Wins Prize in Poetry Contest

Mrs. Marie Snyder, a former resident here, received the most votes for her poem "Me an' My Dog" and a five dollar cash prize. The poem and also a snapshot of Mrs. Snyder's step-son and his dog were printed in the Call Bulletin Amateur Prize Page.

Mrs. Snyder is a daughter of Mrs. Jennie White who resides here. The poem which is a very charming bit of verse follows:

ME AN' MY DOG

Me an' my dog, we're just like pals.
Wherever I go, he goes along.
An' when I get tired he sits down too
An' nothin' I ever do is wrong—
So my dog says.

He jes' won't let me out o' sight;
Once when I went down to the creek
An' waded in, he jumped in, too,
An' pulled me out—an' for most a week
I stayed in bed.

But my dog, he wouldn't leave my room;
He kept right close against my bed
An' my mom likes him, and didn't care—

"If it wasn't for your smart dog," she said,
"I'd have no boy."

So me an' my dog, we run an' play.
An' dig for gophers—we're a 'nawful sight—
An' when I grow up an' go to school
To learn to read an' spell an' write,
My dog will, too.
