

LOCALS

Mrs. Guy Tex returned home Tuesday evening from Portland. During her absence she visited old friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Boles, and Mr. Tex's aunt, Mrs. Earl Henderson, formerly Margaret Ensley.

Mr. E. R. Gleason caught a 20 lb. salmon at High Banks recently. He took this fish on a fly made by Charles Taylor, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Berrian and children of San Bernardino were dinner guests at the H. P. Jewett home tonight. They are visiting Mr. Berrian's mother in Medford.

The Junior band of the Federated church took their lunch and spent the afternoon at the Cassman home recently.

Katherine Lathrop returned home from Oregon State college Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elde have moved into the house that the Fleischer family vacated. It was an error that stated that Mrs. Deuel and Johnny were moving into this house.

Miss Francis Faber returned home with her brother Mr. Everett Faber and wife early Sunday morning. Miss Faber has been attending the Willamette University.

Mr. Guy Tex has some lovely home grown gladiolias on display in the city hall. He also has new potatoes as big as your fist and string beans from his garden.

Mrs. Waterhouse and granddaughter, little Miss Marylou Kennedy of Joplin Missouri are visiting Mrs. Waterhouse's sister, Mrs. E. R. Geaon. They stopped at Los Angeles and visited the Major Bowes company of which Miss Kennedy's mother is a member, arriving here last Friday morning.

Mrs. E. E. Scott received a letter from her daughter, Miss Mildred Berger saying that she was able to be back at her work part time for the first time since her accident on February 25. Miss Berger was driving to work when another woman driving a car crashed into her broad side, tearing all the ligaments and muscles loose in her right hip and injuring her back. She is now able to walk with a cane and expects to be fully recovered in another year.

Morris's Top Notch Eats have just had a new coil installed in their large Frigidaire in the main lunch room, also in the one in the kitchen. A new electric stove and steam table has been added to the kitchen equipment. New and better equipment are being added continually making this a very good place to eat when in Medford.

About twenty-five members of the young peoples class of the Federated church spent Monday evening as the guests of Mrs. Violet Hamilton at the Hamilton cabin on the river. After the business meeting a camp fire was enjoyed and a supper of hamburgers, etc., enjoyed.
