

Local Happenings

Mr. Hubert Smith, north of town, was trading in this city Tuesday.

R. E. Grigsby was confined to his bed from Friday until Tuesday with an attack of tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Root, who visited parents here for a week, returned to their home in Roseburg the last of the week.

Dick Hay's many friends were pleased to see him on his feet again after several months of serious illness.

Mrs. Lottie Gregory and daughter, Miss Lyle Gregory and Miss Lucille Abbot drove up to Crater Lake Sunday.

Mrs. Edna McAllister of Roseburg, arrived here Saturday for a visit with her father, L. H. Root. She took advantage of the S. P. Dollar Day excursion rates.

Rev. A. E. Ashley, at one time pastor of the Central Point Christian church, but now of Portland, was greeting his old friends here Tuesday morning. He is enlisted with the anti-cigarette movement.

Mrs. H. F. Probst visited Tuesday with Rev. Ed Bingham and mother at Mr. and Mrs. Hill's home and Mrs. Ada Burchard of Little Apple gate country, now visiting at the home.

C. S. Finley, of the Finley Implement company, is a very sick man, having to confine himself to bed Sunday. He is threatened with pneumonia. His many friends, the American forces included, hope for his speedy recovery.

E. E. Griffith was awarded the contract for hauling, for the city, 100 yards of granite, which is to surface Front and Ash streets, which were recently graded. The streets to be improved are along the property of the Oregon-California Petroleum association.

Postmaster Guy Tex left Saturday morning for the Lake View country, confident that he would return home with his "limit" of mule tail deer. He will visit with his wife's nephew, Heston Grieve of Lake View. He was accompanied by Dewey Hill of Prospect.

D. L. Davidson, a progressive farmer and successful salesman of Willow Springs district, was transacting business in Central Point early Tuesday morning. He stated that everything in his neighborhood was lively and that they had had as much rain this fall as any section in the country.

Roy Anderson, who had an attack of flu about two weeks ago and partially recovered, has had a relapse and is a very sick man. He was too eager to get back to his work, and as is almost always the result in flu disease, a recurrence of the malady. The American management and forces join with Mr. Anderson's many friends in sincerely hoping for his early recovery.

F. M. Rodman and John Higgenbotham recently made a real estate deal whereby Mr. Rodman came into possession of the Nye Apartments on West Main street, Medford. Wells Mann got the Rodman 40 acres near the Four Corners, and John Higgenbotham becomes the owner of the Mann 57-acre tract of land near Agate. All these transactions were effected by the John B. Shelton Real Estate agency of Central Point.

George Stanton, J. O. Lasswell's nephew, left Monday morning for his old home in Kansas, after about a year's residence here. He clerked for L. Hatfield for several months during his stay here, but at the time of his departure he was employed by the Palmer corporation, owners of the Modoc orchards. Mr. Stanton was very much in love with this Southern Oregon country, especially this immediate vicinity, and intimated to friends that he might return here when the flowers bloom in the spring.

Lawrence and Paul Brown, who were reared here, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, now of Crescent City, California, stopped here Saturday for a short visit with former friends. Lawrence became active and efficient in airplane engineering, learned aviation flying and was one of the first aviators to enlist with the government when this country became involved with the Mexican government. He was recognized by the government for his skill and bravery. His brother Paul has won distinction in the same service.

Roy Weaver of Berkeley, Cal., was visiting friends in the city last week.

M. O. Brown and H. E. Young are enjoying a hunting trip.

Features of Table Rock district are draining their land. This is being laid.

Mrs. Walder left on the Monday morning stage for Ashland, where she will remain for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill left Friday for Medford, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hill of Roseburg were visiting their daughter, Mrs. George Gudge, here Friday.

C. S. Finley has been confined to his home for a few days with a severe cold.

Nellie Eicher, Toshiko Tabao and Mrs. and Geraldine Herman were visiting in Medford Friday night.

Mrs. Leonard Bowman and children and Mrs. C. Bowman of Merrill, Oregon, were visiting in Central Point over the week-end.

Mrs. Theo Tolleson and Mrs. Tracy attended the County Council of the Jackson County P. T. A. at Medford, near Trail, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Pickett of Gold Hill returned from Diamond Lake Sunday evening. They reported wonderful luck fishing.

Emory Vincent, of Beagle, was accidentally shot while deer hunting last week. The bullet struck the Mr. Vincent is recovering.

Artistic is the way shoppers express themselves, after viewing the show window at Stone's Drug Store. The dressing of the window is credited to Mrs. Stone.

