

Local Happenings

A big crowd was out to enjoy the Cotton Blossom Singers Monday night at the Christian Church. There was not enough standing room inside—many stood outside by the windows. The singers consisted of five dark boys who were accompanied by a middle age white woman. Miss Moran of Florida is their advance agent and travels on a motorcycle.

Mrs. J. D. Culbertson was able to be out to Sunday school. She has been confined to her home with illness for a long time.

Potatoes—$1.49 a 100 lbs. at Marine's.

Mrs. L. Damon reports that tourist trade is picking up fine and that business is much better.

Mr. Hilton of Jacksonville was able to be moved to his home from the Medford hospital. It is thought that his recovery from his recent attack will be slow but eventually he will be all right. Mr. Hilton is the father of Mr. Floyd Hilton, who with his wife lives at the Theodore Glass home.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Benston and children are moving to Medford to be nearer their work. They will be greatly missed here and it is hoped that they will be able to make their home here again in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bloomenstein are making extensive improvements on their property.

Mr. Jack Territt who has a 24 day leave from the Navy visited his grandparents, Wednesday. His father, mother and sister, Dorothy, were with him. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Territt will be guests at a dinner given in honor of their wedding anniversary at the home of their son, Dade Territt, in Medford.

Geraldine Jones of Dunsmuir is enjoying a two weeks vacation. This week she is visiting in Medford and here. Next week she plans to spend with Dunsmuir friends in Hollywood.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Maple and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Benston motored to Crescent City Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Stevens of Ashland visited in Medford Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lathel Stevens. Lathel and Marvin Stevens are brothers.

CLASSIFIED

FOUND

BUNCH OF KEYS. Owner may have same by calling at Humphrey's Meat Market.

FOR SALE

BETTER USED FURNITURE. Radio, Fine Rug, Mattresses, Desk, Heats. 9x12 Rugs $4.80. Jars. 10¢ South Grape.

$6000 worth of equipment with stock goes at half price. Restaurant, Confectionery, Ales, Beers. Selling on account of poor health. Call at Damon Cafe. Central Point.

CLEANING & DEMOTHEMING Compound. Excellent for cleaning overstuffed furniture and rugs. Call at this office.

Central Point Wood Yard

If offering

Planer BLOCKS

for $4.45 per load

Phone 338
Reasonable Prices
Prompt Service

TUBES CHECKED FREE

When brought to the shop at the
Telephone Office

Sandy Richardson
Central Point

Mohawk &
Richfield
GAS
Wholesale and Retail
Oil, 10c qt.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Dickinson of Ashland accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Isaacson spent a most delightful Sunday at Union Creek.

Mrs. Duncan received word from her daughter, Mrs. Gipe, that the children had all recovered from their car accident but that her back and neck were still bad.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Barnes of Pasadena, Calif., spent several days here as guests of Mr. George Wallace. They enjoyed a trip to Crater Lake. The Barnes had enjoyed a trip up the coast into Canada and were on their return trip when they stopped here.

Mr. Jack Corkery and Mrs. Denno of Kamath Falls were married last week and made a trip to Portland. They stopped here for Mr. Corkery's daughter Grace, who accompanied them on their trip. Grace returned to Klamath Falls with them to make her home.

Mr. Elmer Craddock of Dorris accompanied by Mrs. Van Dyke and son arrived here this past week. Mrs. Van Dyke and son returned to their home. Mr. Craddock visited his aunt Mrs. Mayfield before he returned home.

Mrs. Musty's brother Albert and friend from Washington are visiting at the Musty home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Farra returned to their home in San Francisco after a weeks visit with their parents.

CORRECTION

It was reported in our last issue that Mr. Powers was dead. We are very glad to be able to inform you that this was a mistake. Mr. Powers is in a serious condition but is a little better at this time. We hope for a speedy recovery for him.

The many friends of Walter F. Woods will be pleased to know that he has opened a cafe at 101 East eight street, Medford. He will pleased to meet all old friends as well as new ones, here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brenner entertained the Woodmen's Lodge after the regular meeting Tuesday evening. A large number were present and a jolly time reported. A water-melon feed was a big event of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller from Long Beach are visiting at the home of their cousin, Mrs. Edward Jones and family. They will visit in Ashland and make a trip to Crater Lake before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Vella and children left Wednesday morning for Sonoma Valley where Mr. Vella has two other cheese plants to look after. Vella's enjoyed there visit here for the past two weeks very much. Mr. Vella and family made a trip to Crater Lake while here and would have liked to have made more trips but could not on account of the time. The Vella's had a double cottage at the Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smiley and children of Keno arrived at the home of Mrs. Smiley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Glass at 7 o'clock Monday evening driving a new car and expecting to turn that one night into day. They enjoyed a drive around the valley, made a visit at the Orin Glass home and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Glass until nearly morning. They then enjoyed an early breakfast and left for their home. Mr. Smiley is unable to leave his work for even a day.

The Pomona Grange picnic held at Savage Camp last Sunday was a big success with Central Point members carrying off the honors. They received a beautiful flower vase for having the largest attendance and also won the grand prize for winning in most of the activities. About 150 grange members attended.

