The book of Micah brings some most practical lessons for today. Read the entire message and come discuss these truths with us in Bible class. You will be welcome in any Bible school next Sunday.

Correlated to other great Bible truths are the fine lessons in the young people's department. Another invitation is given the young people to help "keep the home fires burning". 7 o'clock is the time for the devotional service.

"The Hidden Life" will be the subject of the sermon on Sunday morning; and "Christ and The Poor" will be the subject for the evening message. If you like to sing the Gospel message come early and join with us.
