Odd Fellows Have Big Time.
The local I. O. O. F. lodge held a most interesting meeting last Thursday night at the Odd Fellows hall for the purpose of discussing the subject, "Resolved, that benefits should be abolished." This subject was ably discussed by George Treven and William Ferns on the affirmative and Messrs. Shelton and C. A. Bodich on the negative. This debate is one of a series that will be given throughout the ensuing term, this form of entertainment being conceded by the members as being both beneficial and entertaining.

A splendid attendance featured the meeting, lunch was served in the dining room late in the evening by the refreshment committee and a general good time was had by every one present.

Complimenting Mrs. van Praag.
Mrs. J. W. McCoy and Mrs. C. J. Read entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. McCoy in compliment to Mrs. Jack H. van Praag, who has recently moved to Ashland from Pasadena. About forty-five ladies were invited to meet Mrs. van Praag, and tea and cakes were served during the afternoon. Mrs. Dan Kay assisted the hostesses in receiving, and dining room hostesses were Mrs. Henry Enders and Mrs. P. R. Hardy. Mrs. Elwood Hedberg presided at the tea table. The tea table was adorned with a Ma ypole in pastel colors in a basket of cut flowers. A profusion of wild flowers arranged in baskets graced the living rooms.

Mrs. John Henry of Pasadena, mother of the guest of honor was an out of town guest.

Returns from Portland.—Low Hanson of the Ashland Hotel returned home last Thursday evening, after an extended visit in Portland with friends and relatives. While in the rose city, Mr. Hanson underwent a series of medical treatments for his foot, which he reports as being much improved. Mrs. Hansen remained over a few days longer with her sister, returning to this city on Monday evening.
Left for Portland.—J. H. Sugg left for Portland Monday evening on the special excursion train where he will enjoy a few days visit with friends.