Mr. E. C. Dawson, who, together with his sons is working a mine on Carberry Creek—a tributary of the Applegate River, has just installed a large amount of new machinery, including $250.00 for a new pump and pipe line. His mine is located in rich territory just below the Steamboat mine.

Bill Snyder was visiting in Central Point the first part of the week. He is now working at Camp Gasquet near Crescent City.

A. R. OWINGS SERVICE STATION

Central Point

Work Starts on "Cavalcade of Texas"

The history of Texas, under the six flags which have flown over it from the days of the first Spaniards to the present, will be set forth in pomp and color in "The Cavalcade of Texas," an expansive pageant to be presented three times daily during the Texas

Centennial, the $25,000,000 World's Fair, which runs in Dallas from June 6 to Nov. 29. Above J. Mark Hamilton, director and expert on lore of the Southwest, and Jan Isabelle Fortune, well known magazine writer, confer over the script.

Funeral services were held this afternoon in Stayton, Ore., the former family home, for Richard Hensley, father of Margaret Rostel of the Mail Tribune advertising staff. Mr. Hensley, who had been in poor health for some time, passed away Tuesday evening in Portland.

Weekend visitors in Medford include Mr. and Mrs. Stanley L. Stark of Alturas, Calif., who are guests at the home of Mrs. Stark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ramstrom, at their home near here. Also a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ramstrom this weekend was their son, Carl, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Banwell and children are expected to arrive here tomorrow from Tacoma, Wash., whence they were to leave by motorcar this morning. Mr. Banwell was stricken in Tacoma last week with a slight heart attack while he was en route to the air show in Vancouver, B. C.

Elmer Feldenheimer of Portland arrived here yesterday to take charge picking operations at his orchard properties.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Cowin 825 North Central avenue, a girl weighing six pounds and 11 ounces, Friday at the Sacred Heart hospital. Mr. Cowin is well known here having attended the local high school. He will be remembered by his friends as "Buddy".

Mrs. P. A. Tracy was very much shocked when she read of the death of her brother, Forrest Devor, in a mine disaster in Dowell, Ill. She first read the story in Monday's Mail Tribune. "Forrest Devor was a resident of Josephine county for several months at one time, returning to Illinois during the winter of 1915. He studied mine engineering, became first assistant manager and then district manager of the Dowell mines, a position he has held for a number of years. He had just returned to work after a vacation trip to Colorado before the tragedy..." Mrs. Tracy stated that it was characteristic of him to be among the first to go to the rescue of a fellow-worker.

IOWA PICNIC AUGUST 16
All former residents of the state of Iowa are invited to attend the annual picnic to be held at the Grants pass park, Sunday, August 16. The Grants Pass Iowa Club is arranging a program for the day. Please bring your lunch and table service.

Among those from here attending the Shakespearian plays at Ashland last week were Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Isaacson with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marsh from Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Love also attended these plays.

Higher Markets Are in Sight!

One More Chance To Buy Flour

At A Saving Price

Special Price On Barrel Lots

Klamath Flour---$5.00 a barrel.

Faber's

Mrs. T. A. Marine spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Swartz.

Mr. and Mrs. Prince of Santa Barbara visited their niece, Mrs. Paul Martin. Her father, Mr. Miller of San Luis Obispo, Calif., also arrived about the same time without any knowledge of the others visit. They left for their home Monday evening. Mr. Miller has been working in the cemetery fixing the coping and a stone for his wife's grave.

Fick Hardware Moved to New Store on W. Main

Always Come to us for

Cold Meats Of All Kinds

Pickles and Cheese

As Well as

Fresh Meats

Central Point Meat Market I. D. LEWIS, Prop.

ETHEL'S BEAUTY SALON

Will be open until 6:30 Saturday evenings during Fruit Season. Also late appointments will be taken care of anytime during the week.

Central Point Phone 21

At Your Service Gleason & Bates BARBER'S

At the Gleason Barber Shop
Open Evenings

PACKERS

Your beauty work can easily be taken care of by making a special appointment.

Our expert work will be sure to please.

VI CORBY'S Wave Shop

Hotel Medford

Cook's Wave Shop

19 No. Bartlett

Medford, Oregon

All Lines of Beauty Culture

OPERATORS
Mary Cook Cordia Oswald

Phone 61

BERT PECK Automobile Repair And Service

FABER BUILDING

Dr. C. W. Lemery (Successor to Dr. J. J. Emmens) 204 Medford Bldg.

Practice limited to eye, ear, nose,
and throat, and fitting of glasses.
Tel. 567 Res. 1013

COLLINS DAIRY

Grade A raw and Pasteurized
Milk & Cream

"Cleanliness" our Motto

Open for Inspection at all times

Joe Collins, Prop.

W. E. Alexander

Central Point

Specializes in

Pumps & Pumping Systems
and Garden Hose

BUY . . .

Firestone Tires

on

BUDGET PLAN

at

Associated Service Station

L. C. Grimes