

LOCALS

The W.R.C. District Convention of the School of Instruction will meet in Medford April 16.

Mr. Karl Rhoten dropped into the office for a visit with Kenneth Powell today.

Mr. V. A. Davis wrote to his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Chomel that he expects to be home in about ten days. He is much improved and the expected operation was not necessary. Mr. Davis is at the Veteran's hospital in Roseburg.

Mrs. Pearl Bonney is working in the Jones Grocery in place of Gerald Morris who resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. Chomel received a letter from Mr. Mellon who is in France stating they have enjoyed a very lovely winter there. On being asked if it didn't make him home sick Mr. Chomel said no "his interests were here and this was his home and his country".

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Holley entertained 21 friends at an aluminum dinner Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Putney and Rev. and Mrs. E. Iverson of Medford motored to Galesville Sunday.

Mrs. Gene Blackford who has been seriously sick is much better, but still is confined to her home.

Mr. T. A. Marine is suffering with the flu.

Jack's Second Hand Store still is doing business at the same old stand.

Suggestion by Business Man

One of our prominent business men thinks it would be a fine idea if we could have a get-together meeting, dinner, etc., once a month. Why don't the P.T.A. or some other organization look into this. It might work out fine for both parties.

Will Hold Meet April 14

The Extension Unit will hold an all day meeting April 14 at the Christian Church. Mrs. Mack will be in charge and the subject will be "Food at Forty". Everyone is invited. A covered dish luncheon will be served.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hall of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Don Robbins and little daughter Valan were guests at a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Mills recently.

HOPE FOR BETTER REPORT NEXT WEEK

The smudging crew was called about one o'clock last night. Conflicting stories are told in regard to the frost damage. Some say the crop will not be seriously damaged, while others say their will be no crop at all. Only time will tell. Next week we hope to have a report from some one in authority.

Arrive From The Dalles

Mr. James N. Cornutt's nephew, James E. Cornutt arrived from the Tuberculosis Sanatorium at The Dalles recently. He had been at the hospital for nearly two years and is completely cured. He reports it a wonderful place. He will be able to attend school this fall. Mr. Smith, who drove the Watkins wagon here was also at the Sanatorium but was released a number of months ago feeling fine. There are two Tuberculosis sanitariums in Oregon, one at The Dalles and the other at Eugene.

BYRD GRIGSBY ACCIDENTLY SHOT THROUGH HAND

The following poem by an unknown author was broadcast over KJMED Tuesday noon by the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce and is well worth re-printing:

Soldiers Three

"Three soldiers I have seen today
Facing the battle line alone;
No martial note to cheer them on—
No promise with the coming dawn
They faced it where we cowards fall down—
These soldiers I have seen today.

"The first was a little crippled lad—
There must be more in life for him
Than just the wheel chair he was in;
Neighbor boys playing on the street he heard—
And the shouts and tramp of little feet,
And oh, how his little heart must hurt.

"The second was a new-made widow
This mother with her many cares,
No trouble must burden the little mind,
And so her sorrow alone she bears
And all the while she wears a cheery smile.
This soldier that I saw today.

"The third was a woman—blind;
God's glories hidden from her
sightless eyes,
And yet her tenderness makes me almost wish
I, too, were blind! Envy and rebellion she doesn't know—Sight does not bring the scent of the rose!
This soldier that I saw today.

Three soldiers I have seen today
Who ne'er will know the world's applause;
But courage I got from that crippled lad—
Hope from the story that the widow had;
Faith I have gained from eyes made blind,
And so I, too, can face the battle
line
Because of these soldiers I have seen today."

Will Hold Meet Friday

The Central Point Grange will hold their meeting at the hall Friday evening. At this time the two sides chosen for the membership drive will put on the program. Mrs. Victor Bursell and Mrs. Maust are captains and each will have charge of half of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Jolley are planning to move out on to the Van Hovenberg place in Sams Valley where Mr. Jolley has work.

Fine Dinner Served Yesterday

The Extension Unit served a wonderful dinner yesterday at the Grange Hall. It was no April Fools dinner either. Everything was served piping hot, well cooked and seasoned. A complete dinner, coffee, and pie was served for the small sum of 25c and we cannot understand why more of our people were not present. Anyone not attending missed out on a fine dinner. Judge Day, and Commissioner Billings and Castor were among the out of town guests.

Spend Weekend Here

While Edward Jones was in the vicinity of Rogue River Friday he saw a wrecked truck. Knowing a number of truck drivers he stopped. At about the same time Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Middleton arrived on their way to Central Point. Mr. Middleton's brother, Bert, drove the same kind of truck so they stopped and discovered it was his brother's truck. Mrs. Middleton accompanied her father, Mr. Jones, home while Mr. Middleton followed his brother to find out how badly he was hurt. After finding his brother was not seriously hurt Mr. Middleton came on to Central Point where he and his wife were weekend guests at the Edward Jones home.
