheme.

About twelve members were in attendance.

Camp Fire Girls Give Annual Show.—Under the direction of Miss Ellen Waters, physical training director of the local school the Camp Fire girls are working hard on their annual stunt show which is scheduled to be produced on April 14, the sum derived is to be applied on the fund for the summer camp they are to have at the Lake of the Woods this season.

Among the interesting features of the entertainment this year will be a short play, folk dances, pageants and varied drills, which are being cleverly worked out. Those who have patronized these forms of entertainment in past seasons may be interested to know that the girls, under the supervision of Miss Waters are endeavoring to make their stunt show this spring the largest and best ever produced and are expecting a good attendance.

Delightful Bridge Luncheon.—Mrs. Will Dodge presided over a charming one o'clock bridge luncheon last Saturday at her home on the Boulevard.

Covers were placed for eight at a table perfectly appointed and most attractive in a color scheme of green and pink, a bouquet of pink tulips and ferns graced the center of the table, while green holders containing pink tapers were placed on either side, place cards and shamrock candy box favors further carried out the St. Patrick color scheme.

Following luncheon, bridge was played, with Miss Helen Anderson receiving a beautiful bouquet of pink tulips and ferns for holding high score of the afternoon.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Dodge were: Mesdames J. A. Churchill, A. C. Strange, Emil Peil, D. Peruzzi, and Misses Helen Anderson, Florence Buck and Leona Marsters.

B. Y. P. U. Convention.—Approximately twenty young people of the local Baptist church journeyed to Medford Sunday afternoon to attend the Rogue river convention of the B. Y. P. U.

Ashland people who took part in the program were Rev. Dunham of the local church who gave an interesting address before the convention, his talk being on "Religious Education." Miss Doris Wolfolk made a short talk on the young people's work in the church societies and Lela Dodson delighted with a piano solo.

Following the meeting a splendid supper was served the visitors in the downstairs banquet room of the first Baptist church.

men forward. If she could manage to get one or two of these coverings. . . Compassion urged the deed. But—she was afraid.

Presently, however, a well-authenticated chin settled into place and two lips grew arbitrary, and marched down the companionway. Yes, the blankets were still there. She snatched two, secured her torch and reached the bulkhead door, unchallenged.

She switched on the torch, forced herself forward. Then, after a moment's hesitation: "Here—you! Are you cold I have two blankets."

She stood, waiting, listening. She could feel the darkness move with unseen menace. But the dead silence of that prisoned space gave no sound of life.

her from the dark. For a flash it seemed that it must be herself they meant to seize. Then they closed upon the blankets, rested there an instant, withdrew with their prize again into the night whence they had come.

Almost, the girl sprang back, cried out in panic.

A moment the fingers paused. Then they came thrusting toward
