NOTICE

City Recorder Guy Tex wishes to inform the public that all the laws regarding fires were broken at the recent fire. Cars are prohibited coming nearer than 200 feet. People that are not helping and children are to stay at a safe distance. At the fire Tuesday if there had been an explosion many people would have been injured and the fire department was hindered in its work by the crowds. After this all laws will be enforced and arrests will be made of the violators.

Cap Miller was in town to see the adjuster about insurance and arranging for repairs to his house which was badly injured by fire Tuesday.

The state inspector for cafe's and lunch counter's was in town and inspected the Damon Cafe. He was unexpected and Mrs. Damon thought he was making himself very much at home—peering and peeking into everything and asked him who he was. The Damon Cafe was passed No. 1.

The men in the party said they didn't dare to stay long or else they would never get the girls to leave. The group left last week for Crater Lake and it was one of these ladies that sustained injuries at the lake.

If our readers will glance at the date after their name on The American they will see to what date their subscription is paid to. We would appreciate it very much if they would stop in and bring their subscription up to date if it is not already up.

Boy Scouts Leave For Camp at Lake

Mr. Ed Vincent, Mr. Humphries and son Lee each took a car load of Boy Scouts to the Scout Camp at Lake of the Woods Sunday.

Mr. Humphries took a trailer and the new boat that the Odd Fellows gave the scouts. When the boys were informed that the OddFellows voted to give them a boat they were delighted beyond words.

Mr. Lewis Swartz was hired to make the boat. $25 worth of lumber, besides many other things that go to make a good boat, was purchased.

When the boys arrived at the Lake it was to late to register until after dinner so they unloaded the boat and took it down to the lake.

Those attending from troop 40 were Homer and Warren Young, Abner Knadler, Bobby Vincent, Hal Jewett, Mike Thornley, Vernon Holland, Rex Coy, Harold Pierce, Eugene Humphries, Neal Stone and Delbert Ayers, Assistant Scout Master, who will stay with the troop. Mr. Vincent, who is scout master, returned home Tuesday.

Sells Big Game Bullets in East

Mervyn Gleason on being quizzed as to what he was doing when seen grinding off the end off bullets gave the following information: Mr. Gleason had received an order for a case of bullets to hunt big game, elk, and arbiou in Canada, from a hunter in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and he was flattening their high speed bullet points on an emery wheel. This party is paying the express on this case of caliber 270 Winchester bullets back there. He got in touch with Mr. Gleason through a National Rifleman Magazine.

Fishing Reported Good in Various Streams of District

Fishing at Diamond Lake is excellent, and fly fishing in Upper Rogue River seems to be at its best, limit catches being made by nearly everyone. In Union Creek and its tributaries excellent catches are being made with grasshoppers. The
