Elder Sister Gives Advice to Bride

Dear Dorothy: Just received Mother's letter mentioning the fact that I am to have George for a brother. Congratulations! I am very much pleased, as I always did like him. Now, I'll be the elder sister, and give you some advice: After you and George have a home of your own, don't ever let anyone, washing machine agent, or friends, persuade you that it is cheaper to do your own washing! If our days ran like a clock, it might be, but you never can see the days ahead. You will be sick, or have friends call and a hundred and one other unusual occurrences. After your machine is bought, you just feel like you must use it. I know from dearly bought experience that it DOES NOT PAY, financially, physically, and I might say, spiritually. I'll tell you all my experiences when I see you. After trying it once, I always send my laundry to the Medford Domestic Laundry—simply by calling 166, Medford. They call for the wash every Tuesday and deliver every Friday. No more "Blue Mondays" for me. Ruth is walking everywhere now and is saying so many nice words. Write and tell us all the wonderful news and when it is to be. You know we wish you all the happiness in the world. Love from us all. NANCY. —Paid Adv.
