

Local Happenings

Postmaster Tom Pankey reports that the San Diego stamp is on sale at the Post Office now.

Mrs. Henry Kilburn had a major operation performed at the Community hospital Monday.

The 4-H members will be home Sunday from summer school at Corvallis.

Saturday, Mrs. Lois Young, returned from Salem where she was one of the two song leaders for the state convention of the P.E.O. sisterhood. She also contributed a song number a the close of the Memorial Hour, and a group of readings at another time. Sessions were held at Waller Hall, Willamette University campus. This is located across the street from the capitol site.

A blue lady's purse, the only identification mark a shoe shop claim check, was found at a local hamburger stand and turned over to the city police. The owner may get it there by identifying it.—Mall Tribune. (We wonder if the blue lady found her purse and if she is still blue.)

Mrs. Mildred Merritt, who has been ill the past two weeks with the flu will return home the last of this week. She has been staying in Medford with her mother, Mrs. L. O. Van Slyke. Ruth Merritt, who has been staying with her mother will return also. Mrs. Merritt's many friends will be glad to know she is feeling much better.

Mrs. Elsie Martin, who has rooms at 412 N. Ivy in Medford was a former resident here. She was then Elsie Hall. Her parents sold their farm to Latta's. It was next to the Bebee ranch. It has been 25 years since Mrs. Martin lived here.

Miss Geraldine Fox spent ten days of her vacation at Jennings Lodge and Portland, returning Thursday, accompanied by Mrs. C. A. Boles and daughter, Jean of Portland who spent several days visiting old friends in this vicinity. They returned to their home Sunday. Geraldine is bookkeeper in Mann's Dept. Store in Medford.

Mrs. Sarah Vincent is not feeling very well.

The Home Extension Unit met at the Grange hall on Monday afternoon with Mrs. Smith of Medford who is in charge of the work while Mrs. Mack is teaching 4-H club summer school in Corvallis. The afternoon was spent making master guide patterns. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mary Coker; vice-president, Dora Hesselgrave and Secretary Mattie Smith. This is the last meeting until September.

Elizabeth and Barbara Fleischer will return home next Saturday from Seattle where they have been visiting relatives. Miss Eileen Guy of Medford, who has been attending the University of Idaho and Mrs. H. P. Jewett and two daughters who have been visiting in Salem will return with them. Miss Guy and Miss Elizabeth Fleischer attended school together in Medford several years ago. Mrs. Fleischer will remain in Seattle where she will attend summer school at the University of Washington. Session will begin June 24.

You have no doubt heard of proud fathers but there never was a more proud father than Roy Jones of Jones Grocery when he received a beautiful bouquet of carnations from his two daughters on father's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tonn entertained Roy Jones, H. J. Fleischer and Jimmy Fleischer at dinner Wednesday of this week.

Archie Frieze of Portland, who has been in Gold Hill for the past week attending to business was a Central Point visitor Wednesday. Mr. Frieze is a brother of Mrs. Purkeypile and of Major Frieze. While here he called on Postmaster Tom Pankey and Roy Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Marine have bought and moved into the house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Will Owens and family.

Richard Steele, who has been working at Gleason's for the past few weeks left recently for Portland where he will take his barber's examination.

Arlene Hay and mother Mary Hay left Sunday for Seattle, Washington where Arlene will attend summer school at the University of Washington. Mrs. Hay will visit her daughter Mrs. O. H. Ames and family in Wenatchee. Mrs. Hay's many friends hope the trip will be beneficial to her and that she will return greatly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Glass accompanied by little Donnie Bundy made a trip to Keno and visited their daughter last Thursday. They report that the sowing of grain was just finished and that they had a big rain while here. Little Donnie Bundy remained with his mother.

We were very much pleased today when one of our readers handed us a dollar with the remark, "We have been reading your paper off and on for some time. We realize that it costs you for paper, ink, etc., without counting your labor and we don't want anything for nothing. Mark us paid up for one year."

National Guard Numbers 7000 Men

The National Guard meeting at Fort Lewis, composed of men from four states, numbering 7000 men and 600 officers will be scattered over 70,000 acres of military reservations, going thru war maneuvers. Those attending camp from here are John Eddy, Corporal; Lowell Blackford, 1st Class Private; Jack Lees and Marvin Stevens, Privates. Of special interest is the fact that First Lieutenant Weldon H. McBea was selected "aide de camp" to Brigadier General Thomas E. Rilla, commanding officer of the 81st brigade.

Mr. and Mrs. Chatworth Elde and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones and Stanley motored to Crescent City Saturday afternoon returning home Monday noon. They had a very enjoyable trip. They feasted on salmon and clams. They were digging clams at 4 o'clock Sunday morning. They returned home by the Redwood highway and met a man from their home in Minnesota that knew ever-so-many of their old friends.
