Martin Has Cure For Buck Passing

PORTLAND, Dec. 5.—A more centralized form of state government was advocated here today by General Charles H. Martin, governor-elect, in an address at the University club.

Martin said the state needs one governor instead of three, in order to place the responsibility where it belongs and to put an end to buck-passing.

He paid a tribute to the courage and character of the pioneers who laid the foundations of the Oregon country, and urged that in the achievement of objects immediately ahead, partisanship be cast aside in the interest of citizenship.

Oregon, the governor-elect declared is on the eve of a great awakening. He pointed to the industrial potentialities of the Bonneville dam and the benefits bound to accrue from the navigational developments of the Columbia.

Wheat Checks Due Soon for Growers

The second federal payment under the Wheat Adjustment Act, to Jackson county wheat growers is due within a few days, according to County Agent Robert G. Fowler. The payment will amount to approximately $7,000. Notice of the approval of the greater portion of the claims has been received by the county agent.

The county agent's office has started making out the annual budget for wheat control activities in this county, for submission to Washington, D. C., before the first of the year.
