Junior and Russell Ayers visited Roy Jones at the Shack Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Henry Kilburn, who had a major operation at the Community hospital recently, is improving, her many friends will be glad to know.

Marjorie Jones left Tuesday for Klamath Falls with Mr. and Mrs. Shell. Marjorie expects to have work there in a store all summer.

R. H. Moore is slowly recovering from a severe attack of the flu from which he has been suffering for the past three weeks.

We receive many questions in regard to whether we will have another beautifying contest next summer. Even people from Medford were inquiring about it and expressing a desire to be with us next year if we do.

Mr. C. E. Vellin's white mule is dead. We think most people in Central Point will remember Mr. Vellin driving her on the streets of our city. Now Mr. Vellin has no means of transportation. He had driven the mule 28 years.

Mrs. Milton has a very pretty bird bath that she made entirely herself. She has rocks from the Modoc Lava beds, ocean shells, agates from the desert, Opal from Lakeview. It is built with cement with a base and pedestal, with the bath on top. She also has a lovely rock garden with a lily pond and some very large gold fish.

Rev. R. C. Lewis has left for Fir Point, where he will attend the Young People's conference. Rev. J. M. Johnson of Lakeview will also attend. A group of the Federated church folks will leave tomorrow for the conference.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Gleason are expected home today.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Faber entertained Mr. Spellman of Los Angeles Wednesday evening. Mr. Spellman will speak this afternoon to the missionary circle at the home of Mr. A. J. Milton. Mr. Spellman is editor of a Hebrew mission paper.

Mrs. Moon of Ashland, accompanied by her father, Mr. J. H. Williams of Long Beach, stopped here Wednesday on their way to Grants Pass for a short visit. They will continue on to Portland and visit at the home of Mrs. Moon's daughter and Mr. Williams will see his great-grandchildren before returning home.

Craterian Beauty Shop Remodeled; Opened Wednesday

Redecorating and remodeling was completed last week, preparatory to opening the Craterian Beauty Shop Wednesday, June 19, in the location at 41 South Central avenue, which was formerly occupied by Murray's. The new beauty establishment is owned by Miss Laura Lynch, and will be managed by Mrs. Vera Mershon.

New equipment including Turbulator dryers, has been installed, and comfortable upholstered chairs add to the modernness of the Craterian Beauty shop. Five large booths with convenient accessories are decorated to carry out the general color scheme of cream, green and black.

The personnel of the new beauty shop is, in addition to the owner and manager: Operators, Mrs. Harriet Woodhouse, who has had extensive experience in Medford shops; Miss Hazel Cassidy, graduate of the Don Lux College of Beauty, San Francisco, and formerly of the Medford Beauty shop; Mrs. Ida Graves, efficient beautician, who has had 16 years' experience in San Francisco beauty parlors and elsewhere.

Ray LeFevre and Basil Porter expert hair cutters and stylists, will be in charge of barbering. Mrs. Mershon, manager of the Craterian shop, is well known to southern Oregon women having been engaged in beauty work in Medford for the past 11 years.

New Type Natural and Ringlete permanents will be featured at the new shop. Paper curling and marcelling will also be a specialty and all other types of high grade beauty services will be available according to Mrs. Mershon.

Mr. Clifford Hatfield stopped for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hatfield, on his return trip from New York. He also stopped for a few days in Chicago. Mrs. Hatfield is planning to visit her son at his home in Seattle this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Merriman and children of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Marine, Mr. and Mrs. George Marine and Gwendolyn enjoyed a picnic in the Grants Pass park Sunday.

John Ross caught a couple of salmon at High Bank Tuesday. He says one was as long as his fish pole. If he had reference to the pole he was carrying by this office Wednesday, we'll say it was some fish.

A REMINDER
The Evangelistic services in the old City Hall are being continued every night, except Monday and Saturday, at 8:00 p. m. All are welcome.

The National Guard boys returned from camp Tuesday and report a fine time. Lots of work and lots of fun and a big parade in Portland on the way home.

Monday morning Mrs. Clara Farra had a "hunch" that she had better finish her house cleaning, so she got busy after finishing her washing and completed her house cleaning, taking down the heater, etc., by Tuesday noon. About 2 o'clock her niece Miss Anna Dean, arrived from Oakland. As Miss Dean left on the stage Wednesday to visit her mother at Port Orford, the train arrived bringing Mr. Fred Farra, who will stay with his parents until Friday evening.

The 4-H club members returned from summer school at Corvallis on Saturday evening. They were all very enthusiastic over the good time and the many advantages and all hope to go again next year. The cooking and sewing clubs are finished for the year, while the livestock club will continue until fall. Mrs. Lathrop and Mrs. Blackford are to be congratulated on the worth while work they are doing.

Mrs. Edith Deuel and Johnny left last Wednesday, June 19, for Denver, Colo., where Johnny is taking treatment for sinus trouble. Mrs. Deuel writes her mother, Mrs. John Ross, that both she and Johnny are in bed side by side, both taking treatments. The little lad enjoyed the trip immensely, as it was his first train ride.

Mrs. Louis Salade Returns from East

Mrs. L. A. Salade, Jr., returned on the Shasta from a visit in Chicago having been accompanied by Mr. Salade from San Francisco to this city enroute home.

Also arriving at the Salade home were Miss Bannie Hunt of Santa Barbara and Miss Mary Wescott and Jimmy Feasley, both of Chicago, who are niece and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Salade, Jr. The latter three motored to Medford and will be guests for the summer at the Salade home.

Jimmy Feasley is the son of Mrs. Marjorie Feasley of Chicago, a former resident of this city.—Mail Tribune.

Paul Nitschke got a load of lumber last Friday from Medford. He intends to build a new kitchen and bath room.

Mrs. R. C. Lewis received the sad news this morning of the accidental shooting of her eleven-year-old grand daughter, Jessie, while playing with a group of her playmates Wednesday. She was shot through the head and the doctors give no hope for her recovery. Rev. Lewis was called home from the young people's conference at Fir Point and he and Mrs. Lewis left to leave for Pasadena immediately on his arrival to be with their daughter.
