

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Noyes have gone to Long Beach, Calif., where Mrs. Noyes will receive medical aid.

Edwin Gebhard entertained a number of his eighth grade friends at a birthday Halloween party last Saturday evening.

The Finley Implement Company have added a complete line of stock and poultry feed to their implement business. The Hodgen-Brewster line is well known.

A very large number of Rebekahs answered the call of Home Coming held in their hall Wednesday evening. A delegation of 47 members from Medford paid the local fraternity a surprise visit. Visiting members were present from Gold Hill and Jacksonville also. After a very interesting meeting, a bounteous supper was served and a jolly home coming was reported by all. Mr. Purkettle and Mrs. Sanford Richardson donated the music for the occasion and the social hour was spent by several tables of cards.

The city has named a price for the sale of the building occupied by Myrtle lynch room to A. W. Walker. It is expected that Mr. Walker will purchase the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wagner of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Helmroth of Griffin Creek were visitors on Sunday at the Edw. Jones home.

Business at the Faber store shows an increase of 15 per cent for October over the previous month. Not a bad sign.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Millard of Medford have moved to Centra Point. They expect to spend the winter with Mrs. Millard's stepfather, Mr. Thomas Belcher.

First, Mr. and Mrs. N. Eddy; second, Mr. Mast of Ashland and Mrs. Peters of this city; third, Mrs. Billings and Mr. McKinnis. A good time was reported and all are waiting for Mr. Walker to announce another carnival.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Downey of Medford vicinity spent Monday evening calling on Mrs. Downey's grandmother, Mrs. Hazelwood.

A masquerade carnival dance was held in Walker's hall Saturday night, October 31. A record crowd was in attendance and some very good costumes in evidence. The prizes were captured as follows:

Everett Faber was in Medford Wednesday transacting business at the county seat. Among other things he visited the tax collector.

Mrs. Ethel Davis had the misfortune to fracture her ankle. X-ray examination disclosed broken bones. Mrs. Davis resides at Kanes Creek.

The Jackson County Recreation club held a meeting Wednesday evening, November 4, at the Central Point Grange hall. A program of stunts and skits and music appreciation was prepared by Mrs. Mabel C. Mack, home demonstration agent, who was program chairman. Plans for an amateur dramatics contest were also discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Damon motored to Roseburg Tuesday to visit with Mrs. Damon's relatives. They returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Walker drove to Eugene Tuesday to be with Mrs. Walker's mother on the occasion of her birthday dinner on Wednesday.

Mrs. Julia Owen, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Freeman, is quite sick, having suffered a severe illness Monday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gregory, one of Central Point's early residents, having many acquaintances and friends, suffered a paralytic stroke recently. She is improving, and her friends sincerely hope for her recovery.

Miss Cellaneous Answers

Dear Miss Cellaneous: I greatly admire a certain man teacher but he doesn't seem to be aware of the fact, as he never notices me about the school and will hardly speak to me. I am sure he doesn't know how I feel about him or he would treat me more kindly. What can I do to make him notice me or shall I try to forget him?
"BLUE EYED SENIOR"

Dear "Blue Eyed Senior": By all means do not forget him. Your letter betrays your sincerity. If I were you I would purchase some "Sweet Essence of Love" perfume. Then let nature take its course.
Dear Miss Cellaneous, I have been greatly disappointed in love. I adore a young man of 18 but he pays no attention to me. Please advise.
"LOVE SICK BILLIE"
Dear "Love Sick Billie:"

The young man you refer to has not yet realized what you mean to him. Give him the "Sweet Me" look and leave the rest to him.
Dear Miss Cellaneous: I am a boy of 17 and I am bashful. In other words I have inferiority complex. How shall I make friends with the girls who desire their company. Please answer.
