Grade Schools

Those that made the grade school Honor Roll with grades of B or above are: Mary Martin, Ardis Hansen, Jimmie Wright, Shirley Kincaid, Milton Pitts, Bobby Grisham, Iris Hill, Doris Anderson, Inez Morningstar, Leonard Stephenson, Brownie Thurman, Barbara Fleischer, Warren Young, Leonard Copinger, Marjorie Jones, Ruby Webster, Billy Leever.

Mrs. Murphy, the sixth grade teacher, was absent Monday and Tuesday on account of illness. Mr. Sheley substituted for her.

The sixth graders are planning a Marionette Christmas play. The pupils will make their own figures and operate them. This promises to be instructive and amusing.

One panel of the blackboard in the second grade is exhibiting a very interesting bit of work. The pupils have made Indian designs in crayon on drawing paper using old Indian symbols and colors.

Neil Robins, second grader, is absent. He has a light touch of pneumonia. Nine others are out of school because of heavy colds.

The program for the P. T. A. meeting held in the high school auditorium Friday was given by the third grade in charge of Miss Seabrook. A little play about a cat, a mouse, a little red hen and four faces was the main feature. Doris Lee and Iris Hill gave a musical selection.

Esther Huffman is new in the fourth grade. She came from Prospect.

Senator Reed of Pennsylvania says that the sales tax would produce $2,000,000,000 revenue annually. That might help.

SCHOOL NOTES

By ELIZABETH FLEISCHER
The high school orchestra which is being organized will start practice during the first week in January. An instructor has been hired to come for one day a week and give lessons to all in the orchestra, free of charge. After school of the same day the orchestra will practice. There is no expense to the student that wishes to join other than that of furnishing his own instrument. So far twenty have signed up. Of those there are seven violins, four saxophones, three trombones, two clarinets, two cornets, one trumpet and one drum.

A meeting of the freshman class was called Tuesday evening after school. The purpose of the meeting was to make plans and arrangements for the annual freshman bonfire. The bonfire this year will be on the night of January 6 before the first home game. Instead of having it on the school grounds where it has been held in previous years, it will be on the vacant lot across the highway from the school.

Ned Cash and Marvin Stark were put in charge of the assembling of the material of which the bonfire will be composed. This year the class plans to use nothing but scraps. The class is going to make this the biggest bonfire the school has ever had.

The plans for the Girls' League dinner, which is going to be held on Friday, Dec. 4, from 5:00 to 8:00 p. m., are being completed under the direction of Mrs. Ross, advisor and Elizabeth Southwell, president of the league. The proceeds of the dinner are to be used in filling Christmas boxes for those who are in need in the community. The girls are working hard to make the project a success and it is hoped that the patrons of the community will help. The tickets may be obtained from girls of the league or by calling at Stone's drug store.

Another six weeks' period of the school has been completed, with the following pupils on the High School Honor Roll: Seniors, Dorothy Inmann, Elizabeth Fleischer, Ralph Knight, Helen Lees, Roy Martin. Juniors—Nelle Elcher, Grace Hermanson, Vivian Jones, Wynnae Parker. Sophomores—Avis Ayers, Francis Faber, Katherine Lathrop.

Harry Young. Freshmen—Ray Hensley, Geraldine Jones.

To gain a place on the Honor Roll a pupil must have grades of B or above.

Mrs. Fleischer entertained at dinner at her home Tuesday evening a friend from Pasadena, California.

Bessie Milton was absent Monday and Tuesday on account of illness.

Tryouts were held in Junior English class Tuesday to pick out characters who will take part in the play which the class plans to present at the Christmas assembly program. Miss Blood, Donald Snyder and Alvin Maple acted in the capacity of judges and selected the parts. Everyone in the class was given a chance to try for a part.

The best way to show your Christmas spirit

DRESS up your place of business with decorative lighting. It is the modern expression of the Christmas spirit—the medium used by progressive merchants to advertise and convey their greetings to customers.

Nothing will enhance your building and displays more than colored electrical effects. Lights attractively arranged help to draw the throngs of holiday shoppers and to proclaim your Christmas greetings in a most effective manner.

Show your Christmas spirit with decorative lighting. The generous use of light during the holiday season is a profitable investment in good-will—in next year's business.