The Pioneers and Native Sons and daughters of Oregon met at the city of Ashland last Thursday. An important dinner was served and a musical program rendered. Among those who attended from Central Point were Mrs. Ed Farrar and her son, Beames and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sanderson, Mrs. Pearl Romney and Mrs. L. Hatfield attended a reception at Grants Pass Wednesday evening given in honor of Mrs. Margaret Barnes, Grand Lecturer of O. L. S. A large delegation was present from Ashland, Portland, Jacksonville, Medford and Central Point.

You want the best gasoline. We offer just that.

Violet Ray Gasoline
Refined after years of research, guarantee of winners leading it.
Costs no more than white gasoline.

Socony Motor Oil
Lasts longer. More mileage. More power.

GOODYEAR TIRES

Central Point Service
Vernon H. Davidson

ANNOUNCEMENT

I have leased this business from A. E. Hill, and ask your continued patronage.

I Handle Gasoline, Oils and Greases
SUNSET, GILMORE, BLUE GREEN GASOLINE
and a other kinds of gasoline.

We Handle Tires and Auto Supplies

Barbecue Lunches

Good Things to Eat

Stop and See Us

Nip & Sip Shop

H. DROULETTE, Prop.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, Mrs. Marine's sister, Mrs. Bertha Mae Stevens and Mr. Doyle Mills drove over to Clatsop Sunday and had an enjoyable time.

Jack Jones and family drove to Medford and returned a splendid report. Mr. Jones stated that the house riding was equal to any they had ever had over the hills, and he has been to Clatsop and other places giving the school a good report.

The Girls League of the Central Point High school will meet on Friday for the P. school with Friday evening after school. A number of girls were spent playing games and studying. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Damsch arrived at Medford from Ashland via the Southern Oregon Railway on Friday. They had a large party at home. They were visited by Mr. Damsch's daughter, Mrs. L. Damsch, of Ashland. They also called on L. L. Damsch, of Ashland, who had been a customer of the Central Point store for a long time.

All automobiles in the city are now being inspected by the police.

H. O. BURTON

SEA FOOD
Always fresh and of highest quality. Price is our motto.

Open Every Day
Fish fresh from the boats. Fresh fish, smoked, spiced and shell fish in season.

Crabs and Oysters
Now Plentiful

H. O. BURTON
100 North Front Street
Medford, Oregon

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP

RAIN, RAIN, RAIN.

The rainy season is approaching. Come in and see our line of

Rain Coats and Water Repellent Garments

The New Shelco Raincoats

Very light in weight and guaranteed waterproof for men and women. SPECIAL PRICES. DEPARTMENT RAINCOATS. Made of the All-Weather Skin Effects. For Men and Women. $4.95 and $4.45. MEN'S RAINCOATS IN BARGAIN LENGTH. Tan or Tan Plain or with Velvet Collar and Lapels. All Sizes and Only $3.50.

Raincoats for Kiddies

Raincoats for the kiddies' school wear, in B. L. or Green. One Special at 25. LOGGERS' WATER REPELLANT COATS, or with Extra Covering Capacity for Hunters. $5.50 Value, 2000 at $4.75.

WATER REPELLANT PAINTS TO MATCH ABOVE COATS. All Sizes $1.25.

B. P. Theiss and Co.

PRICE, QUALITY, & CLASS

WILSON'S BANKRUPT

SALE PRICES

Just Try to Beat Them --- It Just Can't Be Done

THIS IS THE CHEAPEST STORE IN THE WEST

Men's Flannel Shirts	95c	Men's Red Rubber Shoes	$2.95
Men's Fancy Sox	10c	Men's Rubber Boots	$2.55
Men's Wide Garters	10c	Men's Heavy Plain Toe Work Shoes, $4.50 Value	$2.95
Men's Broadcloth Shirts	89c	Men's High Top Shoes	$3.95
Men's and Boys' College Cords	$1.95	Men's Heavy Winter Unionsuit, 16 lbs.	95c
Men's Bib or Waist Overalls	75c	Camp Blankets	75c
The Best Overall in Town for	95c	Suit Cases. Sale	35c
Men's and Boys' Dress Caps	50c	Fine Dress Oxfords	$2.95
Men's Blue Serge Suits—16 oz. 100 per cent Wool Serge	$14.50	Men's Leather Mitts	25c
Other Suits as low as	$4.50	50c Towels. Sale	25c

HUNDREDS OF OTHER BARGAINS JUST AS LOW

DRUG STORE FOR SALE OR TRADE—HOUSE FOR RENT

WILL H. WILSON

32 North Front St., Medford